A mysterious fire occurred about four o'clock on Monday morning, Nov. 22nd, when a building belonging to Hudson McDonald of Dundas containing a quantity of wheat, oats and barley together with all his farm machinery and many other articles, was discovered to be on fire. Mr. McDonald, being alone, had a hard fight to save his dwelling house and barn both of which caught fire. The end of the kitchen is badly burned. It is looked upon as a mystery how he saved the other buildings.

THE MORNING PAPER.

Some Reasons Why it Makes The Best Advertising Medium.

A woman's curiosity to know about society, marriages, births, deaths, forces her to read it.

The Morning Paper is before her all day long, and it is she who is doing her household duties, arranging and improving the appearance of her home, that the missing and necessary articles of furniture, rugs, carpets, curtains or other necessities, show up the plainest, and there could be no more opportune time for a dealer to tell about the new goods, the new styles and the bargains offered, for today or week. In a majority of homes the newspaper is practically the bulk of the reading matter, and the long, all-day life from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m. of The Morning Paper gives not only the housewife but every member of the family an opportunity to read it.

The Morning paper is read at the breakfast table, again at home at noon, on the trains, in the restaurants. It is read in doctor's offices, professional offices, clubs, hotels, cafes, barber shops. It is read by daylight everywhere you go by both employer and employee.

It is a known fact that throughout the world, possibly with a half-dozen exceptions, the papers with editorial influence and national reputation are morning papers.

With these facts in mind, the business man who is looking after the real money-spenders of the family to interest in his goods will consult his best interests by placing his announcements where the women will read them.
