SCHMELING
AND LOUIS
TO MEET

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
NEW YORK, July 14.—Disclosing a shift in heavyweight fight plans which apparently eliminates Max Baer from the picture, promoter Mike Jacobs has closed negotiations for a 15-round match between Joe Louis and Max Schmeling, to be held Sept. 18 at the Polo Grounds.

The winner, according to Jacobs, will likely be matched with James J. Braddock for the world's championship in 1936. Braddock is now under contract to make his first title defense for the Madison Square Garden Corporation, but Jacobs, head of the 20th Century Sporting Club, does not consider this a barrier to his projected plans to promote a championship fight the last of the year.

TANNERS ARE VICTORS OVER
TIP TOP TEAM

Playing heads-up ball behind the three-hit pitching of their big right-handed hurler, "Oogs" McLeod, Tid McQuarrie's Tanners defeated the strong Tip Top team 9 to 3 in an Industrial Baseball League game played over the week-end, the Tanner victory sending them into a tie with the Tops in the league standing. Except for the sixth inning McLeod hurled shutout ball, the losers gaining all their runs in a side game on two hits and one number of error.

WELL KNOWN
MARKSMAN
PASSES

(C. F. By Guardian's Special Wire)
MONTREAL, July 14.—John Drysdale, 71, twice member of the Canadian Bisley team and for many years one of the most prominent rifle shots in Canada, died here Saturday at his home. Mr. Drysdale retired from the Department of National Revenue in Montreal two years ago after 33 years' service. At his retirement he held the position of senior customs examining officer. Mr. Drysdale first gained prominence as a rifleman in 1892 when he won the Governor-General's Cup. The following year he travelled to England as a member of the Canadian Bisley team, being chosen again in 1897 and 1906. He was a well-known figure on the ranges at Ottawa, where he was a steady competitor until last year. A sergeant in the Victoria Rifles, he had planned to take part in the annual rifle-shoot of the Regiment here yesterday.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Young Cy Blanton had the pace-setting Giants swinging at the wind this afternoon as the Pittsburgh Pirates downed the New Yorkers 4 to 2 at Pittsburgh.

Blanton, in turning in his 11th conquest, had a two-hit shut out with two down in the ninth inning when the Giants lashed out four singles.

Clean Sweep For Reds
Sweeping their five game series with Brooklyn, the Cincinnati Reds won both ends of a double bill at Cincinnati, 9 to 4 and 4 to 2, to step into fifth place in the league roster.

The nightcap Pete Appleton won his 14th victory of the season when he gave the Bears two hits to shut them out.

With Fitzgerald and Meyers leading a powerful attack the Elsons defeated the Toronto Maple Leafs by a score of 11 to 4 at Buffalo. Ken Ash, working behind a big early lead, allowed 13 hits but was never in trouble as he notched his tenth triumph of the season and his third victory in eight days.

Ollie Carnegie smashed his 24th homer of the season for Buffalo. Oliver and Chapman of the Leafs smacked homers in the ninth inning after the game was hopelessly gone.

Braves Scaped Again
A field day by Frank Demaree, who drove in four runs and scored two more himself, enabled the Cubs to sweep the five game series from Boston by edging out the Braves, 8 to 7, at Chicago.

Demaree led the Cubs nine hit attack off Huck Betts and Dutch Knickerbocker, who hurled seven-run ball. Tony Freitas allowed ten scattered hits in the opener.

Cards Closing In On Giants
Twenty-three thousand fans—the largest home crowd of the season—watched the world champion Cardinals sweep their four-game series with Philadelphia today by taking both ends of a Sunday doubleheader. Paul Dean hurled his ninth win in the opener, 5-4, and Bill Walker stretched the Cardinals' victory string to ten in the nightcap, 10-1.

The twin triumph enabled the world champions to cut the lead of the New York Giants to six games. In ceremonies preceding the game Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis presented the Cardinal players with diamond rings for winning the 1934 world series.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Yanks Increase Lead
NEW YORK, July 14.—The Yankees were shut out by Ted Lyons and the White Sox, 3 to 0, in the first game of a double header here today but came back to split even by taking the afterpiece, 5 to 4.

The even break increased their lead to 1-2 games as Detroit was beaten by the Athletics.

Lyons was invincible in his opening battle with Lefty Gomez, giving only five hits to gain his tenth victory of the season.

The second clash saw Johnny Broaca outlast three Chicago pitchers despite poor support.

Lou Gehrig belted his 14th home run of the season in the seventh frame as the Sox scored again in the eighth with Simmons starting the rally.

Tigers Lost In 10th
Schoolboy Rowe's momentary let-down in the tenth gave the Athletics a winning 4 to 3 edge over Detroit at Philadelphia.

After displaying a steady brand of twirling most of the way, Rowe was touched for successive singles by Roger Cramer and Bob Johnson in the tenth. He forced Jimmy Foxx to pop out, but Cramer came home with the tie-breaking run when Finky Higgins filed to the outfield.

The As came from behind to score in the ninth behind Bill Dietrich's five-hit pitching.

MEETING CITY
LEAGUE TONIGHT

An important meeting of the officers and executive of the City Baseball League is to be held tonight at Jimmie's Shoe Shine Parlor on Queen Street at 7.45. During the past few days matters of the greatest importance to the league have turned up and these must be straightened out if the loop is to continue. Playoff methods to be in force this year are also to be decided and it is hardly necessary to state that a full attendance is not only desired but also necessary.

League Lead

(C. F. By Guardian's Special Wire)
MONTREAL, July 14.—Montreal Royals won their seventh and eighth straight games here today and strengthened their lead in the International League standings by taking both ends of a doubleheader from Newark 4-2 and 4-0.

Chad Kimsey hurled the first victory, keeping 10 Newark hits well watered while his mates bunched six blows off Marvin Duke. Billy Rhlei hit his fourth homer in three days in the first inning and Koy and Walker connected for four bases for Newark's only runs.

In the nightcap Pete Appleton won his 14th victory of the season when he gave the Bears two hits to shut them out.

With Fitzgerald and Meyers leading a powerful attack the Elsons defeated the Toronto Maple Leafs by a score of 11 to 4 at Buffalo. Ken Ash, working behind a big early lead, allowed 13 hits but was never in trouble as he notched his tenth triumph of the season and his third victory in eight days.

HALIFAX PAIR
WINNERS OF
DOUBLES TITLE

(C. F. By Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, July 14.—Resilient, skilful youth combined with the relentless accuracy of experience, in the persons of Bevil Piers and Mrs. Frank Woodbury, both of Halifax, today carried off the mixed doubles title in the last match of the Ontario Tennis Championships played on the Riverside Courts of the Rideau Club.

The young Halifax star and his companion who have had years of tournament experience, defeated Jim McDougall and Mrs. Dorothy Patrick, both of Montreal, 6-3, 6-6, in the most hotly contested of any of the finals matches.

Interrupted by torrential rainstorms yesterday afternoon play was resumed this morning under perfect conditions.

Toronto's team of Ross Wilson and J. Grant McLean had little difficulty in disposing of George Leclerc and Edwin Costello, both of Ottawa, 6-4, 7-6, 6-2, to win the men's doubles, one of the matches interrupted yesterday.

Mrs. Dorothy Patrick of Montreal and Mrs. H. L. Beer, Ottawa, who had started on their victorious way yesterday when the rain came down, defeated Miss Effie Billings and Miss Yvette Sawyer, both of Montreal, 6-4, 6-1, to take the women's doubles title.

The veterans men's doubles, also played today, was an Ottawa match. W. E. Dexter and V. Eardley-Wilmot, defeated R. S. Hooper and S. E. Bolton, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Yesterday's play saw the hefty former Regina, Walter C. Martin, now Toronto, win the men's singles title from his fellow townsman, Ross Wilson, 6-0, 6-3, 6-2. Wilson was showing the effects of his strenuous match Friday when he played through five cramp-tortured sets to win the semi-final from Joe O'Hara of Ottawa.

Mrs. Dorothy Patrick was victorious over Mrs. Gilbert Nunn of Toronto in the women's singles yesterday, in straight sets 6-2, 6-4, playing a cool, steady but not spectacular game and taking advantage of all her opportunities.

An all-Montreal match in the junior men's singles saw Roger Durivage take the title from George Robinson, 6-3, 6-2, 6-1.

Today's match between the Halifax and Montreal mixed doubles teams had all the elements of championship play. Piers was all over the courts and gave his older and more experienced partner almost perfect support. Mrs. Woodbury was a perfect partner, made few errors. Her partner made several sensational recoveries at crucial moments in the second set when the Montreal pair made their most dangerous attempt to turn the tide.

Mrs. Patrick also had already won two titles was apparently somewhat tired from her women's doubles match played a few minutes earlier, but performed brilliantly as did her young partner. McDougall found the net frequently and was wild at times with hard drives.

Former Man. Golf Champ
Comes Within One Stroke
Of Causing Major Upset

(By W. R. Wheatley, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
(C. F. By Guardian's Special Wire)
LOOKOUT POINT GOLF CLUB, Fonthill, Ont., July 14.—Tony Manero, smiling professional from the Sedgefield Club of Greensboro, N. C., who "thought it was about time" he won a Canadian tournament, came through Saturday to capture the General Brook Hotel open play, but not before a grinning amateur from Winnipeg almost brought about one of the biggest upsets in major competition.

Manero, unheralded as the likely winner until the final round was shown way, took first place of $750 with a 72-hole total of 291. Just one stroke away at 292 was Bud Donovan, former Manitoba champion, whose mark stood up against the assault of such stars as Walter Hagen, Ray Mangrum, Clarence Doser and Jimmie Thomson from the United States.

Tied with Donovan with a belated spurt after a disastrous outward nine in the afternoon was Byron Nelson, playing pro from the Ridgewood, N. J., club, who started the final round with a lead of four strokes. He tossed this away but came within a whisker of tying Manero by rallying on the last nine and barely missing a birdie three at the home hole.

Bob Alston, Ottawa, was low scorer among the Canadian professionals with 294, bolstered by a par-breaking 69 in the morning round.

Nelson took second money of $600, while Doser and Mangrum collected $450 each. Alston came in for two prizes, taking $325 with his 294 score, and $200 for the best mark of a Canadian professional.

Walter Hagen, one of golf's great showmen, faded on his final nine late in the afternoon and finished with 295, tied with Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., Harry Cooper of Chicago and Tommy Miyamoto, of Japan.

The team of American born professionals, led by Hagen, captured the Seagram Gold Cup with an aggregate of 1988 for the six man squad. The Canadian born pros were second with 1844, and behind them came the Japanese entry, Ontario amateurs, Toronto and district professionals and the Montreal professionals.

GERMAN TEAM
THE WINNERS

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
PRAHA, July 14.—Germany swept Czechoslovakia aside in the Davis Cup European Zone finals today to earn the right to oppose the United States in the inter-zone finals at Wimbledon next weekend.

Baron Gottfried Von Cramm, ace of the German racquet wielders, defeated Roderich Menzel in a blistering battle that finally saw the ailing Czech exhausted, 6-2, 6-4, 4-6, 5-7, 6-1, and young Heiner Henkel defeated Jon Caska 2-6, 7-5, 6-4, 6-0. The final team scores stood 4-1.

Von Cramm's smooth stroking and powerful service won the first set for him easily, but Menzel came back strong in the second and at one point was leading 4-1, forcing Cramm to show championship form to pull out with a 6-4 win.

Caska opened against Henkel in good form, but the promising German improved as the match went on, winning his last set in love.

Joseph W. Wear of the United States Davis Cup committee, today in London named Allison Van Ryn, Donald Budge and Sidney Wood to compose the American team in the inter-zone matches. He said the singles selections would not be made until Friday.

During Friday's matches, Von Cramm won an easy victory over Jon Caska 6-2, 6-4, 6-2, but 19-year old Heiner Henkel was beaten by Roderich Menzel, no. 1 ranking Czech, after forcing him to five sets. The score was 7-5, 6-1, 4-6, 2-6, 6-4.
