THE marriage took place last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hogg, Kensington, of their only daughter, Miss May, to Mr. F. W. Cannon, St Eleanors. The Rev. Edwin Smith performed the ceremony in the presence of about forty of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride, who was prettily attired in a suit of white muslin, carried a bouquet, entered the parlor at 6 o'clock p. m. leaning on the arm of her father, and was given away by him. She was attended by her cousin, Miss E. Bowness, of Summerside, while Mr. Thos Crafer, teacher, of St Eleanors, supported the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party partook of a sumptuous tea and joined in recreations suitable on such occasions during the remainder of the evening. The bride was the recipient of a large number of costly presents which savours a tangible expression of the esteem in which she is held in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will reside in St. Eleanors, and will be at home after December 1st next.

A Sour Stomach

Is Often the Real Cause of a Sour Temper.

That the condition of the digestive organs has a marked effect upon the character or disposition is a truism as old as the hills. Old Ben Johnson wisely said, "the pleasure of living depends upon the liver," and it is a fact which none may dispute that a sunny disposition more often results from a healthy digestion than from any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion offood; instead of being properly digested and converted into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting and decaying creating gases which cause pressure on the lungs and heart, short breath and general discomfort and irritation.

Such half digested food is indeed poor nourishment for the body, brain and nerves and the result is shown in irritable tempers, unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition usually called the "blues" but how quickly all these disappear when appetite and digestion are restored.

Laxative medicines only irritate the already irritated stomach and bowels and have no effect upon actual digestion of food.

The sensible course to follow is to make use of simple natural digestive like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals until the stomach has a chance to recuperate.

The natural digestives which every healthy stomach contains are petones, diastase and Hydrocholoric and lactic acids and when any of them are lacking the trouble begins. The reason Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all these absolute necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

Henry Kirkpatrick of Lawrence, Mass, says: "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active out door life should make it a daily practice to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily use.

"From the time I was 22 when I graduated from school with broken health from overwork, until I was 34, I scarcely knew what it was to be free from stomach weakness. I had no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal.

I had acidity and heartburn nearly every day sometimes was alarmed by irregularity and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I can eat my meals with relish and satisfaction which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

The success and popularity of Stuart's Dysyepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deserved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.

MR. Horsey gave his second address on the Holy Spirit in the church, Gt. George St. last night, which was listened to by quiet and serious hearers for an hour. He showed in contrast to the baptism of water, which is the external sign of Christianity, to fire that of which is to come upon the world at the second coming of Christ, the baptism of the Holy Spirit, received by all true Christians when they believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. In tracing out the subject in the scriptures he gave some important points such as the the Spirit indwelling the Christian's body as his power to live for God, and intermingle such in one body to Christ their head and to each other. Tonight the subject is, "A walk with God" by Mr. Greenman, sequel to "The only way to God."
