By Atlantic Standard time (which is identical with Charlottetown time) telegraphed from Moncton at three o'clock yesterday afternoon the town clock was nine minutes slow. For some time the clock has been more or less astray and has been a source of constant annoyance to many who depend upon it especially in catching trains. On several occasions those who have relied upon the time indicated as correct have been disappointed on seeing the train leaving the station ere they had reached it. Something should be done by those who have the keeping of the clock in charge to make it correct. If not it had better be stopped in order to prevent further annoyance to citizens.

The Semi-Annual Examination of Annapolis School was held on Christmas Eve. It was a very pleasing event. The day was fine, and the village streets were alive with the hum of industry; the noisy carts rolled over a frozen road bearing the precious produce of the fruitful farms to the vessels at the wharves. The stores were filled with joyful people seeking their Xmas luxuries. In a word it was a busy day in a busy village. From this cheerful and anxious concourse a number, careful of education, stepped into their cosy homelike schoolroom. The closing day opening into the festive season had spun around. The boys and girls encouraged by their competent teacher, Miss Elva M. Young were in readiness to exhibit their toil during the last few months in the school room. Among those present to assist in conducting the exercises were C O Howlett, John Howlett and Mrs Geo McDonald. Class after class was carefully and critically examined. The pupils for the most part were prompt with correct answers and showed by their composure and quick thought that they had been well and carefully taught. The visitors were not slow to express their joy in the occasion and their satisfaction with the steady progress the school was making. Before closing ample refreshments were served of which all partook and returned to their homes feeling well repaid for time spent in the visitation.

YOU WILL BE ALL SMILES AGAIN.

Forget Your Stomach and You'll Have a Santa Claus Face.

HOW TO DO IT.

If there is one thing more than all others that will give a man a forlorn and friendless appearance and make him morbid and "cranky" and disagreeable, that thing is dyspepsia. It makes one forget his friends and become morose and irritable. He is so wrapped up in his own misery that he is inconsiderate of every one else. Relieved of this terrible and depressing ailment, he again becomes a good fellow and a man among men.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are beyond question the most effective and popular remedy ever offered to the sufferers of this terrible disease. The thousands and thousands of cures they have brought about and the enormous increase of their sales fully attest the truth of this statement.

They are, above all, a natural remedy. They possess exactly the same properties that the gastric juices and other digestive fluids of the stomach possess and they actually do the digestive work of the stomach and enable that organ to rest and recuperate and become sound and well. They act in a mild, natural manner and cause no disturbance in the digestive organs. They prevent any fermentation of the food which causes sour stomach. In fact, under their influence the subject forgets that he has a stomach and his resulting cheerfulness presents a great contrast to his former dejection.

Millions of boxes of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold annually and they are but in the dawn of their popularity. Every mail brings letters of thanksgiving from grateful ones who have been cured of this terrible disease. The following is one of hundreds received each week:

Rev. J. R. Hoag of Wyoming, Neb., writes: "For six years I have been troubled with dyspepsia. Last fall I became very much alarmed at some symptoms of heart trouble and came to believe there was a sympathetic relation between the two diseases, or rather that the stomach trouble was the cause of the heart disturbance. I hit upon Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for a remedy and invested a dollar and a half for three boxes which lasted me three months and I can eat any kind of food I want and have a good, vigorous appetite. Although I am 77 years old, I now feel perfectly well and without being requested by anyone I make this statement as a compliment to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."
