FAREWELL SOCIAL AND PRESENTATION AT TRYON

One of the most delightful social events of the season was held at the beautiful and commodious residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lea, Tryon, on the evening of the 16th, inst., when a large number of young people of Tryon and surrounding communities, assembled for the purpose of expressing in many beautiful and substantial ways their kindest regards, good will and best wishes to Miss Esther Lord, previous to her departure for Argyle, Man., where she has accepted a lucrative position.

During a pause in the festivities, Miss Emma Thomas presented Miss Lord with a bulky envelope containing the gifts of affection and good will of the assembly, accompanied by an address, which was read by Mr. George Hennessey. As a fitting conclusion to a brief programme, the company, after placing Miss Lord in the centre of the room, all joined hands in a circle about her and sang: "Good Night, Ladies"; "Auld Lang Syne"; and "God be With You 'Till We Meet Again," after which all departed for their respective homes, after expressions of regret at the departure of Miss Lord from her home of her childhood, also expressing the hope that during her life in a strange land she would often find time to cast many a tender thought toward friends and loved ones left behind, who would long for her in the centre of their affection one sweet "Forget-Me-Not," and the days she spent in Tryon.

ADDRESS

Dear Esther,—Having just learned of your intention to leave your native Province to reside in the west, we, your old school chums and friends, decided that we could not let you leave without expressing our regret at your departure and hence our meeting here to-night. It is with feelings of deep regret that we come together this evening when we realize that this will be our last opportunity of having you in our midst. Especially is this so in those of us who went to school and played with you, and have since grown up with you, and have enjoyed your presence and fellowship with us. Nevertheless, we are glad to be able to say that we have always found you kind and upright in all our dealings together, and ever ready to lend a helping hand whenever it was within your power to do so, and we know that you will always exhibit those excellent qualities no matter where your lot may be cast.

We will miss you in our Sunday School where you attended regularly. In our Choir also, there will be a vacant chair, but what will be our loss will be others' gain. Before we say "Au Revoir" we ask you to accept this little gift merely as a token of our love and respect for you, and with the hopes that it will be of some use to you. We also wish to express the hope that we may have you back amongst us again ere long, for a short time at least. We trust you will have a safe and pleasant journey, and that no matter what line of life you may choose to follow, your efforts will be crowned with great success.

How "Tiz" Gladdens Tired, Aching Feet

No more sore, puffed-up, tender, aching feet—no corns or callouses.

"Tiz" makes sore, burning, tired feet fairly dance with delight. A way the aches and pains, the corns, callouses, blisters, bunions and chilblains.

"Tiz" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. No matter how thick you are, how long you dance, how far you walk, or how long you remain on your feet, "Tiz" brings restful foot comfort. "Tiz" is magical, grand, wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, smarting feet. Ah! how comfortable, ah! how happy you feel. Your feet just tingle for joy; shoes never hurt or seem tight.

Get a box of "Tiz" now from any druggist or department store. End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes. Keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy. Just think! A whole year's foot comfort for only a few cents.

RESTRICTIONS FOR BEER SALES

WASHINGTON, April 25—As the first step of the fight in Congress to tighten up the Volstead prohibition enforcement law, a bill designed to prohibit the sale of beer to the sick on a doctor's prescription, was introduced in the house today by Chairman Volstead of the Judiciary committee.

The measure would not prohibit the use of wine for medicinal purposes but would make more specific and stringent the regulations on this subject.

Frankly declaring that there was no real necessity for beer as a medicine, Mr. Volstead declared that this bill, described as supplemental to the National Prohibition Act, was put forward at this time to meet the situation created by the opinion of former Attorney-General Palmer that beer and wine under the Volstead Act, could be prescribed for the ailing.

IN MEMORIAM

LYFORD CALVIN MURPHY

The remains of the late Lyford Calvin Murphy, were laid to rest in Brandon cemetery Sunday afternoon, following a short service in Campbell & Campbell's undertaking parlors. Rev. E. A. Anderson officiated. The pall bearers were E. Kidd, W. Kidd, W. W. Kidd, C. Kidd, A. Kidd, and B. Hayes.

The late Mr. Murphy, who was 27 years of age, was a well known resident of South Brandon district about two months ago he went to Bowman River, Man., and while there became ill with typhoid fever, which developed into pneumonia. He was just ill a week last Thursday when death came.

Besides his wife, he is survived by three daughters, and a son, all at home, one brother, Wm. Murphy, of Winnipeg, his parents and other relatives who live in Prince Edward Island.

MRS. PETER DOYLE

There passed peacefully away at St. Marks, Lot 7, on the 8th, of April, Bridget (Foley) Doyle, widow of the late Peter Doyle, in the ninetieth year of her age. Her husband predeceased her a few years he having died on the 25th, September, 1916, in the 88th year of his age.

For upwards of sixty years this venerable couple have resided in Lot 7, coming there when the country was virgin forest, when roads were few and far between, and churches were likewise scarce. For a number of years the Catholic Mission of the parish was held under their hospitable roof, where neighbors, traveling clergy always found good cheer and comfort as well as a hospitable welcome.

Few, if any, in this and surrounding settlements were more widely known and none more highly respected and esteemed for her kind and loving disposition, as well as for her open-handed generosity.

On the 28th of August, 1908 this venerable couple celebrated their golden wedding, the sermon on the occasion being preached by the Rev. Dr. A. E. Burke, and the celebration being throughout something long to be remembered by all the guests, who had assembled to do honor and pay their respects on this happy occasion.

Alas, how fleeting is time and what a difference, when on Sunday April 10th, her neighbors and friends from all parts of the province assembled to pay the last sad tribute of respect to one whose soul had winged its flight to a happy and glorious eternity. That the respect and esteem which followed her through life and the love which cherished her last declining years was evidenced by the large number who followed her remains to the cemetery at St. Marks on Sunday afternoon. But mingled with this, was a deep sorrow softened in a great measure by the knowledge that she had been called by her Heavenly Father to join her husband, where united once more in the glorious realms on high, they will reap the reward of a well spent life.

The service in the church was conducted by Rev. Dr. Gauthier, and at the grave by her own beloved pastor, the Rev. J. A. McDonald, who attended her all through her last illness, strengthening and fortifying her for the great beyond, with the last Rites of Holy Mother Church.

She leaves to mourn her loss, one son Thomas, on the home-lead, and two daughters, Mrs. W. P. Callaghan, St. Louis, and Mrs. Patrick Hamill, Preston, also two brothers, John and Michael Foley of Kildare, as well as a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren. May her soul rest in peace.

—THE ST. DUNSTON'S DRAMATIC CLUB are putting on the fourth drama "Under Cover" in the Happyland Theatre, Summerside on Tuesday, May 3rd.

—A CHILD'S DEATH.—The sympathy of all goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKenzie, Malpeque, in the death of their eldest child Earl Kitchener aged six who passed away on April 18th. The little fellow was sick for almost two weeks. All the loving care and medical skill could do was done but he was just loaned for a little while to their eldest child the home above to show how sweet a flower may bloom in Paradise. He was a bright lovable boy and a general favorite of all. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Murchison.

—A MISUNDERSTANDING.—The eternal triangle, which has furnished all the spice for motion pictures and divorce court proceedings, was in evidence in the streets of Summerside Tuesday last when two women, both natives of some other province, almost came to blows over the interest that each claimed in the affections of another, one of Summerside's stalwart citizens. The rivals reinforced the indiscriminate use of hands and finger nails with an exchange of uncomplimentary remarks (that would prove sufficient punishment for any mere male. At last report the judgment of the referee (in this case the unlucky man) had not been made public.

—CHILD WELFARE.—A paper on Child Welfare Work Throughout the World by Miss Ramsay was the most interesting feature of the meeting of the Parents Teachers Association, held in the Summerside Town Hall, Wednesday evening. Remarks by Rev. DeWolf White on the truancy problem, proper discipline, and home training were also heard with interest. Later the meeting was thrown open with Miss Ramsay answering all questions put by those interested and a vote of thanks was passed to Miss Ramsay. The committee of education was authorized to take up the matter of home study and to report back to the board of trustees. Mrs. McQuarrie reported conditions of the school in an unsanitary state and a committee was appointed to meet the Board of Trustees at next meeting.

—WANTED TWO HOUSEMAIDS and cook or maid willing to learn cooking, at Clifton House.

—REMEMBER SALE OF Wilfred Donnelly, Albany today, Thursday, April 28th.

—J. F. LORD, NORTH TRYON—Another shipment of 1000 lbs choice Island grown late Red Clover and Alsack to arrive today.

—FUNERAL—On Tuesday April 19th a large number of relatives and friends assembled at St. John The Baptist Church, Miscouche, to pay their last tribute of respect to the mortal remains of a well known and highly esteemed citizen, Mr. A. F. Gillis, whose funeral took place from his late residence at 9.45 a. m. A solemn Requiem Mass was sung by Mgr. D. J. Gillis, brother of the deceased assisted by Rev. John A. McDonald, acting as deacon and Rev. J. J. McDonald sub deacon. Rev. P. P. Arsenault was Master of Ceremonies and Rev. M. Monaghan assisted in the sanctuary. Interment took place in the parish cemetery the pastor, Rev. M. Monaghan blessing the grave. To the grief stricken widow and family we extend our sincerest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

—AN ENJOYABLE TIME.—At one of the most enjoyable and thoroughly delightful entertainments of the season, which also celebrated the Oddfellows' Natal Day, the Summerside Maple Leaf Rebekah's Lodge, No. 13, and Prince Edward Lodge, No. 22 on Tuesday night succeeded in raising the sum of $115.00 for the Memorial Home and also in giving more than 250 persons one of the best nights fun for many a month. After an excellent supper, a musical programme and entertainment was given and the rest of the evening devoted to dancing and games. Among the numbers on the programme were solos by Albert Huestis, reading by Mrs. W. S.

Gray Dort Quality Goes Clear Through

Price is not the most important consideration in the selection of an automobile.

VALUE IS

The price of the GRAY DORT is not high, but it is sufficient to include important features that cheaper cars do not have.

At the same time it is much lower in price than other cars which possess those features.

It will, therefore, satisfy the purchaser who has paid MORE for a car in the past—while to him who has paid LESS it will prove an unexpected revelation.

The GRAY DORT Touring Car appeals to a desire for beauty and comfort as well as in its simple and sterling mechanical factors.

It is a trim, well finished automobile, of correct proportions, with riding and driving qualities quite distinctive among cars of its class.

Combine simplicity with the rugged strength of carefully selected and tested material AND OVER SIZE PARTS WHERE STRESSES OCCUR, and you have a fair word picture of the GRAY DORT chassis. Usage with the least possible interruption and at low cost of upkeep, are factors prudent purchasers seek and find in the GRAY DORT.

The New Model 17 is a decided departure from the lines of the former models—the longer wheel base gives easier riding, more seating capacity, and a greatly improved appearance.

We invite your inspection and will be glad to give you a demonstration at any time.
