STOCK QUOTATIONS

Stock Markets New York At A Glance Exchange

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31. (CP)—Export business for Canadian grain today was limited to the disposal of a cargo of wheat representing 200,000 bushels for shipment to Europe in consequence of weak relief.

TORONTO, Oct. 31. (CP)—The gold showed an index gain of .35 and the Western Oil 30 today to the Toronto Exchange. Base Metals were steady and mainly unchanged at the close. Trading volume improved over the last two sessions to show aggregate of 1,714,000 shares.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31. (CP)—Grain futures held fairly firm today but there was no pronounced strength after an early buying flurry. Rye was the best gainer in early trading on a government report showing extremely small stocks of the grain in all positions.

MONTREAL, Oct. 31. (CP)—Papers surged up to new highs in trading today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market as a reaction to Washington reports that the price of newspaper will be raised $5 per ton. The group moved up to an eight-year new top in the indices where they have now gained more than 25 points since the beginning of the month. In other divisions, trends were mixed, except pivots metals and distilleries and breweries, which were strong.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—The stock market negotiated a record and broad upswing today with many issues touching eight-year peaks as inflationary interpretations of the President's wage-policy inspired heavy investment buying in virtually all departments.

Transfers totaled 2,060,000 shares, largest since June 28 compared with 1,770,000 Tuesday. The Associated Press 60-stock composite was 70.11 points at 72.6.
