

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

PAINFUL INJURY—A piece of wood thrown by the wheel of a skidding auto truck last Tuesday nearly cost Wesley Cann of Cornwall the loss of an eye. The unfortunate young man was rushed to a doctor who, upon examining the wound found that an artery above the left eye was severed. It required two stitches to close the gash.

The annual cemetery service of St. Dunstan's Basilica and the Holy Redeemer parishes took place yesterday in the Catholic Cemetery. His Excellency, the Bishop of Charlottetown presided, and offered prayers for all the faithful departed. He was assisted by Rev. Dr. McMahon and Rev. Louis A. Dougan. The other clergy present were Rev. Father McCardie, Rev. Father Keefe and Rev. Father Dalton.

INQUEST UNNECESSARY—Coroner J. J. Yeo decided an inquest was unnecessary concerning the death of Daniel Bears, 15-year-old Belle River youth who was found dead in the cellar of his home Saturday with a shot gun beside him. He had received the charge of the gun in the head. The victim was the son of Mrs. John Compton, who with Mr. Compton was absent from home at the time. The deceased had been dependent for some time, it was learned.

—Mrs. R. T. Holman, widow of the founder of R. T. Holman Ltd., Summerside, celebrated her 88th birthday quietly at her home in Summerside on Saturday afternoon. Her daughters, Miss Gladys and Miss Carrie dispensed hospitality at the tea hour to friends and relatives who called to extend their congratulations. Mrs. Holman enjoys perfect health and welcomed the visitors in her usual gracious manner.

MACDONALD-DOUGAN — Miss Margaret T. MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Souris East, P. E. I. was married to John H. Dougan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dougan, Hampstead, N. B. recently at St. Margaret's Church, Beverley Farms, Mass. on Sept. 19th. Rev. M. J. Gleason, pastor, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Dr. F. Penno, Springfield, Mass., looked charming in a gown of white satin and tulle veil trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Peggy McDonald, Boston, was bridesmaid, and Eugene Lynch Milton, Mass., supported the groom. Ushers were Edward Eland and Joseph Connors, Beverley Farms. Following a reception held at the Hotel Sheraton, Mr. and Mrs. Dougan left on a motor trip through Quebec and the Maritime Provinces. They will reside in Dorchester Mass.

MACLEOD-BERNARD NUPTIALS

—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, August 7th at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bernard, Long River, when their young daughter, Esther Catherine, was united in marriage to James Elmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester MacLeod, also of Long River. The bride, who was dressed in a lovely dress of white silk crepe, with shoes and accessories to match, and carried a pretty bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern, entered the church in the arms of her father. The strains of the Wedding March, played by the bride's sister, Mrs. David Paynter. The parlor was prettily decorated for the occasion in pink and white sweet peas. The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreen and roses, from the centre of which a large white bell was suspended. Rev. G. N. Somers officiated in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends. The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Eileen MacLeod, who wore a pretty dress of sheer peach organdie, and carried an arm bouquet of peach and white sweet peas. Irving Campbell ably supported the groom. Following the ceremony, a delightful supper was served in the dining room, which was decorated in yellow and white, with yellow flowers. A large crowd of charivariers arrived to offer their good wishes and after bounding the groom, all departed to their homes wishing them many years of happiness. The happy young couple will reside in Long River, where the groom is a farmer.

The sudden death of Mrs. Robert Carruthers which occurred at her home in O'Leary on Wednesday night was learned with much regret by her many friends.

Mrs. Carruthers had been in her usual health that day and retired to bed at her usual hour. Shortly after she passed to her eternal reward. The deceased had not been in very robust health for some time but her death was quite unexpected.

She was a woman with many fine qualities which endeared her to all who knew her. She was formerly Miss Thompson of Howland. There are left to mourn her husband and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Keir Campbell of Alberton; Miss Carrie Hayward of Elmsdale; Mr. Oswald Hayward of O'Leary; Mrs. Ralph MacLellan and Mrs. Clarence MacKinnon; Mrs. O'Leary; Miss Bessie, Miss Annie and George at home; also one sister, Mrs. D. D. Campbell, and two brothers, Thomas Thompson, Howland, and James Thompson, Campbellton, N. B., to whom much sympathy is extended.

The funeral which was very largely attended was held on Friday afternoon in the United Church, O'Leary, after a private service at the home. Rev. Mr. Baker conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Peacock and Rev. Mr. Muehen. The pallbearers were Messrs. Harry, Philip and Thompson, Kenneth Campbell, Frank Platts and Bennett Hayward. Interment was in the Bloomfield Cemetery S.

Harold Redmond, 13, and a brother, Basil, 9, sons of Joseph Redmond, were drowned yesterday in Lake Verde when a boat in which they were rowing, capsized more than a hundred yards from shore. Two companions, Lawson Cole, 10, and Bobby Power, 11, narrowly escaped similar fate.

The young boys were rowing near the middle of the lake, when the boat, which sprang a leak, overturned throwing them into the water. Three of the boys grabbed Dawson Cole, the only swimmer of the party, but the Redmond brothers sank together clutching pieces of his clothing which they tore from his back while trying to cling to his struggling form.

Cole managed to drag Bobby Power to the boat which was floating wrong-side-up and hold him there until Joseph Redmond, father of the drowned youths, reached them on a makeshift raft. The accident occurred at 3:30 and the bodies were recovered an hour and a half later in seven feet of water.

Coroner Dr. J. D. MacGuigan, who with the R.C.M.P. investigated the accident, decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

—Mr. C. H. B. Longworth, Chairman of the Stevens' Club of Kings County, was host yesterday afternoon at the Prince Edward Theatre to all the principals and teachers of the four City Schools. The picture shown was Cardinal Richelieu, the part being taken by George Arliss, and was very finely portrayed. The wives of the married teachers were also guests of Mr. Longworth, who has on many other occasions generously entertained the staff and pupils.

Mr. W. M. Dickson, Deputy Minister of Labor, left this morning on a return to Ottawa. Mr. Dickson came to Charlottetown on Saturday to look over the labour relief projects, namely, the trans-Canada and Rustico (McLure) highways. He was in conference with Messrs. W. Chester S. McLure and John H. Myers, federal representatives for the County, on Monday morning, discussing relief projects.

This was Mr. Dickson's first visit to the Province and he expressed keen interest on being shown around the city and surrounding country.

GYRO MEETINGS RESUMED

The first of the regular fall and winter meetings of the Gyro Club was held last evening in the Canadian National Hotel with the President, Mr. Simon P. Paoli, Jr. in the chair. It was decided to sponsor a recital by the Hart House Quartette during the fall and a committee, with Mr. W. A. Gaudet as chairman was appointed to complete arrangements. Other matters of business transacted were making preliminary arrangements for the sale of Christmas seals; discussion of the celebration of Founders' Day on October 21st; the decision to hold weekly meetings during the fall and winter months; and the adoption of the report of the last meeting of the Legislative Council held at New Glasgow, N.S. earlier in the month. Mr. Phil Long of the Moncton club was a guest and gave a short address on Gyro activities in the district.

The people of West St. Peters and vicinity were shocked to hear of the death of one of the oldest and most respected residents of the community, in the person of James A. MacDonald, who passed away at the City Hospital, Charlottetown, on August 20th last.

ROTARY LUNCHEON

—Rev. Walter S. Cotton who is on a visit here from Johannesburg, South Africa where he is stationed was the speaker at the Rotary luncheon yesterday. Rev. Mr. Cotton spoke on the situation in Ethiopia. The African countries and peoples have faith in Britain and look to her for guidance, he stated. In the event of an Indo-European war he did not think that the colored races in Africa would cause any trouble. Mr. T. G. Ives presided. Rev. Hugh Miller was a guest at yesterday's luncheon.

HALL RENOVATED

The Benvolent Irish Society's hall has been completely renovated. The ceiling is finished in white while the upper part of the wall is the light green with the wainscoting in dark green. A natural finish oak strip separates the two colors. The floor which has been sanded and re-polished is in excellent shape. The heaters and windows finished in two tones of green blend with the walls. The ventilation of the hall has also been improved. An extensive charitable work through the city entertainments is used only for this work the members feel that the entertainments will be largely patronized. The interior decorations were done by J. Vernon Oatway.

The funeral services for the late Raymond Brown of Richmond was held on Monday morning at the R. C. church in Grand River. Friends from all parts of the province were present to pay their last respects to a dear friend. Members of the Knights of Columbus from Summerside and other parishes attended the funeral, and marched in a body from the church to the grave.

The funeral cortege left Richmond at nine o'clock for Grand River, the former home of the deceased, the K. of C. heading the procession. Rev. John A. MacDonald, parish priest, Grand River was the celebrant at the solemn high mass of requiem, assisting were Rev. Urban Gillis as Deacon and Rev. Bennett MacDonald Sub-Deacon. Rev.
