...*TEA AND BAZAAR.— "Don't forget, Bazaar and Tea in Montague Hall on Tuesday evening 16th."
3195-12-12E2iM1i.

...*SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR:—The ladies of the David's Presbyterian Church Sewing Circle, of Georgetown are to be congratulated upon the success of the bazaar held under their auspices in the Town hall on Dec. 11th. Owing to the particularly vile pecies of weather which was handed out on that day, many who lived some distance out of the town were deterred from coming, but this while t first seeming misfortunate provd a blessing in disguise, as, though the good ladies thought that they had made ample provisions for all possible demands, the purchasers were not satisfied but, like Oliver Twist persisted in "asking for more," so that if there had been a larger crowd, many would have had to depart with their wants unsatisfied. The booths were tastefully decorated nor did the contents in any moment belie the exterior. A feature The booths were tastefully decorof particular interest was Ye Olde Curiosityе Shoppe, which was in truth well named, as the exclamations of wonder and interest which could be heard issuing from within sufficiently testified to those who preferred pondering to corporeal rather than intellectual desires. The tea ables presented too strong an attraction to be resisted. The constant stream of visitors to this part of the hall fully proved that the reputation for appetizing cookery which the Georgetown ladies have established for themselves all over the Island, fully maintains itself. It may be that the good cheer there provided softened the hearts and loosened the purse strings of the parakers for the goodly sum of more than one hundred and twenty-five dollars, which made up the proceeds of the affair, bore ample testimony to their generosity.

The bazaar which opened at three o'clock P. M. closed at ten, not through lack of customers, but for lack the wherewithal to supply them.
