REQUEST NOT GRANTED— Mayor B. Earle MacDonald has received a reply from the Department of Naval Affairs, Ottawa, to his request that one or two naval ships visit Charlottetown during Old Home Week. The Department stated that owing to the reorganizing of the Navy which is now going on and the scarcity of ships, it was impossible for the Department to accede to the Mayor's request.

SURVEY SHIP IN PORT—The Government Survey Ship "Acadia" arrived in port Friday evening and is docked at the Marine Wharf. Capt. Snelgrove is in command. Assistant surveyors are Messrs. Leadman, Gray, Surret, Fraser and Wright. The ship which is especially built for hydrographic work, was used during the war years as an officers' training ship. She arrived here direct from Pictou where she was refitted. The Acadia is expected to sail today.

Reports from the western part of the Province last night disclosed two brush fires were burning briskly in the vicinity of Richmond.

One, a mile west of Richmond, was said to be on the properties of Alonzo Wilson and William McEntee. No buildings had been burned at last reports though the fire was said to constitute a potential menace to the property buildings of John Baglole.

The other fire is understood to be nearer Northam but there again no serious damage was reported.

Residents in Richmond could see the flames clearly last night and at last reports neither fire was under control.

RETURNS WITH MOTOR TRUCKS — Mr. J. F. Connolly, Deputy Minister of Reconstruction returned from Sussex, N. B Saturday evening. Mr. Connolly brought back with him 11 3-4 ton motor trucks and a jeep which made the trip under their own power driven by persons engaged for the purpose. The motor vehicles were secured in Sussex from the War Assets Corporation and will be disposed of to farmers here who have been seeking to obtain such equipment. Mr. W. E. Agnew, trade agent to Newfoundland, accompanied Mr. Connolly to Sussex and returned with him

Sgt. James A. McInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose McInnis of Summerside has received the following from Ottawa, in recognition of meritorious service during the campaign in North West Europe.

"It has been brought to my notice that you have performed outstanding good service and shown great devotion to duty during the campaign in North West Europe. I award you this certificate as a token of my appreciation and I have given instructions that this shall be noted in your record of service.

"B. L. Montgomery
"Field Marshal."

Sgt. McInnis who enlisted at the beginning of the war saw service on most of the front all during the war. Now demobilized he is at present completing arrangements to open an up to date grocery store in the east end of Summerside.—S.

After a lengthy illness, there passed to his rest at his home in Capt Traverse on Wednesday 17, 1946, Edward S MacPherson in his seventy-fourth year, son of the late Neil MacPherson and his wife Mary Ann Walker of Tryon.

Besides a sorrow widow the former Elizabeth Howatt he leaves to mourn one son, Arthur L. MacPherson, employee of Dunn and Bradstreet, Charlottetown and three grandchildren, Betty, Harold and Mark MacPherson. One son Harold predeceased him forty-one years ago.

In the passing of Mr. MacPherson, Capt Traverse lost a splendid citizen, a good neighbor and friend and the church an exemplary member and strong supporter.

His funeral which was largely attended was held on Friday, July 9th. from his late home to Cape Traverse Church of Scotland cemetery, his pastor Rev J H Bishop conducting the services.

The pallbearers were Messrs Bud Bell, Albert MacDonald, Earle Sawler, Russel Howatt, Claude Howatt and John H. Howatt

On July 3, the community of Winsloe and the vicinity was deeply saddened at the sudden passing of one of its most respected residents, John W. Carter. The death occurred at his home after an illness of two weeks.

The deceased was widely known and highly esteemed, and by his death many an empty place has been left vacant. The North Winsloe United Church choir will miss a pleasing voice, and the congregation will miss a faithful face. For many years he was a member of the Trustee Board of the church and his never-failing presence was a great example to the success of the Board.

He is survived by his wife his mother, Mrs. Charles Carter, three sons, Leith and Lloyd at home and Earl of Harrington; one brother, James, of Vancouver; one sister, Mrs. Harry Coles, of Winsloe South; and one granddaughter, A daughter, May, predeceased him in 1929.

The funeral was held from his home on Friday, July 5, Rev. J. R. Skinner officiated, assisted by J Hebar Kean, student minister at Winsloe. A duet "Sometime We'll Understand" was sung by Mr. Harold Cudmore and Mrs. Earl Clarke. The hymns were "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" and "Rock of Ages". Interment was made in the Winsloe North Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Gordon MacInnes, Albert Younker, George Cudmore, Albert Smith, Wallie Marrow and Bruce Younker.

TUESDAY

SUFFERS WEAK SPELL—A man who suffered a weak spell at noon yesterday and fell unconscious on a lawn at the corner of Weymouth and Sydney Streets, was rushed to the City Hospital where, officials of the institution said last night, his condition was improving.

SWIMMING RAFT STOLEN — The Red Cross swimming raft is reported to have been stolen from its anchorage off the end of Brighton Road last Thursday night and to have been seen at the mouth of the harbour the following morning. Latest reports from Red Cross officials are that it has not been recovered.

FIRST VISIT TO P. E. I. —Mr. B. J. O. Strong and Mrs. Strong of Regina, are visiting their son, Cpl. Strong of the R. C. M. P., Charlottetown. Mr. Strong is retired from the R. C. M. P., having served a number of years. This is his first visit to Prince Edward Island, and he thinks it is one of the prettiest places he has ever seen.

A SATISFIED CUSTOMER — Mr. D. A. Morrison, of the firm of Bruce Stewart and Company Ltd., has received an unusual testimonial to the lasting quality of the gasoline engines turned out by this well known local firm Writing from Bristol, P. E. I., Mr. Harris L. Arnold states that his engine has given him thirty-two years service, "without any trouble with babbits." He is now running it for the thirty-third consecutive year, which is surely something of a record.

EXCELLENT PUBLICITY— Island activities in farming, fishing, fox raising, etc., are reviewed in an interesting article on "Prince Edward Island," in the current issue of Canada's Weekly, published in London, England, under the editorship of Sir Percy Hurd. The author is Austin F. Cross. The text is well illustrated and the front page of the magazine is devoted to a picture of the old cannon and fort at Victoria Park. Special reference is made to Island tourist attraction.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — The funeral of Andrew Ernest MacInnis was held yesterday morning from the A. A Hennessey Funeral Home to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Maurice McDonald, assisted by Rev. K. MacPherson, Deacon and Rev. He has been Past High Priest, Past High Preceptor and Past Grand Superintendent for the Maritimes and Newfoundland. A son, Charles T., of New Dominion, this province survives.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS—At the regular monthly meeting of the School Board held yesterday afternoon Lt. Col. Leo F. MacDonald for several years, principal of Queen Square School and who has just returned from military service overseas was given a further years' leave of absence. The resignation of Miss Phyllis Rossiter, teacher of Queen Square School, was accepted with regret. It was decided that the boys who have completed Grade 6 at Prince Street School would move on to Grade 7 in that school instead of being sent to West Kent School as in the past. The matter of boys remaining at Prince Street School up to Grade Ten will be given further consideration.

There passed peacefully away on July 17th the soul of Gerald Bryenton son of Mr. and Mrs Horace Bryenton of Kensington. Gerald, who had just passed his eleventh birtoday had never enjoyed good health and his devoted parents tried everything that medical skill and tender nursing could suggest to improve his condition but God willed otherwise and on the above mentioned date his gentle Spirit winged its way to its Creator after a few days illness of pneumonia.

His parents have the sympathy of a host of friends who come in large numbers to offer condolence in various ways and to attend his funeral which was held on July 18th. The service was conducted by their pastor, Rev. D. Noel, assisted by Rev B. Fream, a former pastor.

The hymns sung were "Mother of Salem" "When He Cometh" and "Jesus Loves Me".

His casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes, silent heartfelt expressions of love and sympathy. The pallbearers were Wesley and Wally Cole, Clarence McCarville and Newton McArthur. He was tenderly laid to rest in the Kensington Cemetery beside a baby sister Elizabeth, who predeceased him.—K.

After thirty-seven years as Superintendent of the Dominion Experimental Station at Charlottetown, Dr. J. A. Clark has retired from active service. Mr. Frank Tinney, senior assistant to Dr. Clark for the last few years, is taking over Dr. Clark's duties pending the appointment of a permanent successor.

Born at Bay View, near Cavendish, on Aug. 2, 1878, Dr. Clark received his academic training at Stanley Bridge School and Prince of Wales College. In 1902, he entered the New York College of Agriculture at Ithaca, N.Y., where he remained for two years. Later, he spent two years at the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, graduating from that institution in 1906 with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture.

After two years of applying his scientific knowledge to practical farming on his own farm, Dr. Clark took a post-graduate course at Cornell University during the summer of 1908. The following winter he served as assistant to the seed commissioner in the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

On Aug. 1, 1909, Dr. Clark was appointed to organize and superintend the first Dominion Experimental Station at Charlottetown. In 1918 he was granted leave of absence from the Station and went overseas as officer in charge of the Department of Agriculture. Part of his work involved the organizing and conducting of the Khaki University of Canada, the purpose of which was to give the Canadian soldier overseas an opportunity of studying agriculture in his spare time. Eighteen colleges with an enrollment of 9,000 students were established in England. Later, the work was extended to the continent and Dr. Clark organized schools in France, Belgium, and Germany. At one time he conducted agricultural classes at the famous University of Boon, Germany.

Honored By Acadia

Returning to Canada in July, 1919, he resumed his position as superintendent of the Experimental Station at Charlottetown until 1925 when he secured leave of absence to attend MacDonald College from which he graduated in 1926 with the degree of Master of Science in Agriculture. Acadia University honored him in 1930 by conferring upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Science.

Taking an active interest in community, provincial and Dominion affairs, Dr. Clark is and has been connected with many organizations. He has been a member of the Charlottetown Rotary Club since its formation in 1917, and is a past district governor. He is one of the original members of the Canadian Legion and is on the advisory committee of the local Y. M. C. A., formerly filling the office of "Y" president for 25 years. He is a past president of the Charlottetown Board of Trade and has served as vice-chairman and national councillor of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. At present he holds the following offices: Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the Prince Edward Island Hospital; vice-president of the Maritime Hospital Service Association; member of the Senate of Acadia University, a senior deacon of the Charlottetown Baptist Church, associated with the course of public administration in Dalhousie University; president of the P. E. I. branch of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturist, and a member of the P. E. I. seed board. He is also a charter member of the Agricultural Institute of Canada.

MAKE SOLO FLIGHT—Yesterday afternoon two more local boys went solo at the local airport, they were Keith Champion of the radio range station at the airport who started to fly less than a month ago and Bill "Doc" Johnston, who after an absence of one year from flying, when he was stationed at the R.C.A.F. base at the airport, again won his wings. Keith Champion took just eight hours and 55 minutes of instruction before making his initial flight by himself "Doc" Johnston required only a 40 minute recheck. Now there are over 40 young men flying and taking lessons at Paul's Flying Service and three young ladies expect to enroll within the next week.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER— A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ings, Mt. Herbert, July 5th, when a large number of friends and neighbors gathered to honor Miss Kathleen Raynor prior to her marriage. A beautifully decorated basket laden with gifts was presented to the young bride-to-be by Mrs. Vernon Norman and Mrs. Ray Shreenan. Mrs. Frank Hamm read the accompanying verses. Afterwards Kathleen thanked everyone for their lovely gifts and extended an invitation for all to visit her at her new home in North Wiltshire. A buffet lunch was then served in the prettily decorated dining room. Miss Eva L. Beer, R.N., poured tea. Those serving were Mrs. Vernon Norman and Mrs. Ray Shreenan. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music and social intercourse.

Q., London, and also with the 21st Army Group headquarters on the continent.

NURSES ASSOCIATION MEETS —The quarterly meeting of the P. E. Island Registered Nurses' Association was held yesterday afternoon at "Green Gables" with Miss Dorothy Cox presiding. Reports were read by delegates who had attended the Canadian Nurses' Convention in Toronto last month. A round table discussion was held on the increasing scarcity of nurses in the Province. The opinion of the meeting was that the present situation would not be greatly ameliorated until there was more accomodation for nurses in training at the various hospitals.

The community of High Bank, P. E. I., and all the surrounding districts were shocked when Mr. and Mrs. Mack MacLeod, received the sad news that their son Malcolm MacLeod was drowned at Port Credit, Ont., while in bathing with some companions on Saturday, July 13th.

His companions made every effort to rescue him but his body was not recovered till an hour and a half after the accident, and he was then beyond all help. He was born at Pinette, P. E. I., on September 2, 1923. The family removed to High Bank. He is survived by his father and mother, two brothers and three sisters. The brothers are Walter in Halifax, N. S.; Bruce, Pinette, P. E. I. The sisters Mrs. Anthony Van Vugt, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. John Hickox, Toronto, Ont., and Alice at home. Malcolm MacLeod enlisted early in the war in the Canadian Army, but later transferred to the Canadian Navy where for four and a half years, he served in many parts of the world. On his discharge he entered The Cassar System School, Toronto, Ont., to study telegraphy for the purpose of entering the Railway service. Had he been spared, he would have graduated from the School in about three weeks time, and a good position was awaiting him. He was a young man of excellent character, very friendly and enjoyed a large circle of friends. The body was brought home for burial accompanied by his chum Andy Harrigan, St. John, N. B. His remains arrived home on Tuesday evening, June 16th. His funeral was held on Thursday afternoon. After a brief service at the home the remains were brought to the Little Sands United Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. R. E. Vessey, assisted by Rev. E. R. MacVivar.

The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in the community. The pall bearers were all ex-members of the Canadian Navy and were Ralph MacNeill, Hector MacDonald, John Livingstone, George Ferguson, Ellsworth Ferguson and Laird Hooper. He was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

FRIDAY

ORPHANAGE CHILDREN ENTERTAINED — Yesterday, through the kindness of the Gyro Club, the children of St. Vincent's Orphanage were enabled to see the picture "Boys Ranch" at the Prince Edward Theatre. The children were also treated to ice cream, which was much appreciated. Thanks are due to the driver of Johnston's bus who took the children to and from the city.

RAIN HELPS CROPS — The heavy rain of Wednesday night and yesterday morning has abruptly changed growing conditions throughout the Province with respect to late grain and the root crops. Farmers who were in the City yesterday expressed the opinion that with more rain at more or less regular intervals, the pessimistic attitude many farmers have recently been taking with respect to their having a fair crop may be reversed.

WILL ATTEND CONVENTION —Mr. John F. Connolly, teacher at Prince of Wales College, and Mrs. Connolly leave tomorrow morning for Ottawa where Mr Connolly will attend the annual Canadian Teacher's Convention as a delegate of the P. E. Island Teachers' Federation. Other delegates from the Province are Miss Estelle Bowness, Summerside, president of the local organization; and Mr. J. A. S Williams, a member of the Board of Governors of the P. E. Island Teachers' Federation.

PLANE LANDS FROM GOOSE BAY — An American Army transport from Goose Bay, Labrador, landed at the local airport here last night, bringing home five local girls who are working there. After unloading its passengers the big transport took off for Montreal where it will take on supplies before returning to Goose Bay.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS —Two case of infantile paralysis in the vicinity of Crapaud are the only reported cases of the disease west of Charlottetown, according to officials of the Provincial Board of Health. One case was discovered in Montague about three weeks ago and at least one other in Gaspereaux yesterday. A 25-year-old mother from Gaspereaux died in a Charlottetown hospital yesterday, a victim of the disease.

LINE WORK DELAYED— The work of installing 35 miles of new light and power lines along St. Peter's Road would have been completed some time ago were it not that both contractors and electricians are short certain necessary material, Mr. V. A. Ainsworth, local manager Maritime Electric Company, informed The Guardian yesterday. The work is expected to be finished within the next two or three weeks, Mr. Ainsworth said.

SOAPLESS PROSPECT — The scarcity of laundry soap and soap flakes which is causing considerable anxiety among housewives in the Province may not be entirely remedied for a year or more, according to local retail merchants. Mayor B. Earle MacDonald told The Guardian last night that representatives of the soap manufacturers have informed him the laundry soap supply may not equal the demand for at least two years.

HOLIDAYING IN CHARLOTTETOWN. — Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lawlor and three children, Paul, Sandra and Dottie, of East Natick, Mass., arrived in Charlottetown by car to spend their holidays with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomson, Central Royalty. They are accompanied by Miss Ruth Wallis also of East Natick. This is Miss Wallis's first visit to the Province and she is very much impressed with the natural beauty and kindness of the people. Also visiting at the Thomson's home is their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith of Boston, Mass. Mr. Smith is also enjoying his first visit to P. E. Island.

OPENING DANCE at New Legion Auditorium great success. Last night Charlottetown Dance Fans thronged to the opening dance at the new Legion Auditorium when they danced to the superb music of the Legionaires Orchestra, and pronounced the floor and air conditioned hall the finest in the land. A feature of the spacious auditorium is the excellent Canteen service supplied by the Ladies Auxiliary. It was the largest crowd ever to attend a Legion Dance, and one and all enjoyed themselves to the fullest, promising to return with their friends to the future dances in this, the newest of Charlottetown's Dance Houses.
