BOTH SIDES HAVE WINS IN MEXICO.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Jan. 28.—A message from Victoria says that Carranza troops under Generals Manzo and Alajo Gonzales, defeated Villa troops at Apam on January 24. Apam is in the State of Hidalgo. The message stated that the number of killed and captured was more than 800. Carranza troops, according to reports, occupy Apam, which is considered an important movement in the general plan against the city of Mexico.

EAGLE PASS, Texas, Jan. 28.—Passengers arriving in Piedras Negras, the Mexican town opposite here, report that Villa forces have captured Monclova, Coahuilla. It was said Carranza troops were retreating toward Sabina, Felipe, a town in Coahuilla, about 150 miles south-west of here.

SUICIDE AT WINDSOR.

THE LATE MR. STANWAY.—The Guardian notes by the late Montreal papers the passing away on the 25th inst. of Mr. William Stanway, a wealthy and highly esteemed resident of that city. The late Mr. Stanway was an Englishman by birth and a cultured gentleman in the fullest sense of the word. He was an extensive holder of Bank, Street Railway and other stocks, and a member of Montreal's most exclusive Clubs. Mr. H. G. Stanway, residing in this city, is a brother.

FROM SALISBURY.—Following are extracts from a letter received by Mrs. George Walker, Charlottetown, from her son, Frank, who enlisted with the first contingent, now in No. 1 Field Ambulance, Bustard Camp, Salisbury Plains: "9th January. I have just come off hospital duty, which we have to do every second week. Sunday passed here just the same as any other day, only of course if the weather is fine we hold a church service. The weather here is even wetter, if possible, than it has been before. A lot of small villages are completely flooded out, and people have to get around in row boats or rafts. The nave and transepts of Salisbury Cathedral are completely flooded. This is a very ancient Roman Catholic Church, one of the finest of its kind in England, and the pride of the people of Salisbury. I have been through it several times. It stands majestically in the centre of the town and its tall and graceful spire can be distinctly seen from our camp. There are a great many handsome old buildings here. A great many of the country buildings are hundreds of years old, their roofs thatched with straw, their ancient walls covered with ivy and they stand just as they did when Shakespeare and Bacon were alive. The longer I stay in England the more I realise how venerable a country it is. In fact the very ground we are sleeping on was used by the ancient Roman soldiers as a camp before the time of our Saviour.—X.

POULTRY DISCUSSED.—On Wednesday evening, January 27th, Mr. Richard Creed addressed an Agricultural Conference at Stanchell, D. McLean presided. The meeting was a very large one, and a lively interest was taken, which goes to show the appreciation which these Agricultural Conferences are receiving. Mr. Creed dealt quite largely on the Poultry industry, showing that in 1914 $40,000,000 worth of eggs were imported into the United Kingdom. Of this total $43,000,000 worth came from countries which are now involved in the war. In dealing with oats and barley he pointed out that $25,000,000 worth came from countries which are now affected by the war, and while it is essential for the British Empire to have oats for their horses at the front, which must be supported to transfer the artillery and also cavalry, along with innumerable other requirements of the army, the question which now confronts us is, where is this amount of oats going to come from, and are we ready to do our share to help supply this demand which is so essential, even though it should require some special effort on our part. He said that he did not advocate as a general rule the use of fertilizer, yet, at this time it is a case of necessity, and necessarily knows no law, and that he would advocate the sowing of Nitrate of Soda on the grain crops to increase the yield for the year 1915. He also thought that farmers could vary well buy Cotton Seed to feed their cows instead of so much oats, and, in this way they would be making a good financial exchange, and at the same time help to supply the shortage of oats. A discussion led by Rev. D. McLean followed after which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Creed for his instructive lecture. The National Anthem was then sung, and the crowd dispersed.

SKATE AT ST. DUNSTAN'S.—All should enjoy the outing and skate at St. Dunstan's Rink, Wednesday night, 8446.

THE MINTO.—The Minto docked in Charlottetown Saturday morning at 9.50 with ten sacks of mail, nine passengers and one ton of express and 73 tons of freight.

ENTRIES FOR RACES.—Entries for the races to be held Tuesday, viz., Free-For-All, 2.23, 2.30 and Green Race, close this evening at Henderson's forge at 8 o'clock. These races are filling fast and will no doubt prove the most interesting so far run off.

"SATURDAY NIGHT" of Toronto has a circulation of 45,000 and goes to all parts of the world. See advertising column for club offer to new subscribers to the Guardian. Old subscribers write to A. MacKinnon, P. O. Box 432, Charlottetown. 8288.

ICE RACE PREPARATIONS.—The horsemen will meet to-night at J. A. Henderson's Forge at 8 o'clock to make the arrangements for the races. The probability is that the named race will be held on Wednesday. Arrangements will also be made for pulling off the other classes which are 2.21 trot, 2.24 pace, 2.30 trot and pace (hopples barred), free-for-all and green race.

SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court on Saturday last finished the last jury trial on the docket and then adjourned until Wednesday next when arguments for new trials, etc., will be heard. In the action brought by Theodore Ross against George W. Gardiner which occupied the attention of the Court on Thursday afternoon until Saturday, the jury after a short absence found for the plaintiff and fixed the damages at $100. The suit arose out of a distress for rent made by the defendant upon the plaintiff and placing a man in his dwelling house under a distress warrant, the plaintiff contending that the seizure of his goods and the placing of the man in charge was illegal, whilst the defendant claimed that he had a right to seize. McQuarrie, K. C., and McCallum for the plaintiff; Johnston, K. C., for the defendant.

AT SPRINGFIELD.—Mr. Richard Creed addressed an Agricultural Conference at Springfield, on Saturday, January 25th. Mr. George Haslam occupied the chair. The meeting was well attended and much enthusiasm was shown. He emphasized the great necessity of increasing the dairy products of the coming year. Mr. Creed pointed out that during the year 1913, nearly $100,000,000 worth of dairy products were imported into the United Kingdom for countries which, owing to the war, will not be able to supply the demand for years to come. He also stated that cheese was one of the best foods procurable for the soldiers at the front, and that it could be handled more economically than a great many other products. He then went on to show that in 1911 the average milking cow produced only 3,009 lbs. of milk, and we believe that this could be very materially increased by giving more care to our dairy cows, and by feeding them some of the concentrated feeds, such as cottonseed oil, etc., etc. He also said that while we are looking to the soldiers at the front to win our battles, the soldiers in the trenches look upon us in a similar light to supply them with the necessary foods to enable them to carry on their great struggle. This shows the necessity of us doing our part in order to enable them to do their duty. At the close of Mr. Creed's address, a very interesting discussion took place, in which the following gentlemen took part: Mr. Ferguson, Benjamin Haslam, James Brown, and many others. A hearty vote of thanks, moved by Mr. James Sinclair, seconded by Thomas Haslam, was entered to Mr. Creed for his very instructive and interesting address, after which this enthusiastic meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

S. O. T.—The quarterly meeting of the Grand Division at Springfield, Thursday the 29th inst was the largest and most enthusiastic January session held for many years. The reports of Grand Officers showed an increased number of Divisions, a substantial gain in membership, and a healthy treasury balance. The principal subject considered, was the alleged tax enforcement of the Prohibition Act, and the prospective amendments to the Act. In the evening the usual public meeting was held. The hall was packed to the utmost, not even standing room available so that many could not get admittance, and the best of order prevailed. The speaking of the evening were the G. W. P. Bro. L. P. Tanton who acted as chairman, Bro. Peter Sinclair, who delivered the address of welcome; the G. S. J. F. Profit who replied to the address; the Rev. Bro. Leard and P. G. W. A. Bro. D. M. McDonald. A literary and musical programme was presented as below All acquitted themselves most creditably, and the participants were applauded with vigor. A vote of thanks to the choir, the Rev. Mr. Leard, and to the people of Springfield, was tendered and suitably closed all singing heartily.—God Save the King. The programme was as follows:—Chorus, Temperance March; Solo, Chorus, F. W. E. Haslam. Recitation, Winnies Welcome, Ada McKay; Solo Chorus, Your King and Country needs you, Choir; Recitation, Last Charge, Frank Abbott; Solo Chorus, For King and Country, Choir; Solo, What are the scenes of yesterday, Ira McKay; Recitation, Margaret Drummond; Duet, Bessie Rattee and Fred Haslam; Quartette, Messrs McKay, Haslam and others; God Save the King. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with the following notices:—"For Canada and Old England," "Your King and Country need you," "God Save our King," "Love, Purity and Fidelity" and "Welcome to all."

ENJOYABLE EVENT.—Court Winsloe, No. 929, C. O. F. held a very enjoyable supper and at home last Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ludmore. This being their regular annual good time, it proved to be the best yet. The beautiful home and out-buildings being put in readiness to receive the large number of members and their friends, and for the comfort of the horses, as many as could be placed, and by the number of sleighs in the yard, would remind one of a successful country fair, many also were accommodated at the neighboring barns and stables. The ladies excelled all previous events in variety and taste which provided for the inner man. One unusual thing which helped much to give comfort and pleasure was the placing by Mr. S. F. Tarbush of the city, of one of his beautiful parlor lamps, with its marvellous light over the large dining room for that evening, its effect being so great that the members of the Court in Winsloe in a quiet way, at the right time and in the right place, purchased the lamp from Mr. Tarbush, who was for a number of years organizer for the order for this Province and is never forgotten by the members at their big annual social times, and when the time was ripe, he invited Mr. and Mrs. Ludmore to stand by his side, while Mr. Charles McKenzie carried the wonderful lamp in. He then in a short address stated that for their kindness and generosity in making everybody feel at home and welcome, and the affair being such a grand success, in behalf of the members of Court Winsloe, No. 929, C. O. F., he presented them with the lamp that produced next to sunlight, to which they both replied, thanking them very kindly for the beautiful gift, believing that for their remaining years they could look up in remembrance of the pleasant time spent with the members and friends of Court Winsloe, and that now they could boast of having in their home, a better light than the city folk with their gas and electricity. The literary programme for the evening was good, singing, organ and violin music, addresses and recitations. The latest thing, a new Foresters' march, marshalled by Mr. Oliver Saunders were well trained to his bidding. After a vote of thanks to all who helped to make it a success, and intimating that they could expect a good bang up Foresters' picnic during the coming Summer, all departed to their homes.

COMMERCIAL MAN NOW IN EMBASSY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Sir Richard Crawford takes up his duties today as commercial attache of the British Embassy. One of the first developments of the plan of placing a special representative of the British Government here to deal with commercial aspects of the war will be the conclusion of final arrangements between American wool interests and the London Foreign Office for bringing wool into the country.

The agreement to be made by the American manufacturer will follow the lines of that in operation between the rubber importers and Great Britain whereby manufactured rubber is not to be exported to Britain's enemies and all foreign shipments are to be made through London.

The representatives of the London wool interests will include the agreement in London and the details will then be taken up by the embassy here.

The first cargo of raw rubber to enter the country under the new regulations arrived with Sir Richard on the Lusitania Saturday.

SPLENDID OFFERING TO MISSIONS
BY NEW YORK CHURCH.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Rev. Dr. John Henry Jowett, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, at Fifty-Fifth Street, thanked his parishioners Sunday morning for their generous and "sacrificial" offering made to foreign missions the previous Sunday. This equaled $40,594.21. Last year the offering for the same cause was less than $15,000.

WHAT THE SUNSET MEANS.

What a sunset! How golden! How beautiful! The sun just disappearing and the narrow tiny clouds which a few minutes ago lay like soft vapory streaks along the horizon lighted up with a golden splendor that the eye can scarcely endure, and those still softer clouds which float above them, wreathing and curling into a thousand fantastic forms as thin and changeable as summer smoke, now defined and deepened into grandeur and edged with ineffable, insufferable light!

Another minute, and the brilliant orb totally disappears, and the sky above grows every moment more varied and more beautiful as the dazzling golden lines are mixed with a glowing red and gorgeous purple dappled with small dark specks and mingled with such a blue as the egg of the hedge-sparrow. To look up at that glorious sky, and then to see that magnificent picture reflected in the clear and lovely London water is a pleasure never to be described and never to be forgotten.

My heart swells and my eyes fill as I write of it and think of the immeasurable majesty of Nature, and the unspeakable goodness of God, who has spread an enjoyment so pure, so peaceful and so intense before the meanest and lowliest of His creatures.—Mary Russell Mitford.

We Want Money

As our fiscal year is now drawing to a close we would kindly ask our many customers who are indebted to us to try and arrange for a settlement of that bill mailed you recently. It is well known that the past few months have owing to prevailing conditions, been very severe on business in general so much so that we were obliged to meet our obligations at those terms of credit thus necessitating prompt settlements and a lowering of our funds. We therefore WANT MONEY and would appreciate your calling and arranging for a settlement of your account.
