CANADIANS SHATTER FOUR EMPIRE RECORDS

Maple Leaf Squad Rides Crest Of Record-breaking Wave With Brilliant Feats

(C. P. Reuters By Guardian's Special Wire)

SYDNEY, Feb. 10—Jubilant Canadian athletes and officials gathered in Empire Village tonight to recount the brilliant achievements of the Maple Leaf stars earlier in the day. For today Canada rode the crest of a record-breaking wave in track and field at the British Empire Games.

From the midst of championships and toppling records the Canadians emerged with the day's major share, four. From track to field and back again the Canadians surged in a smashing performance almost unique in the eight-year-old history of the games.

Of the six track and field titles at stake, Canada took the broad-jump, hammer throw, 440-yard relay and the women's javelin and cracked all existing marks in doing it. And to top off the day they added a title in the wrestling division and another in the boxing.

Lose Cycle Events

Only in the cycling did Canada fare badly. There her three wheelmen proved no match for Empire opponents.

In addition to championships Canada moved a quartet of track stars into Saturday's final battles. Heading the list was a 27-year-old Halifax school teacher, Aileen Meagher, who claimed a return to form after recent illness by joining in the record toppling.

From the time burly George Sutherland of De Winton, Alta., strode onto the field to toss the hammer 159 feet 9 7-8 inches for a new record and the Empire championship, until Jack Brown, Toronto; Pat Haley, Trail, B. C.; Johnny Loaring, London, Ont., and Larry O'Connor of Toronto swept aside the English and Australian bids in the 440-yard relay, the Canadians pounded along in their victory march.

Canada was stopped dead in the opening event, the 220-yard final where Cyril Holmes of England romped home in a record-snapping 21.2 seconds. And again the Canadians were left out when Hyenne Dingley of Duncan, B. C., knocked over a hurdle in the 80-metres event and fell into the rack, only Canadian entry in the timber topping.

Starts Parade

But a forecast of later achievements came in the one mile run where Art Clarke of Toronto placed in the second heat to qualify for the final.

Jeanette Dolson of Toronto brightened the prospects with second place in the first heat of the women's 220 yard dash behind Australia's Decime Norman who was timed in 24.9 seconds, tenth of a second better than the old time.

Miss Meagher followed in the third heat with another 24.9 time. Violet Montgomery of Winnipeg missed qualifying in the second heat by a few yards and Isobel Bleasdell of Montreal followed the Winnipeg girl out of the running with a fourth place in the last heat.

Miss Dolson dropped into the also rans in the first semi-final as she finished sixth when unable to match the terrific pace Miss Norman set to again crack the record with a speedy 24.5 seconds.

But Miss Meagher came through in her semi-final, making no attempt at further record breaking. At that she was only a tenth of a second slower than the 25 seconds set in 1934.

Sutherland's powerful arm wrote the hammer throw into the books and Bobby Rankine of Preston, Ont., followed with a second place in the six miles after one of the greatest distance runs the games have ever seen.

Fine Showing

The little Canadian ace, handicapped by jostling tactics of Johannes Coleman of South Africa clung to his position and pushed C. H. Matthews of New Zealand to smash the record by 35.1 seconds while Rankine himself was 24 seconds behind the winner and well inside the old mark.

Loaring pounded over the second heat of the 440-yard dash in the comparatively slow time of 49.2 seconds but had no reason to exert himself. Bill Fritz of Toronto placed second in the third heat.

Jack Orr of Vancouver ran out of the qualifying position, finishing third in the first heat.

Loaring and Fritz gave Canada her representation for Saturday when they sprinted off with a smart field including South Africa's Denis Shore who clipped a tenth of a second from the record in winning his first heat in 47.9 seconds. J. Mumford of Australia, H. J. Tyrie of New Zealand and Bill Roberts of England, completed the qualifiers.

Springs Upset

Harold Brown, six-foot University of Toronto student from Meaford, Ont., sprang a surprise in the broad jump when he topped his opposition with 24 feet 4 3-4 inches, another record and championship with Jim Panton of North Battleford, Sask., second at 23 feet 9 1-2 inches. Harold's twin, Wallace, had been considered the Canadian threat but he was eliminated with a preliminary jump of 21 feet nine inches.

Manitoba's femine field star, Robina Higgins of Winnipeg, set a new mark for the javelin when she tossed the spear 125 feet 7 1-2 inches, cracking the Empire record by 20 feet.

Canada's relay squad turned in the final record performance of the day, 41.6, as they outsped the fleetest stars Australia and England had gathered. England was two yards behind the Canadians and Australia another yard back.

Boxing and Wrestling

Terry Evans, Toronto fireman, took the middleweight Empire wrestling title for another four years. Evans defeated Peter Sheasby of South Africa in the final to retain the crown he won at London in 1934.

Tommy Osborne, Montreal, w[illegible] the heavyweight boxing crown [illegible] with a point decision over Claude Sterley, South Africa.

Joe Gagnon of Montreal, plucky little flyweight, lost to Johannes Joubert of South Africa after he had the South African out on his feet. Joubert recovered to win on points.

Harry Hurst of St. Catherines, Ont., lost to Harry Groves of England by decision in the lightweight final.

Canada's cyclists were completely shut out of the picture. Morris Robinson of Vancouver lost to Ray Hicks of England by inches and Izzy Lampard of Toronto was beaten by a length by T. Johnson of Australia in preliminaries of the 1,000-metres.

Yesterday Robinson, Lampard and George Graves of Montreal were defeated in the 1,000-metre time trial and the 10-mile championship.

Brothers Worry Both Can't Be Heavy Champs

(By Jack Prayley)
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, Feb. 10 — The only thing worrying the Canadian boxing brothers, Packy and Danny Paul, is that they both can't be British Empire heavyweight champion.

That rung in their ladder of ambition is far off, but they've both been climbing fast and winning most of their fights the quick way.

Most promising brother act from North America to storm England's boxing rinks since the invasion of Maxie and Buddy Baer, the punching Pauls are going about their job methodically—just as methodically as they milked cows and mowed hay on their parents' stock farm at Richdale, Alta., where they gained their gigantic physique. Both stand six feet two inches and weigh about 190 pounds.

They have been content to get experience by taking on third raters, appearing in preliminaries and volunteering on the side as sparring partners for such as Tommy Farr, Len Harvey, Eddie Phillips and Larry Gains.

Ask them which is the best fighter and they'll answer in unison, "He is," and point to the other.

Ask them their ambition and they'll both say with equal sincerity: "The British heavyweight title."

"But you both can't be champion."

"That's right. It'll be Danny," says Packy.

"No, it'll be Packy," says Danny. If their faith in each other and confidence in themselves is rewarded, some years hence may see an unusual title fight between brothers.

"Sure, we'll fight each other," said Packy. Danny nodded. Both realize they've got a long and difficult road to travel.

A glance in the gym where their optimistic manager, Bud Davies, former Pacific Coast bantam champ supervises their workouts, bears out this remark. "I'm proud of my boys and I think they'll go far," declared Bud.

After a few amateur successes in Calgary, the brothers went to Vancouver. There they met Davies. He piloted them through some successful fights and then decided to present them in England. Bud and his boys arrived in London dead broke last November.

Their records, while brief, reflect potential ability.

Danny's score of matches include 17 wins, nine of which were knockouts, two draws and two losses. Packy has had 16 fights. Of his 13 wins, 11 were knockouts. His record also includes a loss and a draw. The brothers began fighting in 1935 as amateurs.

These figures include their Canadian bouts.

Leafs Blank Maroons In Overtime 3-0

TORONTO, Feb. 10 —(CP)—A rookie from the International-American League, George Parsons fired an early overtime goal tonight and before the extra play was over Toronto Maple Leafs had beaten Montreal Maroons 3-0 to maintain their five-point lead atop the National Hockey League's Canadian section.

For three periods the leaders and tailenders of the same section duelled scorelessly amid spotty hockey. Then two minutes and seven seconds after overtime started, Parsons, brought up from Syracuse Stars to replace the injured Buzz Boll, fired a soft backhander that slipped through Bill Beveridge's pads.

It was a heartbreaking finish to a great performance by the Maroon goalkeeper. He saved the Montrealers time and again during the regular time with thrilling leg saves, and Maroons appeared certain to get at least one point from the game.

A goal down, Maroons forsook all defence in the final minutes of overtime and Pep Kelly skated away from them to score the second goal at 5.38. Little more than a minute later Syl Apps banged home the rebound of Gordon Drillon's close-in shot.

The loss made it all the harder for Maroons to catch Americans, five points ahead in the last play-off spot with only 16 games to play.

Free Goal Gives Canadiens 2-1 Victory Over Hawks; Rangers Blank Wings 4-0

MONTREAL, Feb. 10 —(CP)—A free goal awarded when a stick was thrown provided the margin for Montreal Canadiens' 2-1 victory over Chicago Black Hawks tonight in a National Hockey League game.

The rarely-employed rule was called into play early in the second period when Louis Trudel flung his stick to stop Paul Haynes' shot on the Chicago goal. The officials called a Canadien goal on the play, and it went down as a score for the Habitant centre.

The awarded point, one of only a few of its kind ever given out in the N. H. L., came after George Mantha had given Canadiens the lead in the first period. It was enough to offset the point Paul Thompson scored in the final session at the end of a sustained Chicago attack.

For all but a few minutes of the second and third, Canadiens outplayed the Hawks, third-place team of the American section. About 5,500 fans were on hand, many of them to honor tiny Aurel Joliat, midget Canadien wingman who was playing the 700th game of his 16-year big league campaign.

KERR SCORES SHUTOUT

DETROIT, Feb. 10—(CP) —Detroit Red Wings' attempt to struggle out of the National Hockey League basement received another setback tonight as New York Rangers crushed them 4-0 with Dave Kerr marking up his eighth shutout of the season.

More than 10,000 spectators saw Kerr score his second shutout at the expense of the Red Wings this season. Detroit had scored 14 goals in its last two contests, but Kerr was the master tonight, behind a hard-checking defence.

Rangers turned the game into a rout mid-way of the first period as they pounded two goals past Normie Smith in 30 seconds. Phil Watson scored the first at 9:37, a short poke from left wing on Babe Pratt's pass. Half a minute later Bryan Hextall picked up the rebound of a shot by Watson, and fired the puck into an open net as Smith was out of position.

Lynn Patrick added the third counter at 18:49 of the first period with a sizzling, 30-foot screened drive while Scotty Bowman was serving a penalty.

A freak goal by Joe Cooper midway in the second period ended the scoring. Checked by Young outside the penalty line, Cooper was sliding, flat on his stomach when he swung wildly to strike the puck for a neat angled shot.

Ice Races At New Glasgow

On February 1st a number of energetic young men met at the local store of Mr. H. B. Cutcliffe for the purpose of organizing a racing club. With Mr. Percy Dickenson as chairman the meeting was called to order and the following business ensued.

The officers for the season are Percy Dickenson, president; H. B. Cutcliffe, secty. treasurer; standing committee, Geo. Smith, Townsend McNeil, Frank Gallant, Millar Orr, Garfield LePage, Mervyn Bulman; class committee, Harold Dickenson and Blair Andrew.

It was decided to have the ice in shape for the first race on Saturday, Feb. 5th, which proved a decided success with a large crowd of enthusiastic spectators on hand to cheer the winners.

Three classes were run off. The Class A. had three starters, Hazel Kalmuck, owned by Ray Dickieson and very capably driven by his dad, Percy, proved the winner; Peggy Worthy, owned and driven by her sporty owner Preston Warren, Bay View, and John T. Peters' Lady Bell both looked so good that it might be anybody's race the next time they took up together.

Class B. also had three starters and was won by the nice trotter Baby Set, after losing the first heat to Peter Witt, owned and driven by Arnold Weeks. This was Peter's first start in a race, and after another start or two looks quite fit to meet any of them. Helen Kalmuck also started in this class and showed a lot of speed.

Class C had three starters. Ruby Cope, owned and driven by Roy Mills, Hunter River, proved an easy winner, but Clinton Peter, owned by Jos. O. Gallant, and Bill Cresus, owned by Millar Orr, put up a good scrap.

Following is the summary:

Class A.

Yachting Enthusiasts Are Active

Several local Yachting enthusiasts were already preparing for next season—expected to be an active one here, it was learned yesterday. Since the formation of the Charlottetown Yacht Club work has been progressing rapidly in the boat-building line.

A "Snipe" has already been completed by Mac Irwin and another of similar style is under construction by K. M. Martin, K. C., and J. L. Curran. A 20-footer is being constructed by Art Warren for Lutie MacDonald and it was understood a number of others were contemplating building craft.

Berwick Secures Playoff Berth

BERWICK, N. S., Feb. 10—(CP)—Berwick Bruins, last year's Nova Scotia Hockey Champions, gained third place and a berth in the Eastern League Playoffs tonight when Dartmouth failed to appear for a scheduled game. Referee Fred Kelly awarded Bruins the contest 1-0.

Injuries Not Serious Report

MONTREAL, Feb. 7 —(CP)—Lone bright spot among Montreal Canadiens' heavy injury toll developed tonight in the news that Toe Blake, high-scoring winger of the National Hockey League team, suffered no broken bones in a bad spill at Detroit last night.

A preliminary examination indicated Blake had had two ribs broken, but Manager Cecil Hart said tonight x-rays showed only severe cartilege bruises at the base of the ribs.

The left winger will be out of action for a few games.

VANCOUVER — (CP) — Tubby, sailor kitten on a ship in the bay here, slipped overboard among small ice floes. Seagulls set up such a commotion a sailor noticed the kitten and pulled it out.

Basketball Doubleheader At 'Y' Tonight

Two teams, Grads and Y-Knots, face important games in the Y. M. C. A. basketball house league double bill scheduled tonight. The teams are tied for leadership with 12 points apiece.

In the first game the Y-Knots will meet the lowly Prince of Wales College squad who although at the bottom of the league standing have on occasion flashed brilliant form to pull major upsets in the league. Two weeks ago they defeated the Esquires and last week forced the powerful Grad outfit to the limit before losing out. The Collegians have been showing market improvement of late and may yet have a few surprises in store for their rivals.

The second game of the night brings together the high riding Grads who need no introduction to basketball follows, and the luckless Esquires who have infrequently been beaten only in the dying moments of play. The Grads need a win in order to keep paces with the Y-Knots, while a victory for the Esquires will still give them a chance to land in first place.

The card is an interesting one and should draw a large crowd of spectators.

Alberton Regals Take Lead In MacLean League

The Alberton Regals moved into league leadership at Summerside Wednesday night with a 7-4 win over the Summerside Olympias. After being out-played, though not out-scored in the first two periods the Regals threw on a burst of speed in the final frame that completely bewildered the Summersiders. The westerners banged in four goals to the Olympias one in the third canto to break a three all score at the end of the second. The game was very clean with only two minor penalties handed out by referees Lefurgey and Gauthier.

Both teams played cautious hockey as the first period got under way. It wasn't until 7.41 when Jerry Malley raced round the Olympias' defence to fire a shot that was wide of the net but Millman was on the rebound to bang it into the net. Summerside tied it up less than two minutes later when Deighan was knocked over by the Regals defence but managed to golf the puck to Hogan who sagged the twines with a close in drive.

The Olympians defence was working with deadly accuracy to check the Alberton forwards dizzy. The Olympias went out front at 16.28 with Hogan taking Deighn's goal mouth pass to give Hardy no chance. Hunter took a penalty for charging and was still there when the bell ended the period.

With Olympias still a man short the Regals put on the power and 47 seconds after the face off in the third frame Millman grabbed hard working Jerry Malley's pass to beat Boates on a long drive and make it two all. The Summersiders held an edge on the play but Hardy was sensational as he kicked the puck out from all angles. At 9.15 Rankin who was playing a rugged game broke through for the second time in quick succession only to be robbed by the Regal goalie but Hogg raced in to poke the loose puck into the twines. The Regals again tied it up at 15:58 when Malley passed out to Matthews whose long shot deflected off a player into the net to end the period 3-3.

After four minutes of the third canto Deighn took Hogan's pass close in to beat Hardy. Fifteen seconds later Matthews robbed a Summerside player behind his net to come out and poke the disc into the twines. Alberton then opened a fast skating attack that had the Olympias tied up behind their blue line for much of the period. Richard, making his first appearance with the westerners in the third period of the game, was a real find as he raced in to lay the passes for the next two goals as the Regals went on a scoring spree. Millman sank the first at 9:47 to be followed twenty seconds later by Matthews who whacked in his third score of the evening. Mallet ended the goal-getting when he whistled in McQuaid's pass out at 17:22 to make it 7-4 for the Regals.

Abbies After Victory In Game Tonight

There's no thing at stake!

Well, maybe, but at the Forum tonight the Abegwelts, who have lost the second section of the Island League to the Crystals in four straight games will be striving desperately to end their longest losing streak of the season.

It is a well known fact the redshirts are a bit worried. They need a return to winning form to prime them for the playoffs and regain some confidence which will aid them in the drive down the stretch for the Island championship. The Crystals on the other hand are at the peak of their form. The Summerside aggregation has impressed, not only their home fans, but local hockey enthusiasts here in the manner in which they raced through the second section.

The Crystals, paced by veteran players, spurred by their showing of late will be out to lengthen their victory string and coast into the playoffs with ever gaining momentum to garner Island hockey honors.

Fans will be assured of a fast open game with plenty of thrills in tonight's tilt.
