LOUISE ADELET FORD

It was with deep regret that friends and relatives learned of the passing of Louise Adelet Ford, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ford which occurred at the P. E. Island Hospital on February 13. Although not in good health for the past few months hopes were entertained for her recovery and nothing was left undone to bring it about. But all to no avail and on the above date her spirit moved on to God who gave it. She will be sadly missed, not only in home but also by her many friends and relatives. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, February 16 at her home, 17 Bishop Street where a large number gathered to pay their last tribute of love and esteem. Owing to the illness of the pastor, Rev. J.D. Davison of the Ch'nton Baptist Church the services were conducted by Mr. Howlett, Student, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family. She leaves to mourn one sister, Leona, Mrs. Earl Bernard, City; two brothers, Archibald and Ernest, one nephew, Ernest residing in this city, Archibald at home, the nephew Forrest at home. And she was tenderly laid to rest in the family plot in Fair View Baptist Cemetery, Rustico Road. The pallbearers were: Henry Josey, Stanley Wakelin, Everett Wakelin, Earl, Bernard, Willard, Chandler, Urvill McKinnon.

Following are the Floral Tributes and Messages of Sympathy:

TAYLOR—In loving memory of our dear brother, Leslie Ivan Taylor, who was drowned April 19th, 1947.
 Deep in our hearts there's a picture
 Worth more than silver or gold,
 A picture of our dear brother
 Whose memory will never grow old.
 Lovingly remembered by his brothers and sisters.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear son Clarence Leith Davison, Free-town, who departed this life April 19th, 1947.
 Time speeds on, one year has passed
 Since death its gloom, its shadows cast.
 Within our home, where all seemed bright
 And took from me a shining light,
 I miss that light, and ever will,
 His vacant place there is none to fill.
 Down here I mourn, but not in vain
 For up in heaven I will meet again.
 Lovingly Remembered by Mother.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Clarence Davison who lost his life by drowning April 19th, 1947.
 Little we thought when he left us Friday night
 That he would never return
 That he so soon in death would sleep
 And leave us here to mourn.
 We loved him then, we love him still,
 Forget him no, we never will.

In loving memory of Leslie Ivan Taylor who was drowned on April 19th, 1947.
 The dearest brother, and sweetest friend
 One of the best whom God could lend
 He was loving, gentle, thoughtful and true
 One in a million, that brother was you.
 We miss you at every turn
 Along life's weary way
 For life is not the same to us
 Since you were drowned, one year ago today.
 Lovingly Remembered by Brother and Sister-in-Law, Eric and Georgie.

U. S. Radio Commentator Is Convicted

BOSTON, April 17 (AP) — Robert Henry Best, war-time commentator on the German short-wave radio, was convicted of treason today — his 52nd birthday. The 12-man Federal jury deliberated only three hours and 50 minutes.
 Best, former United States newspaper man in Europe, was pale and tense as he stood in the courtroom. He held his hands behind him and he did not move as the jury foreman announced "guilty."
 Best, born in Sumter, S. C., the son of a Methodist minister, testified in the final stages of the 13-day trial he made about 700 broadcasts over short-wave radio from Germany during the war.
 He claimed his purpose was to fight Bolshevism and to bring about a negotiated peace.
 The Government prosecutor — Tom De Wolfe — termed the partially bald, blue-eyed newspaper man a "vulgar, garrulous traitor."
 Judge Francis J. W. Ford deferred sentence indefinitely.

TAYLOR—In loving memory of our dear son Leslie Ivan Taylor, who was drowned April 19th, 1947.
 How little we knew when we woke that morn
 The sorrow that day would bring,
 The blow was hard, the shock severe
 To part with one we loved so dear.
 It seems so strange, and we wonder why
 The best are always the first to die;
 There wasn't a thing too big or small
 That he wouldn't try to do for all.
 Gone is the face we loved so dear
 Silent the voice we loved to hear,
 Sweet to remember him, who once was here
 And who, though absent, is just as dear.
 Sadly missed but fondly remembered by Mother and Father.

PRESENTATION

On Monday evening, Feb. 26th, Mr. Robert L. Smith was waited upon at his home by representatives of the box holders of R.R. 1, Mr. Frank Nicholson and Mr. Wilfred MacAleer.
 Mr. Nicholson acted as chairman for the occasion, while Mr. MacAleer read the address, at the conclusion of which Mr. Nicholson presented Bobby with a very generous purse of money.
 The following is the address read by Mr. MacAleer.
 To Mr. Robert L. Smith, Mail Courier R.R. 1, Hunter River, P.E.I.
 Dear Bobby:—
 To you, our genial, obliging mail man, we say thank you for the

Efficient capable delivery of our mail. We fully realize the long, cold, tiresome journey you are obliged to make each day of the week in order to fulfill that service. For six days of the week, when humanly possible, we find our letters, parcels and papers delivered in good order in our respective mail boxes. Old man weather must often frown at your utter disregard of his storms, his cold and his drifted roads. To help do we appreciate your untiring efforts in our behalf. However, we assure you that there is no more welcome traveller passes our homes on cold lonesome days than you, our own Bobby Smith, bringing a ray of sunshine out of a cold stormy day into our homes. If too frequently we do not show our appreciation of this unsurpassed service, please accept now our sincerest thanks and because it comes from truly grateful friends.
 God bless and keep you always, Bobby.
 Signed on behalf of the box-holders of R. R. 1.
 J. Wilfred MacAleer,
 Frank Nicholson.

Innkeeper Loses Sparetime Job As Hangman

MANCHESTER, England, April 16 (Reuters)—The host of an inn here called "The Poor Struggler" has lost his sparetime job as a result of the House of Commons decision to abolish the death penalty for five years.
 It was an important, if rather infrequent, job which took him to many parts of Britain and the continent.

ACT LIKE LADIES. TOMBOYS ARE TOLD

The little tomboy who is envious of the ladylike young girl's genteel manners should stop being envious and start ridding herself of her hoydenish habits.
 Want some specific suggestions on how to do this?
 Begin as soon as you finish reading this to practice speaking in a quieter voice. Every time you have an impulse to yell or boom out your voice, stop and remember the ladylike little girl, whose low-toned speech is one of the qualities you envy.
 Learn to sit like a lady. Not much practice is required to sit upright in a chair with your feet planted firmly on the floor. What you learn this proper way to sit you won't knock over objects, upset furniture, or annoy other people.
 This year, travelling under the name of "Mr. Evans" he supervised the execution of 21 other war criminals.
 He then was manager of a grocery warehouse and used to arrange with his employers for time off when he was needed at an execution. He switched to inn ownership a few months after his appointment.
 So far he has made no comment on the abolition of the death penalty.
 Naturally taciturn, years of evading questions about his job have made him even more difficult to draw out.
 For a long time he was assistant to his uncle—a man whose name struck dread into criminals—and attended the executions of many famous criminals.
 Since his appointment as hangman no. 1, however, Pierpoint's busiest days have been spent in Germany, hanging war criminals to hang Joseph Kramer—the Beast of Belsen—and 10 other concen-
