LESSON XIII, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, SEPT. 28.

Text of the Lesson, a Comprehensive Review of the Quarter's Lessons. Golden Text, Deut. viii, 18—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.]

LESSON I.—The giving of manna (Ex. xvi, 1-15). Golden Text, Matt. vi, 11, "Give us this day our daily bread." If we would as the people of God please Him, we must remember that in Him we live and move and have our being, that He giveth life and breath and all things and that in His hand are our breath and all our ways (Acts xvii, 25, 28; Dan. v, 23). Therefore without a murmur we should gratefully accept day by day all He sends or permits to come and daily feed on Him in His word (John vi, 57).

LESSON II.—The Ten Commandments—duties to God (Ex. xx, 1-11). Golden Text, Luke x, 27, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart." Because He delivered them from the bondage of Egypt by His great power that they might for their own happiness and the happiness of others be a special people unto Himself He asks their whole heart, and no true lover would like less from one he loved.

LESSON III.—The Ten Commandments—duties to men (Ex. xx, 12-17). Golden Text, Matt. xix, 19, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The Golden Text tells us the only way in which we can show to man that we love God is by loving our fellow men.

LESSON IV.—Worshipping the golden calf (Ex. xxxii, 1-35). Golden Text, Ex. xx, 3, "Thou shalt have no other gods before Me." One of the most amazing things recorded in Scripture is the love and the long suffering of God, and another is the great sinfulness of man. These people who had said to God, "All that Thou sayest we will do," are seen in a few days making an idol and calling it their God; yet He bears with them.

LESSON V.—The tabernacle (Ex. xl, 1-38). Golden Text, Ps. c, 4, "Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise." Although they were such as they were and He knew them thoroughly, yet He commanded a tabernacle to be built that He might dwell in it among them. The Lord Jesus was indeed the true tabernacle, God manifest in the flesh (Heb. viii, 2; I Tim. iii, 16), and now each believer is a temple of God (I Cor. vi, 19, 20).

LESSON VI.—Nadab and Abihu (Lev. x, 1-11). Golden Text, I Thess. v, 6, "Let us watch and be sober." God had sent from heaven the fire to consume the sacrifice (chapter ix, 24) and had appointed the way in which everything should be done, but these men, like Cain, disregarded God's way and preferred their own way before the Lord, and before the Lord they died. All in our churches today that is not of God may be counted strange fire.

LESSON VII.—Journeying toward Canaan (Num. x, 11-13, 29-36). Golden Text, Ps. xxxi, 3, "For Thy name's sake lead me and guide me." God never left them, although they oft provoked Him to do so, but the pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night was their faithful guide and oracle and shield. Moses seemed inclined to lean a little upon his father-in-law, but in that he was wrong.

LESSON VIII.—Report of the spies (Num. xiii, 1-13, and xiii, 25-xiv, 4). Golden Text, Ps. xl, 4, "Blessed is that man that maketh the Lord his trust." This looking to see if God was as good as His word and if the land was what He said it was gave no evidence of faith in God. But because they desired to send the spies God permitted them (Deut. i, 20-23), and we see the result.

LESSON IX.—The brazen serpent (Num. xxi, 1-9). Golden Text, John iii, 14, 15, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness," etc. There are many foreshadowings of God's way of redemption, such as the shedding of blood and the coats of skins of Gen. iii, 21, and the sacrifice of Isaac in Gen. xxii, but none more suggestive than this of the serpent upon the pole to which our Lord refers.

LESSON X.—The prophet like Moses (Deut. xviii, 9-22). Golden Text, John vi, 14, "This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world." Every prophet, priest and king, as well as every sacrifice and the whole tabernacle and its ritual, all foreshadowed the true Prophet, Priest and King, the true tabernacle, the true and only Lamb of God, of whom the Father said, Hear Him!

LESSON XI.—Loving and obeying God (Deut. xxi, 1-20). Golden Text, I John v, 3, "For this is the love of God that we keep His commandments." The New Testament comment upon this lesson in Rom. x points us to Christ, who is the end of the law for righteousness to every one who believeth, the only one who ever truly loved and obeyed God and who becomes the righteousness and the life of every believer.

LESSON XII.—The death of Moses (Deut. xxxii, 1-22). Golden Text, Ex. xxxiii, 11, "The Lord spake unto Moses face to face." The greatest of earthly prophets died; all kings and priests die; it is appointed unto men once to die, but our great High Priest, Prophet and King tasted death for every man, died, rose from the dead, is now at the right hand of God in heaven, crowned with glory and honor, and will come again to restore all things of which Moses and all the prophets have spoken (Heb. i, 1-3; I; 2; Acts xiii, 19-21). Every believer is one with Him in the glory, shall take part in the first resurrection and reign with Him in His kingdom.

An Extremely Unpleasant Symptom of Stomach Trouble—Its Cause and Cure.

Flatulence or Bloating is the immediate result of poor digestion. The food taken into the stomach for some reason remains wholly or partially undigested, and in a very short time fermentation commences.

All fermentation is in reality a kind of decomposition, and this process always gives off gas.

Every housewife is familiar with the results of this of this gas caused by fermentation, and almost every one has had experiences illustrating the tremendous pressure exercised by this gas when confined.

As soon as fermentation commences in the stomach this gas begins to rise, distending the walls of the stomach and forcing itself downward into the bowels and frequently upward to the mouth, giving a sense of sourness, and a burning sensation.

It is this gas that causes that "full feeling" after meals so, often complained of by those whose digestions are weak.

Nothing is so distressing as this smothering sensation caused by the distention of the stomach by gas.

There is a way to prevent this fermentation and the consequent bloating.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets if taken immediately after meals will insure a complete and perfect digestion of all the food in the stomach—every particle of it—and if there is no undigested food there can be no fermentation, and consequently no gas or bloating.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are composed of the best digestives known to medical science, and these complete the work of digestion without any assistance from the stomach, thus giving the overworked organ rest and an opportunity for restoration.

A short treatment soon brings the stomach back to its normal healthy condition, after which the use of the Tablets may be discontinued.

Messrs. G. O. REYNOLDS & Co. Gentlemen.—In '08 I had my hand and wrist bitten and badly mangled by a vicious horse. I suffered greatly for several days and the tooth was refused to heal, until your agent gave me a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT which I began using, and the effect was magical. In five hours the pain had ceased, and in two weeks the wound had completely healed and my hand and arm were as well as ever.

Burning, Itching, Stinging Piles

If people could only realize the virtue of Dr. Chase's Ointment they would not suffer long with piles.

Mr. W. H. Whitehair, a well-known and respected citizen, of Cobourg, Ont., states:—"Having used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles, I can testify to its great value. The suffering which I endured from the burning, itching, stinging sensation of piles was something awful, and I can say that there is nothing in this world to equal Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for this dreadful disease. I tried a great many remedies and never got more than slight relief from any of them. But while Dr. Chase's Ointment brought quick relief I went further and made a thorough cure. I cannot say too much in recommendation of this great remedy."

This is the only preparation which is positively guaranteed to cure any form of piles. Ask your neighbors about it. 60c a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A Little Coal Goes A Long Way towards heating a house if fed into a Furnace made to heat—one which does not send the fuel up the chimney in smoke.

'Sunshine' Furnaces

will extract more heat from a unit of coal than any other good Furnace. Every square inch from the bottom of fire-pot to top of dome is a direct radiating surface. The dome is made of heavy steel-plate, which makes it amore effective heater than the cast-iron dome put in common Furnaces. The "Sunshine" has every improved feature and still is so simple that any person can operate it.
