PROGRAMME NOW COMPLETE FOR REUNION

Large Attendance of Former Students Expected For Memorable Anniversary.

Next week St. Dunstan's celebrates the 75th Anniversary of her founding. On Tuesday afternoon, August 6th, begins the registration of the Alumni and those in their party. This will take place at the University and also at the Knights of Columbus Home, Charlottetown, which latter place will serve as an Information Bureau for the Alumni during the days of the Celebration.

On Wednesday morning registration continues and at ten o'clock, Pontifical High Mass will be sung by Rt. Rev. Louis J. O'Leary, Chancellor of the University; the sermon will be preached by Rt. Rev. James Morrison, Bishop of Antigonish, a former Rector of the College.

At noon luncheon will be served on the College grounds, and in the afternoon there will be an entertainment followed by addresses of welcome and speeches by prominent sons of St. Dunstan's.

During the Business Meeting of the Alumni Association which takes place at four o'clock, the visiting ladies will be taken for a short motor-drive, followed by tea at Beech Grove Inn.

The evening will be left free to the Alumni in order to give them the opportunity of renewing old friendships.

On Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock the Alumni meet at the College for Class Re-unions, following which all leave for Allanmore, Bishop O'Leary's summer residence, to spend the afternoon. Dinner will be served on arrival. In the evening a banquet will be held at Beech Grove Inn for the Alumni.

About four or five hundred Alumni are expected for Wednesday's Celebration and many other friends of the Institution are also expected. A cordial invitation is extended them by the University and by the Alumni Association.

Church Army Crusade Brought To Close

In connection with the Crusade of the Church Army there was a celebration of the Holy Eucharist in St. Peter's Cathedral Chapel yesterday morning at 7:45 which was well attended, the Rev. Canon Malone being Celebrant. The rest of the morning was spent in sightseeing and attending to business regarding future movements of the Church Army group. Sister Baker leaves Quebec next Friday morning on return to England, while the Officers leave for work in other sections of Canada.

At 2 o'clock there was a Conference held at St. Peter's Rectory regarding Church matters and the possibility of having members of the Church Army again visit the Island for a longer tour.

At 3 o'clock there was a well attended meeting held in St. Peter's Cathedral Hall, at which Sister Baker delivered a very interesting address. This meeting was followed by a social hour, which was also attended by some of the out of Town Clergy. All enjoyed their social gathering and the cup of tea and cake so kindly provided by the ladies of St. Peter's Cathedral.

The Venerable Archdeacon White wrote his regrets at not been able to be present at the Charlottetown meeting owing to Parochial duties, and wished them all success, and added that he felt sure that the mission of the Crusaders had been beneficial in many ways to every Parish they have visited. That the Crusaders were a well chosen contingent and have fitted in well to our parochial life, without sacrificing the principles of the Church. The Crusaders knowing the sterling worth of Archdeacon White will no doubt appreciate such words of praise.

There was a fair congregation in St. Peter's Cathedral at 7:30 p. m. The service throughout was most hearty and the following Clergy took part, Rev. Canon Malone, Rev. G. T. Spriggs, Rev. Edward Bridgewater, Rev. W. J. Phillips and Rev. H. R. Coleman. During the service the members of the Church Army sang
