MODEL SCHOOL CLOSING.—The Model of Normal school closed for the Christmas holidays on Friday last. There was no formal closing, the entertainment being of a class character and conducted independently by the departments.

HOME ON LEAVE.—Corporal Robert L. Cotton, instructor in Machine Gunnery at Shoarcliffe, England, arrived home Saturday night. The manager of three important local businesses, few volunteers in Canada have made the sacrifices to duty that Corporal Cotton has, and his innumerable friends in the province will be delighted to see him home again.

BRAKESMAN HURT.—Shortly after the Eastern train got to St. Peter's on Thursday two men under the influence of liquor attacked the popular brakeman Mr. Daniel McKay and hit him across the face cutting a deep gash in the forehead. Such behaviour towards the railmen should be thoroughly investigated and the guilty parties brought to justice.

SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS CONCERT TOMORROW.—A Christmas Concert will be given in the Salvation Army Hall tomorrow (uesday) evening at 7.45 p. m. The proceeds of which will be donated to the the Salvation Army Relief Work in Halifax. An excellent program has been arranged.

GRACE CHURCH YESTERDAY.—The services in Grace Methodist Church yesterday were an especially interesting character, appropriate to the Christmas season. The evening discourse by the pastor, from the text, "Immanuel, God with us," was touching in its references to the duties as well as the enjoyments of the bright season of peace and good will. The choir too excelled in their selections and preparation, and with a full attendance the music was an inspiration and a pleasure to the congregation.

BURIAL OF HUSBAND, WIFE, SON AND BABY.—The remains of H. B. Hills, his wife Helen, their son Laurie, and the three weeks' old infant, have been interred says the Halifax Herald. Popularly known as "Bert," there was no more highly esteemed business man in Halifax than Rev. Father G. J. McLellan, D. D., Rector of St. Dunstan's college, dealt with his subject in a masterly and eloquent manner. It was a discourse that will long be remembered by those who had the pleasure to hear it.

TO FOX BREEDERS

We sent out requests a few days ago to all Fur Farmers asking for information as to how many furs of all kinds they were going to contribute to the Fur Sales Board. We take this opportunity of thanking the fox farmers for their hearty co-operation with our organization. Many of the companies and individuals see the absolute necessity of co-operative marketing and distributing on the proper markets.

TO AVERT SERIOUS DECLINE IN PRICES.

From our fur reports received, furriers state "that unless there is closer co-operation in marketing, a serious decline in prices will result."

ALL IN THE HANDS OF THE FUR FARMERS.

The way then of fostering this industry is left entirely with the Fur Farmers themselves. A well guided co-operative organization will raise our struggling commercial industry to a position of success and importance.

PROTECT THE INDUSTRY

You owe it to the industry as well as to yourselves as shareholders, to protect our fur farming by co-operation with the Fur Sales Board.

Ship your furs now and lend your assistance. FUR SALES BOARD. Charlottetown. 156 Richmond St. 1879-12-24M21.
