"The committee has been instructed," the announcement said, "to study and to report to their respective governments on the possibilities of (1) effecting a more economic, more efficient and more co-ordinated utilization of the combined resources of the two countries in the production of defence requirements; (2) to the extent that this is not now being done) and (3) reducing the probable post-war economic dislocation consequent upon the changes which the economy in each country is presently undergoing."

Symbolic Torch

HON. DR. W. J. P. MACMILLAN
The following address was given by Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan: "On this historic and world important occasion my heart and mind turn in loving remembrance to my revered and splendid teacher at McGill 35 years ago, that gentle kindly man, that specially gifted and eminent physician, that great patriot, poet and soldier, Dr. John McRae, who immortalized not only himself but the whole Canadian Army by his sublime epic, "In Flanders Fields." How appropriate now are those prophetic lines: "Take up our quarrel with the foe To you from falling hands we throw the torch, Be yours to hold it high, If you break faith with us who die We shall not sleep though poppies grow in Flanders fields."
Dr. McRae was the spokesman for those 60,000 loyal Canadian sons of the Empire who failed not in the great commonwealth of the United States and in the justice of Britain's fight for Christianity and civilization. They wrote the name Canada at the top of the honor roll of all nations. They failed only when they failed in the ultimate price of mortality, and with "lifted blades in glory arms" they fell, changing their very status to that of immortal heroes who will live on in this Empire for generations yet to come, and as a close second to those dead yet living heroes we have in this great Dominion, those other thousands of noble veterans whose physical defects and maimed bodies proclaim their great sacrifice and attest their joy in Empire and freedom.
It is a supreme comfort to know that in this Dominion and in its fairest, happiest, smallest and most important province that we have not failed to heed that injunction from a hero's grave that we have taken up the torch with the British foe, over 6,000 of the best of Prince Edward Island's young manhood, the largest percentage from any Canadian province guarantee that our sacred dead of 1914-1918 may sleep in peace.
We have caught the Torch, thrown to us from their falling hands. The Torch of Victory is here and we will speed it along on its triumphant journey, Canada and the Garden of the Gulf preach and practice the slogan, "the most you can lend is the least you can give." We remember we are lending not giving. It is a consoling thought that Canada led by that splendid patriotic town of Summerside with its 20 pennants of merit and with this capital city close second has overhauled the 1914-1918 may sleep in peace.

to you a few words. He referred to the Prime Minister Churchill as "the Spokesman of Liberty and freedom, the symbol of Britain, a roused-stomach heart, direct in speech, cheerful in reverses, calm in confusion." And very cleverly he turned Mr. Churchill's words to account on the occasion. President Valentine's words were very forceful expression: "To few men has so much been given, of no man has so much been asked."
"And in response to these very pointed remarks Prime Minister Churchill spoke as follows: He referred to the collapse of the down trodden countries of Europe, and said: "Now it's old Lion, with her cub at her side, stands alone against the hordes of the enemy with deadly weapons and impelled by desperate and destructive rage. Time is short. Every month that passes adds to the length and perils of the journey that will have to be made. United we stand, divided we fall. Divided the dark ages return, united we can save and guide the world." And that remark do not seem to be exaggerated. The speech was heard throughout the length and breadth of the world, particularly in the United States and particularly in this Dominion of Canada which, of course, is one of the Lion's cubs to the north of the Atlantic.

"And so it is very appropriate that to this man of whom, more than any other man, so much has been demanded (the Torch of Liberty) it is the symbol of the determination of the people of Canada to stand with the people of the United States and particularly in this Dominion of Canada which, of course, is one of the Lion's cubs to the north of the Atlantic.
"The 'Flaming Torch' is the symbol of liberty. It is the symbol of the determination of the people of Canada to stand with the people of the United States and particularly in this Dominion of Canada which, of course, is one of the Lion's cubs to the north of the Atlantic.

"In company with some of the other members of the Government, I had the honour last summer of visiting this unit at their training camp in Nova Scotia and was most pleased with the esprit de corps that existed between the men and the officers of that unit, and the people of Prince Edward Island can rest with confidence that the men who are enlisted with this unit are under the most competent and painstaking officers that can possibly be found. And in this connection I am very glad indeed that the program of a letter addressed by Major-General Price. It gives the people who are here present, and who are privileged to see him here a chance to judge for themselves the calibre of the men who are in charge of the men of the 3rd Canadian Division.
"But possibly we are most closely concerned on this occasion with the question of money. The objective of the campaign is $600,000,000.00. This Province, as Dr. MacMillan has said, has done its share. Summerside in particular was possibly the first Canadian centre to go over the top. They have already added two pennants to the flag and I think before the Campaign is over they will have three or perhaps even four. It was announced in the Press this morning that the City of Charlottetown had followed the example and had also gone over the top in the Campaign. And as I came to this platform this evening I was handed by the chairman of the committee a note which stated that the Provincial total so far to date at 5:15 this evening was $1,510,600.00. Custodians of the Victory Torch have not been able to hear that announcement made in any other Province up to the present time. I do not wish to boast. Ladies and Gentlemen, because all that we can do, and all that any part of Canada can do is small compared to the efforts and to the suffering of the indomitable people of Great

PREMIER CAMPBELL

The following Torch Day address was delivered by Premier Thane A. Campbell:
"This has been a month of parades and pageants in Canada. A little more than two weeks ago the citizens of Charlottetown and vicinity, and of other centres throughout Canada have gathered in scenes something like this to commemorate the opening of the Victory Loan Campaign. As that Campaign progressed throughout Canada, it has been paralleled by the flight of the Victory Torch which began on the Pacific Coast and will finish its continental tour on the Atlantic coast and will then be flown across the ocean and delivered to Prime Minister Churchill."
"Now the symbolism of this event is to be climaxed by the delivery to Prime Minister Churchill and I think it might be appropriate to indicate to you people its importance by repeating a few of the words which were used in the historic ceremony in which Prime Minister Churchill received an Honorary Degree from the University of Rochester, from the very excellent address which he made on that occasion by President Valentine of that University. I beg leave to quote

Presbyterian Assembly Concludes 1941 Session

Report on Statistics and Finances Shows Church in Flourishing Condition.

TORONTO.—During the Presbyterian Assembly, which concluded Tuesday afternoon, many very kind greetings were received from Church and State, accompanied by best wishes for days to come. One of the most pleasing of these was a wire from Premier King congratulating the Assembly on its wonderful work and giving assurance of his confidence that unmeasured blessing will be bestowed upon the Church as she continues to be faithful in her great world mission. The Committee on Loyal Addresses prepared a fitting reply and thanked Premier King for his courteous message which was greatly appreciated by all. One of the fine features of the Assembly has been the fine spirit of co-operation of Church and State for the common good.

MAJ. GEN. C. B. PRICE

The following address was delivered by Major General C. B. Price, D.S.O., D.C.M., V.D., Officer Commanding the 3rd Division:
"May I say how happy I am to come to Prince Edward Island for we have a special representation of your manhood in units of our Division, in the North Nova Scotia Highlanders, the Divisional Signals and the 22-21st Field Ambulance. We look forward to a steady stream of your men as reinforcements to these units.
"The impressive ceremony this evening is almost the culmination of a great wave of enthusiasm across Canada and our grand achievement is an example to the whole nation. It is a great effort in connection with the Victory Loan will give the one thing necessary to enable our men to meet the Boche on equal terms as regards weapons and equipment, and the result will be a sad one for him.
"Many of you have loved ones serving in the first and second Division and so in the limited time I am happy in carrying out a most responsible part in the defence of Britain. Although anxious to get at the Hun and curious of their commander from other parts of the Empire, who have been able to do so, they realize that, no matter what victories the enemy may win in other parts of the world, unless we win at this little island, his doom is certain, and so our men are possessing themselves in patience and training hard and faithfully, in company with their brothers of the Imperial forces, for the day when the trial of strength will come.
"I can assure you that in spite of the great preoccupation of taxes, the caring of evacuees from devastated areas, the Hun blitzes and the air raids, the men of the British are overwhelming in a simple, unostentatious kindness. My Brigade, which included the two Maritime Provinces and one Quebec Battalion, was stationed at last winter in the town about the size of Charlottetown.
"When we arrived there the Council had a house to house canvass to find out how many nights a week they could take on and how many men for supper, with perhaps a bath and an evening before the fire. The response was simply wonderful and all our men who cared for it had at least one evening a week in a home. It is nice to be able to report that I received many letters of appreciation of the pleasure the visits of our men gave their kind hosts."

HOUSE, BARN STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

The thunder and lightning storm which was quite severe between the hours of 1.30 and 3 o'clock on Tuesday morning did considerable damage in the vicinity of Miscouche. One house about a mile from Miscouche Church toward the west on the Mont Carmel Road occupied by Mr. Leo Whalan was badly wrecked and two people struck. The lightning struck the flue which crumbled and fell some of the bricks smashing through the roof and others falling outside. The lightning ran down the flue right through to the kitchen, where it continued along the floor. Mrs. Whalan who had got up in the night, for she was sitting on a chair in the kitchen was burned about the toes and soles of her feet, from coming in contact with the lightning, which ran along the floor under her chair. Mr. Whalan had remained in bed and although he had bricks falling all around him he was unharmed. His brother who was staying with him, had also gone down to the kitchen and had his socks burned, although he escaped serious injury. The windows of the house were all shattered and the house was wrecked so badly that someone remarked that it looked as if a German bomb had struck it.
The barn of Mr. Sylvère Poirier on the Lot 16 Road a quarter of a mile from the church in the direction of Miscouche was struck but not seriously damaged.
The storm appeared to be heavy and severe in Summerside. According to reports from the western part of the province there was very little thunder in that section. -S

THE USE OF ALGONS SUCH AS "DEMOCRACY IS DEAD"

Actually democracy is now wide awake to the efforts being made by Hitler to steal our freedom and liberty. As in other countries, he is striving to do this in the easiest way if possible without fighting. We should not be so foolish to believe his lies, or allow our nerves to suffer because of them.
They say "decadent Britain is already beaten; Hitler will win in the end." Can you even imagine Britain as beaten? It is true that men, women and children have been killed or maimed, ships and equipment have been lost; but valour and love of freedom still remains with the British world.
The British defeated the Spanish Armada that was supposed to crush England; Napoleon, after a long and severe struggle was defeated; and we will defeat Hitler and his boasting but now very quiet lack of friend "Cesare" Mussolini, that brave man who continually boasted of what he would do with his 7 million bayonets.
Hitler is trying to emulate Napoleon in winning battles and countries, but Napoleon was eventually beaten by free men; and remember that Hitler is no Napoleon. We must remember too that we are fighting for a better not a worse life. We will not be Nazi slaves.
We will win this war because we are fighting for that which we have never lost our freedom and the rights of man.
