Grape-Nuts for Delicious Nourishment

Arthur Boucher, the well-known London actor, while getting ready to assume the part of Henry VIII, was fully grown he went to his club and was challenged by the doorman, who did not recognize him. "What name, sir, please?" he inquired. "Henry the Eighth," replied Mr. Boucher without the flicker of an eyelid. The doorman consulted the list, ran his eye down the H's and closed the book with a bang. "No longer a member, sir," he replied.—Boston Transcript.

Gladys Bell Owen, Canadian singer and leading soprano in the New York production of "The Miracle" at the Century theatre for two seasons, has come to Canada to live. She is a native of Summerside, Prince Edward Island, but resided in New York until recently, when she came to Toronto and is continuing vocal studies with Signor Ferrari-Fontana. Radio audiences this week had an opportunity of hearing this talented soprano, her CFCA Toronto program including the aria of "The Miracle," sung for the first time in public in Canada by personal permission of Morris Gest, the New York impresario, who produced the vast pantomimic and semi-operatic spectacle in America. The picture on the LEFT is Mrs. Owen dressed for her part in "The Miracle," and on the RIGHT as in everyday life.—Photographs by Charles Aylett. (The above singer is a daughter of Mr and Mrs G. W. Bell of Summerside and a niece of Mrs. Kleily, proprietor of RussHotel, City.)

Vast Agricultural Production in England DON JUAN

A new era has dawned on "Merry England." (HISTORICUS) Writing to the London Daily Mail recently Mr. Harold Cox unfolded what he termed the "Golden Acres" of England, and stated that the produce of England's soil amounted last year to 225,000,000 pounds. This is a vast yield from the soil and is destined with enlarged areas to largely supply the Home Market & the Mother Country. Here a few notes and comments which will open the eyes of many in Canada, who do not realize the volume of the agricultural production of the old country.— "The greatness of British agriculture and the industry's arduous range of efforts are emphasized in the figures contained in the report on the agricultural census of England and Wales, based on the output of 1925 (Stationery Office, 3s. 6d. net). "The report states that the capital value of the country's agricultural holdings and rough grazings is $15,000,000 pounds and the total amount of tenants' capital required (live and dead stock, tenant right valuation, and other matters) about 365,000,000 pounds. "The average of ploughland was 10,682,000 acres, the smallest area ever recorded, a reduction of 750,000 acres, compared with the previous census year, 1908. "The consequent decline in the principal farm crops is set off by the great increase in dairy farming. The following are the comparative census figures of milk production:— 1908 ..... 975,000,000 gallons 1925 ..... 1,120,000,000 gallons. "The town of Kensington was saddened Thursday noon April 7th when it became known that Mr. Joseph J. Burns had died. The late Mr. Burns who had been in failing health for some time three weeks ago contracted pneumonia, and although he had the best of care and nursing his weakened condition could not withstand the insidious advance of the disease and he finally succumbed. He was born near West Devon in 1865 and spent the early years of his life in Darley. At the age of eighteen years he entered the employ of Thos. Larke, Kensington, and learned the trade of shoe-making. After some years spent in the United States he located in Oxford, N. S., and there married Miss Gladys Thompson of that place. In 1895 he returned to Darley and started his business of shoe-making, removing to Kensington in 1908. In his business he made a host of friends by his untiring zeal and obliging nature. He leaves to mourn their loss his widow, two sons John at home and Oliver in Perth, Sask., and a niece and nephew, Rose and Urban Hickey, children of his daughter Irene, who predeceased him. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon and the remains interred in the R. C. Cemetery at Indian River. The pallbearers were: Messrs Harry Webster, John Hickey, A. Hiltz, Elias Clow, Michael Mount and Hugh Morrison. Among the floral offerings were: a pillow from the family, Crocus from Mr and Mrs. Albert Walker-Monoton and a spiritual bouquet from the Sacred Heart Society of which he was a devoted member. DOROTHY GERTRUDE SPENCER The passing away of Dorothy, dearly beloved child of Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer, age 18 months, Mt. Edward Road, has cast a gloom over the whole community, not only in Charlottetown and vicinity, but in parts of Nova Scotia and U. S. A., etc. Dorothy had always been in good health up to a short time before death claimed her, people passing by the home were almost sure to see her at the window with a smile and wave of the hand and a kiss for them all, young and old alike. The Sabbath on which Dorothy died she beckoned to her father and mother to come to the bedside where she lay, she barely raised her head from the pillow and kissed them both good-bye on her own account. Much sympathy is felt for the heart-broken parents and near relatives in their time of sorrow.

Showing at the Prince Edward for four days commencing Wednesday.

Life Of Clayton Tyler Saved By "Nerviline" Remarkable Statement Made By Well-Known Man Codrington, April 15.—"I will praise Nerviline," states Mr. Tyler. "I think it saved my life. I would recommend Nerviline to all who suffer with Rheumatism. I had Rheumatism for two or three years, and it drove it away. I was in bed for two months. Other preparations did me no good. A friend advised Nerviline. In three days I was out of bed. It gives me pleasure to say how satisfactory Nerviline has been."—Clayton Tyler.

Outstanding Ministers Seek the Truth and Reach Conviction

Reverend R. G. Fulton, formerly the beloved pastor of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, in a statement made in Centenary Church, St. John, N. B., on April 10th said:

"The result of my study has led me to the conviction that it is useless to enact a law which will not be supported by the moral sentiment of the people. It is out of the question to legislate people into righteousness. My study has further led me to conclude that under the existing conditions the only course to pursue is to create legal methods for the purchase of liquor, accompanied by severe penalties in every case."

Reverend Canon Coady, of St. Paul's Church, Toronto, the outstanding Canadian preacher, who was chosen from all the world to preach the League of Nations' sermon at Geneva says:

"The great achievements of the control plan, in my estimation, consist of the following: In the first place, people were no longer thinking and talking incessantly about getting a drink; in the second place, there was a overwhelming public opinion behind the enforcement of the Act where in the past public opinion had been strongly divided and illegal traffic had flourished because resorted to by a considerable section of the public; in the third place, bootlegging on a large scale was enormously diminished."

Reverend J. E. Burke, C. S. P., of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Toronto, has this to say:

"The O. T. A. (Prohibition) has been no blessing. During the years it has been on our statute books the youth of Ontario, with singular and beautiful exceptions, has gone back. The terrifying increase in liquor amongst our boys and girls, even of tender years; the consequent deterioration of moral standards and conduct; the curse of the bootlegger; the conquest by strong liquor of our parents, our homes, our clubs, our students, our gatherings, have been begotten and thrived under the sway of prohibition."

Most Rev. David Williams, Archbishop of Huron and Metropolitan of the Church of England in Canada is emphatic and says:

"It (Prohibition) has done more to encourage deceit and subterfuge, more to demoralize the youth of the country and to create a general disrespect for law than all the other causes combined during the ten years of its existence. Government Control, with individual permits, is the only sane system."

Reverend Thomas W. Goodwill, is a son of the late Rev. John Goodwill of Charlottetown. He is now pastor of the Presbyterian congregation at Coburg, Ontario. During the election campaign in Ontario he said:

"I believe the O. T. A. (Prohibition) to be a failure but in this election campaign I regard the Act not as a political issue but a moral issue; not a question of lack of enforcement but rather of impossibility of enforcement. I find conditions under the Ontario Temperance Act to be much worse than they were before. I believe that Premier Ferguson is making a sincere and studied effort to secure a law that will be observed and one that can be enforced."

Reverend C. J. Killen of Belleville, Ontario, looks at it (this way) and says:

"I view with a great deal of concern the increase in lawlessness and crime that prohibition has engendered. It leads to a spirit of distrust. It is no use saying to the people, 'You cannot have liquor.' Those who want it will get it."
