FOX NEWS.—The Belfast Fox and Fur Farming Company have only a few shares to offer investors. Attention is directed to the ad in another column. 1409

FOX STOCKS.—Still a few shares of stock for sale in some of the best fox companies. Sure dividend payers, P. E. Island Fox Exchange and Healthy Co., Ltd., Summerside. 1413.

1914 DIVIDEND PAYER.—Experience and success go hand and hand in the fox business. Don't take chances. Invest in the Rayner International Fur Company, a sure dividend payer. Shares $100 each. Canada Fox Exchange and Investment Company, Limited, Charlottetown. 1448

SELLING FAST.—The Rayner International Fur Company, Limited, gives you an opportunity to invest in Rayner foxes—foxes which have made fortunes and fame for their lucky owners, have an unsurpassed pelt value, and an unequalled breeding record. Invest now. Shares $100 each. Canada Fox Exchange and Investment Company, Limited, Charlottetown. 1148

MR. BENSON ILL.—Mr. T. A. Benson the Dominion Poultry Representative is suffering from a severe attack of grippe, and his meetings are being taken by Mr. John Marcellus, who has had a very considerable experience in Egg Circle work in Ontario. Mr. Marcellus will speak on Monday, March 2nd, at Hazelbrook, on Tuesday at Avondale, on Wednesday at Millview, on Thursday at Webster's Corner and on Friday at Cornwall. All meetings will begin at 7.30 p. m. It is hoped that they will be largely attended.

SOMEWHAT CRIPPLED.—Since their last hockey game some members of the Connaught team have met with accidents. The first one to get a broken collar bone was Harry Stanley, which he got in a game between teams from the Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Royal Bank of Canada. This meant a new man was needed at centre on the second team. At practice on Thursday night McAleer received a swift shot of the puck on the eye blacking it out and also making it about twice its natural size. Purcell fared the worst he got two or three teeth knocked out besides other injuries. It evidently did not stop the Connaughts from putting up a winning game Friday night.

A VERY SUCCESSFUL carnival was held at the Kensington rink on Thursday last. This was the finest one ever held in the rink and its success augurs well for other events of the same nature in future. No one was allowed on the ice at first, but those in costume. The costumes were indeed excellent, some no doubt requiring considerable time for their making. The first prize for gents was easily won by Mr. J. Ingles, representing an Indian brave. It was a more difficult matter however, to select the best costume among the ladies. It narrowed down at last to Red Wing, Indian Bride, Irish Girl, and was given to Irish Girl, Miss Amelia Mill. The children's prize went to Master Edwin Lynds. The judges were John McFadden, Allan Cole and B. W. Taylor. A pleasant skate was indulged in by all after the prizes were awarded.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very interesting wedding took place on Monday, February 23rd in St. Augustine's Church, Rustico, when Mr. Joseph Pineau of Rusticoville and Miss Magie Doucette of Rustico were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Chanson, Parish Priest. The bride and the groom were attended by Miss Angeline Doucette, sister of the bride and Mr. Louis Pineau, brother of the groom. After the marriage was solemnized the bride party proceeded to the home of the bride, where they partook of a sumptuous repast. The numerous guests including the neighbors and relatives proceeded to enjoy themselves in a most appropriate way. The newly married couple were the recipients of many useful and handsome gifts. The happy couple will take up their abode in a new residence which the groom provided for in the last few years. May joy and happiness be their lot in the years to come.—R.

N. B. AND P. E. I. CONFERENCE.—At a special meeting of the Evangelistic committee held last week, several matters of interest were considered says The Wesleyan. It was regretted that the committee had failed in its endeavors to secure a leader for special devotional exercises for the Conference sessions in June next, but certain suggestions in re-committee of arrangements. The main business before the committee was a proposition from Mr. J. R. Dinnis, of Charlottetown, offering to provide an evangelist for the weaker fields of our Conference for next year. This unique and generous offer the committee accepted and gave expression of its appreciation to the honor. The question of procuring an evangelist gave the committee deep concern and after careful consideration of several available men it was decided to enter into engagement with Rev. G. S. Anderson, of Somerville, Mass.
