A MORNING THOUGHT

As I awake from my sleep
A sunny morn in June,
I hear the song birds a-twittler,
With voices full in tune.

A nest in the yellow rosebush
Outside my window-cill,
Brooded o'er by mother-bird
Whose heart with joy's a-thrill.

The soft breeze gently rustles
The green leaves on the tree;
The sunshine on the dewy grass
Makes fields a sparkling sea.

The fragrance of the orchard,
Makes me soar above earth's sor-

To the region of light.

As I inhale the sweetness,
Flon beauty of the morn,
I think of God in high Heaven
By Whom all things are born.

Memoriam

MRS. ARTHUR K. JENKINS

As the beautiful day of June 18th was wanting to close the spirit of Mrs. Arthur K. Jenkins, Pownalnee (Susan Lois Ballew) winged its heavenly flight after an illness of several months which she bore with cheerful Christian resignation and as Joseph weakened she longed to be with her Saviour. Mrs. Jenkins was the daughter of the late Joseph and Sophia Jenkins of Lot 10. Here she attended the country school and matriculated to P. E. I. where she graduated at the early age of fifteen years. She was very successful as a teacher, having taught in several schools in this province where she endeared herself to all who became fortunate enough to know her, among whom were those of every walk of life.

The deceased who was loved and respected by all, was gently missed by a wide circle of friends and relatives. In her home where she was a faithful wife, kind and loving mother her loss will be keenly felt.

From her quiet early days she longed to be with her Saviour. She was particularly in the work of the church, where she held the position of secretary of the W. M. S. Pownal, for thirty years. Her husband, Arthur K. Jenkins, was a well known and successful business man. He was a member of the W. M. S. Pownal, for thirty years. Her husband, Arthur K. Jenkins, was a well known and successful business man. He was a member of the W. M. S. Pownal, for thirty years.

Her remains were laid to rest beside those of her late husband. Un-tilled the sweet by and by when "there shall be no night" nor mourning for then all the former troubles and worries and the things which we have understood will have passed away.

The pall bearers were: Daniel Cannon, William Wood, Frank Jones, Benjamin Praught, William Acorn, W. E. Smith.

The funeral service was held on the afternoon of June 20th from her late home, 1111-1113, where were beautiful bore silent testimony of love and sympathy.

Her life shines as a beacon light. That never shall grow dim. The tomb to the bride was made moon. It points the way to "Him".

Shama - Joseph Wedding

(Springhill Record)

A very pretty summer wedding was solemnized on Monday, July 1st in All Saints' Church at 11 A. M. when Marjorie Mary Joseph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Joseph, was united in marriage to William Shama, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shama, Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. Knickle assisted by Canon Malone, Charlottetown, amidst a shower of pink, white and blue flowers.

The bride who entered the church to the strains of her wedding march on the arm of her father, looked very lovely in a floor-length gown of heavy white satin with an over dress of silver white tulle on torso lines buttoning down the back with small covered buttons and featuring a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves coming to a point over her hands. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, gift of the groom. Her veil of white net, edged with silk embroidery, which fell to the floor on train, was held in place by a coronet shaped headpiece. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses.

Miss Adele Joseph, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, wearing a charming gown of ice blue satin with an over dress of silver white silk lace, buttoning from the front with the peter pan collar with white buttons. She wore long white gloves and carried a bouquet of bronze roses, while the bridesmaid, Miss Lillian Aleck, was attractively gowned in a floor-length gown of pink sheer over taffeta, also accepting a high neckline and long sleeves. Both attendants wore shoulder length veils to match their gowns falling from pleated coronet and carrying dainty forget-me-nots. The bridesmaid carried a nosegay of summer flowers.

Leading the bridal party into the church was little June Goodwin, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, as flower girl. She looked adorable in a long flowered blue organza dress and a full length veil entrain and carried a nosegay of summer flowers.

The groom was supported by his brother Arthur Shama, usher were "Sunny" Istock and Edmund Joseph.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Hazel Purdy sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" while during the service the choir sang the "Voice That Breathed O'er Eden".

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Parish House when the couple, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Shama and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph and other relatives received around 145 guests.

The bride's mother was attractively dressed in a two-piece navy and white outfit, her corsage being of red roses.

Gift to the bridesmaid was a set of sterling silver handles, maid of honor, gold earrings and silver bangle; yocalite, gold cigarette case; flower girl, sterling silver locket; ushers, billfolds; and to the best man, Ronson lighter.

The bride's table was laid with a linen cloth having a large silver candelabrum at each end holding white candles centered by roses and the bride and groom cakes. The bride's four tier wedding cake was prettily decorated with silver and topped by a miniature bride and groom. Places were marked by small nosegays of summer flowers.

The toast to the bride was made by Rev. Wm. Knickle and responded to by the groom and Canon Malone. Mrs. J. Anderson, hostess while Dorothy Michael of Charlottetown served the bride's table. During the reception music was rendered by Mrs. Purdy and Mr. Robinson.

Later that day the couple left for Niagara Falls and Lansing, Mich., where they will spend their honeymoon. For travelling Mrs. Shama wore a two piece blue gabardine suit with black and pink accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds. On their return they will take up residence in Charlottetown where the groom is established in business after serving four years in the services. The bride also has just recently been released from the R. C. A. F. after serving four years. Much happiness is extended to the couple from all their friends.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Shama and family, Canon Malone and Mrs. Malone, Charlotte Amherst and Charlottetown.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., July 18 — (AP)—James A. Hart, New York State's oldest Civil War veteran, celebrated his 105th birthday today. "I enjoy my meals and sleep like I did when I was 70," he said yesterday on the eve of his anniversary. "I haven't an ache or a pain except a catch once in a while in my right leg."

If You Are a No.1 Citizen You will look after No. 1...

THIS is not selfishness, but the realization that a community is no better, no sounder than its citizens.

The welfare of our community—Canada—depends not alone on those charged with the government of the country, but on each of its citizens—12,000,000 strong.

Today, that welfare is menaced by the danger of inflation. Already, millions in lands devastated by war suffer misery because of it.

Inflation, to the citizen, means simply less and less value for his dollar... his living costs soar as fast and careless spending drives up the price of goods still in short supply.

War always brings the threat of inflation in its wake... only the prudence of the people can keep it in check.

How? Mainly, by conservation... by buying only those goods which are in fair supply, and by saving money for the day when goods now in short supply will be readily available.

This helps to keep prices steady—to keep your dollar at its real worth.

This means that, if you are a No. 1 citizen, you will rigidly avoid black market purchases and you will save money by:

- building up your savings account;
- keeping up your insurance;
- buying Government bonds and War Savings Certificates;
- holding whatever of these securities you have bought.

This is conservation—the first requisite for personal security—the first attribute of good citizenship.
