

Enemies of Tea

If tea is left open near oranges, soap, spices, matches, etc., the tea will take on the flavor of any of these articles.

In fact, tea absorbs odors as readily as does butter. This is because it becomes so dry and brittle in passing through the firing or drying oven that it becomes very sensitive to the moisture and odors in the air.

When loose in the chest or bin or bag it quickly loses flavor and strength. Tastes flat, weak, old; dear at any price.

This is why Red Rose is never sold in bulk—but always in sealed packages. The armour that keeps out dust and odors and keeps in the flavor and strength.

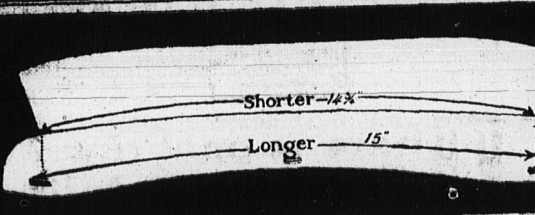

The price printed on the package protects you against overcharge. It is the lowest price for which a tea of Red Rose quality can be sold—a price which allows the grocer only a fair profit.

You will enjoy the distinctive flavor and rich strength of Red Rose Tea. Try a package.

Red Rose crushed coffee is as generously good as Red Rose Tea and just as easy to make.

Why The Top Is Smaller

With the normal individual, the neck slopes gradually inward from the base.

To give a perfect fit a collar must, therefore, taper slightly towards the top. That is one reason why we make W.G. & R. collars slightly smaller at the top than at the buttonhole length.

Another reason is that the bottom of a collar should naturally be larger to go around the base of the neck and around the neck band of the shirt.

It only needs a comparison on the neck with other makes to demonstrate the superiority of W.G. & R. collars. W.G. & R. collars fit neater and look smarter.

Mr. Healey McKay, furnishing the music while Miss Sadie McKenzie accompanied on the piano. Otherwise, the entertainment proceeded in the usual manner of all parlor socials of this kind. It is quite gratifying that such a nice sum was realized for patriotic purposes since at this stage of the conflict, it is needed so much.

L.O.L. MEETS. An interesting meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the P. E. Island Hospital was held in their lounge room on Sunday afternoon last when the members and some of their friends met to bid good-bye and good luck to Harry Cannon and Harold Weeks, two of their number who have since left to join the 10th Siege Artillery Battalion at Halifax. Rev. H. R. Bell as Chairman, after a short and appropriate address called on Capt. G. H. Campbell, who read to the young men an address from the Lodge expressing their appreciation of the action they had taken and presented each of them with a gold mounted fountain pen. Messrs. Weeks and Cannon who were seated under the folds of the Union Jack made short speeches expressing appreciation of the gifts and of the address. Short speeches were also given by Messrs. A. B. Allen, S. McKay, M. L. A., Capt. McNicoll, John Y. Phillips and others, after which the National Anthem was sung and all present shook hands with the young soldiers wishing them good luck and a safe return.

The Annual Meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the P. E. Island Hospital was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. (Mrs.) Taylor. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer showed a very satisfactory financial condition. The expenditure had been large on account of the increased prices and a large quantity of linens and house furnishings had to be procured. During the year the Society furnished a sitting room for the Ladies' Aid Society and also voted enough money to paint and paper the Nurses' Home. Acting upon a suggestion made by one of the members it was decided to name an Egg Day in June on which date contributions of eggs, in such quantities as might be available, would be asked for in Kings and Queens counties. These eggs are to be used for the hospital. It was decided to place before the Trustees at the annual meeting the necessity of providing an infectious hospital in connection with the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

The following officers were appointed: Hon. Pres.—Mrs. F. P. Taylor; Pres.—Mrs. J. A. Mathieson; Vice-Pres. at large—Mrs. Tidmarsh; Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Hodgson; Mrs. Sterns; T. G. ST. JAMES' CHURCH. Miss Gladys Bell, of Summerside, has been engaged as soprano soloist at St. James' Church in this city, and will enter upon her duties on Sunday next. Miss Bell is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of music, and besides being the possessor of a voice of singularly pure and beautiful quality, of great range, is an accomplished musician withal, and will doubtless prove a worthy successor to the splendid list of soloists who have graced St. James' Church in the past.

WOUNDED ISLANDER WRITES. Mr. J. C. McKendrick received a letter yesterday from his son, Corporal Howard McKendrick, who was reported wounded. Corporal McKendrick is in an English hospital and is recovering favourably towards recovery. He speaks in the highest terms of the care and attention received, not only by himself, but by all the wounded at the hands of the nurses who are untiring in their hospital, under such ministrations is, he says, a pleasure and the mothers and friends of wounded soldiers may rest assured that their loved ones are being as tenderly cared for as if they were at home.

A THOUGHTFUL ACT. The 10th Reinforcements draft had a route march out Malpeque Road yesterday afternoon, when they showed good soldierly stepping and endurance. A happy incident of the march was a treat given the "boys" by Mrs. J. C. McKendrick, who, when she saw them coming, went out with a sufficient quantity of milk, bread and cake to feed them all. The men were halted and given an opportunity to enjoy to the full the kindly act of the mother of a corporal now in hospital in England. Needless to say, the "boys" appreciated Mrs. McKendrick's thoughtfulness as they enjoyed the bountiful repast for which their walk had sharpened their appetites.

INTERESTING SERVICES. Rev. R. H. Heston, of Springfield, P. E. I., for many years a missionary in Kangri, India, preached in St. John's church on Sunday morning before a large congregation, and gave a most interesting account of his work, saying that he had been greatly helped in his dealings with the people of India, says a St. John's exchange. He also spoke of the increasing demand among the people for recognition as a nation and for a self-contained government. One of the greatest problems that confronts the British Empire at the present day is the question as to whether men from India are to be admitted to the other parts of the empire. Rev. Heston preached in Trinity on the evening, and again told of his work in India.

CALEDONIAN CLUB. The monthly meeting of the Caledonian Club was held in the rooms last evening—the President, Ex-Governor McKinnon in the chair. The Games Committee was instructed to report at next meeting regarding the advisability of holding the annual gathering this year. After the routine business, Mr. J. R. Burnet introduced an interesting discussion on "The Influence of Songs and Poetry on Scottish Life and Character." The discussion was taken part in by Mr. Charles Webster, Mr. James Paton, Mr. T. White, Chief Shaw, Mr. P. A. McLeod, and the President. It was resolved to endeavour to make a collection of old Scottish songs and poems, and to invite all who had them to send either the original or copies to the Club, as it was thought a very interesting and valuable collection could be made.

Mr. George Higgins, City, received a telegram yesterday informing him that his son, Sergeant Wilfrid G. Higgins, had been officially reported admitted to the 8th Stationary Hospital, Wimereux, on May 21st. The telegram stated that he had been passed and that further particulars would be sent when received. Sergeant Higgins was one of the first eleven young men from Charlottetown who left here for Sydney for overseas, having before that spent three weeks at Sydney upon the outbreak of the war, and re-volunteering for active service. He crossed with the first contingent that left Valcartier and went into the trenches on April 4th, 1915. With the exception of one of the original unit of eleven who left at that time there is only one left that is known to have escaped death or wounding—Sergeant Major George Brady. Sergeant Higgins served on the same run with Gunner R. Brehaux, whose death in action was chronicled on April 25th.
