Scoring two goals in every period and playing under wraps for a great part of the game Abegweit were successful in turning back the LaSalle-Hull pucksters from Ottawa last night 6 to 2 in a game that bristled with action in spots and again lulled to almost a standstill. The Upper Canadians are a likely looking lot of puckmen who play clean hockey all the while, are fair stick-handlers but their exhibition of shooting on the net was sad to behold. A few of the forwards managed to trick through the Red Shirt defence, but actually shot ten feet wide of Bubar in the local citadel. Their skating too did not by any means measure up to the O'Connor clan who seemed to roam at will and back-check plays that at times left them flat-footed behind the blue line. All in all much more was expected from the Ottawa boys. However, it may be said that the visitors, fresh from a long journey were hardly in condition to give of their best, but even if they were to remain here a week, there isn't a doubt in the world that Abbies would take them like "Grant took Richmond."

As above mentioned the game was cleanly played, only one penalty being handed out during the three periods.

The long life of James E. Palmer and his unselfish labor in the interest of his community closed Sunday morning, Dec. 4th, after a short illness of only one day. Mr. Palmer was 84 years old and had been a resident of Prince Edward Island all his life. In 1875 he married Adelaide Costain, a daughter of the late Richard Costain of Minningash. Mrs. Palmer passed away in 1918 after over forty years of happy wedded life. Nine children blessed the union, (Lillian), Mrs. Ellison, and Thomas in California; Richard and James in Boston, (Florence), Mrs. Greene in Detroit; (Edith), Mrs. Guy MacInnis, (Ella), Mrs. Chester Costain, Hedley and Cecil, who were present at his death bed.

The late Mr. Palmer took a keen interest in all things pertaining to the good of the community, he was a successful farmer and business man and had been for over fifty years an active member of the Methodist Church where he resided. For 20 years he was superintendent of the Sunday School and at the time of his death was an elder in the United Church. In the death of Mr. Palmer Roseville loses one of its oldest residents, his home being a shelter to the poor and needy and any traveller who came that way for almost sixty years. His funeral was largely attended and a keen sense of loss is felt by the entire community while the floral tributes and letters of sympathy testify to the high esteem in which he was held by all who knew him. Mrs. McLeod rendered very feelingly one of his favorite hymns, "There Were Ninety and Nine." His pastor, Rev. J. D. McLeod, officiated at the service with the glorious thought, we gathered to mourn for the loss of one whom we may not soon see again, but with faith we shall meet him a little way in the future, and the eye that shone so brilliantly and the voice that addressed us so kindly and the hand that grasped our arm so cordially will again greet us on the other side.

NARROW ESCAPE—Last night about 10 o'clock a fatal drowning accident almost occurred while John Webster, Ambrose Mitchell and Son's were crossing the East River with over a ton of smelts on a sleigh, which they were pushing across the ice. When nearing the channel the ice gave way, without any warning, the sleigh, load and all, went crashing through the ice. The boys who were pushing on the back of the sleigh went down into the icy water with the load. With the aid of a piece of rope, John Webster carried, both boys were quickly brought to the surface without serious results, except a good ducking in the icy water of the East River.

HAD FINE RECORD—Sergeant Thomas Taylor, who passed away on Tuesday was born in Annandale in 1845, the son of Mr. William Taylor, and was one of a family of six sons and two daughters. In 1867 he came to Charlottetown, worked at North River for a number of years and afterwards as attendant in the old hospital for the insane. In 1874 his father sold the farm and with members of the family, and others, eleven in all, removed to California. After a splendid repast Mr. Gallagher said a few words, expressing his pleasure at having his fellow workers gathered once more at the banquet and hoping that they would all be present at many more such gatherings.
