ROTARY—At the Rotary luncheon yesterday the speaker was Rotarian Dr. H. L. Stewart, Professor of Philosophy in Dalhousie University, Halifax. Rotarian Stewart took as the subject of a splendid address "Moving Pictures of the Various Stages of a Rotary Club." These stages he enumerated as:

1. Period of effervescent enthusiasm.
2. Period of critical coolness.
3. Period of robust re-orientation.

He said that it was natural for Clubs to pass through these stages. He elaborated each division of the subject in his usual admirable manner and presented sound philosophy combined with kindly philosophy. He devoted the greater part of his address to the reasons why the Rotary Clubs are not dying out and why on the contrary they are vigorous and flourishing. One section of vitality is carrying out a clear, concrete program. He instigated the Halifax Club which has been carrying on boys' work, aiding crippled children and identifying themselves with other activities. Past District Governor G. S. can No. 3 yellow quoted at 88 1/2 cents per bushel. The demand for Rotarian H. M. VanBuskirk of for sale of flour was limited to small lots but prices were unchanged. The market for mill feed was fairly active and the undertone was firm. The export trade in Canadian grain on the Montreal market to date was dull and featureless. The market for oats was also quiet but prices for oats were steady. Corn was weaker and prices were reduced one cent per bushel with American prices. Bad Fire At Peake's Station

Last Thursday morning a disastrous fire occurred at Peake's Station which destroyed the dwelling house and barn of Mr. Joseph Dunn. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Dunn about 2.30, when she looked out and saw the barn in flames. She quickly aroused the household who at once endeavoured to check the flames, but the fire spread from this barn which was an old one to the new one adjoining and on to a third where farm machinery, etc., was stored.

The house finally caught and despite the gallant efforts of neighbors who gathered, it too succumbed to the fiery element.

Practically everything in the house was burned, as well as harness, seven tons of hay in the barn.

Fortunately the machinery was saved and by hard and determined efforts the stock was taken out by Mr. Dunn and his sons.

A pump was used to supply the water but was altogether inadequate to cope with the serious situation.

Mr. Dunn's loss is a heavy one very little insurance, and much sympathy is felt for him and his family throughout the district.

The cause of the fire is attributed either to lime slacking in the hay which was stored in the loft above.

Messrs. Charles Brooks and Had Bell, White Sands, motored to the vicinity of the roads throughout the journey.

A motor party consisting of Misses Christine and Florence MacPhee of Heatherdale, Messrs. James Shaw and Reg MacDonald of Carleton passed through the City today en route to Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Murray of Melrose, Mass., and Mr. Nelson J. Murray of Fredericton and Mrs. Emily B. Murray of Bradfalbane, motored to the City yesterday.

Miss Margaret E. Meyer of Yarmouth, Maine, was visiting at Fredericton, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Murray.

Queen Square Wins From Souris High

At the Abegweit grounds last evening the Queen Square met and defeated the Souris High School team by a score of 13 to 8.

The game was a very good one, the Souris boys although somewhat smaller than their opponents showed up splendidly, and have splendid material for rounding into shape some high class ball players. The home team were never in any difficulty of winning and held the game well in hand excepting in the ninth inning when the Souris boys run in five runs with timely hitting which was coupled by errors.

For the Souris team O'Hanley in right field played a good game, proving himself a second class pitcher. On the high ones Mr. Donald playing the second sack also turned in a good game, as did Lewis on the initial sack and B. St. John, who was on the receiving end of the Souris Battery. Cabell Cheverie the youthful twirler on the Souris nine turned in a good game in the pitchers box for a boy of his years.

For Queen Square, Hornby was the shining light, coming through as a regular. Babe Ruth with two homers, being closely followed by Prowse and Whalen, McFarlane's effective batting end were quite effective. Blanchard on second also showed up well.

The line up is as follows:

Catcher	Queen Square
H. St. John	E. Hornby
E. McDonald	V. McFarlane
E. Lewis	E. Larter
K. McDonald	2nd Base
F. Cheverie	3rd Base
C. Cheverie	Short Stop
J. O'Hanley	R. Field
J. D. Paquet	C. Field
M. McQuaid	L. Field
Umpires	D. Brown
On the base	W. Brennan

Provincial Baseball League Tonight

At the Abegweit grounds this evening the Summerside will meet the Abegweit on their diamond at 6 o'clock in what is expected to be the biggest battle in the Provincial Baseball League.

Both teams have the Provincial Championship in sight, the Abegweit having the slight margin of one game, should the western boys tonight they will tie up the league and be the favorite in the running for the best game taken place on their home diamond where they have already taken two important hits from the Abbies.

The Abbies are confident of ending the suspense in tonight's game by coming out on the right side of the count, they having a relay of twirlers they can count on to keep the pennant once again in the capital, so that with so much at stake that surely there will be great ball dealt out to the fans.

As the baseball season is fast coming to a close and there will only be a few more games yet to play the fans should take advantage and turn out in large numbers to see the final tilt, as there are going to be interesting without a doubt.

In Memoriam

Lines written on the Death of Edward Roach, Auburn, died June 6th, 1926.

A happy home is filled with grief Where joy once dwelt now sorrow reigns; The lonely children mourn forelorn With grief-bowed heads A loss naught earthly can repair— Their father is dead.

Sons, daughters, now are gathered there, Some summoned fast from distant shores; A family group they form around A cold death-bed Low sobs are heard and tears fall fast— Their father is dead.

A mourning train moves slowly on, A grave new-dug is yawning wide; Cold clouds upon a coffin form, Fall down like lead; A two-fold love lies buried there— Their parents are dead.

Thy loving smile and kindly words No more thy children's care shall soothe; Thy guiding hand shall point no more; The path to tread; 'Tis hard to think so late thou'rt here That thou art dead.

That vacant chair—How oft beguiled By cruel fancy, eyes are turned, Expectant there to see him still, And find instead An empty chair, a grief-torn heart A guardian dead.
