A lady desired plain sewing by the day in her home. By using the Guardian's classified columns she soon got more orders than she could handle and thus was enabled to select the best customers, and is naturally very happy.

E. A. Munro, the next Rhodes scholar from Dalhousie College, is a son of Rev. J. R. Munro, Tabor, Alberta. J. R. Munro's father was a son of one of the pioneers of the Presbyterian Church in P. E. I. Rev. Alex. Munroe, Valleyfield, Ontario, is a daughter of Rev. H. B. McKay, of Halifax, and for many years minister of Salem Church, River John.

In their first game of baseball this season the Tanners defeated the Mic Macs by a score of 10-3 last evening. The game was of seven innings duration and some very good plays were made. The Tanners led in runs all through the game shutting the Mic Macs out after the third inning. These teams may play another game which will undoubtedly be closer as both teams will have more practice.

It will be learned with pleasure that Adjutant W. H. Squarebriggs will conduct next Sunday's services at the Salvation Army. The adjutant is a son of a respected citizen H. Squarebriggs, and, with his partner and family is recuperating for a month at his Island home. He is one of the most forceful officers in the Salvation Army, his last appointment being Providence, Rhode Island.

Owing to the big Saturday paper part of which has to be printed on Friday advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in not later than ten o'clock, on both of above days—for the Morning Daily and Rural Daily, as Guardian employees have a half holiday on Saturday. The news and editorial departments also close from 1 p. m. to 6.30 p. m. The business offices are open as on other days.

At Kindergarten Hall last night a very appreciative audience was charmed with Mrs. Southwick's dramatic recital. R. M. Johnson presided. A program selected with rare taste provided a feast of literary delights which this accomplished lady rendered superbly. The occasions have been few when so much pleasure has been derived from a similar entertainment the success of which stamped Mrs. Southwick as one of the most gifted of her profession. By special request Tennyson's thrilling bugle song was added to an already generous program which included the following:—The Fern, Havergal; Ode to a skylark, Shelley; Life and Song, Lanier; My Ships, Ella Wheeler Wilcox; Potions Scene from Romeo and Juliet, Shakespeare; The Bobolink; Un Beau Ideal, Bunner; Mammy's Lil Boy, (by request) Edwards; Aux Italiens, Meredith; Arena Scene from "Quo Vadis," Sienkiewicz.

SELLING AGENTS ST. JOHN, N. B.

One of Charlottetown's leading grocers says that it is remarkable how much Famous Soap is being asked for these days. The soap is giving great satisfaction to those using it and he says that he honestly believes that it is the best bar of wrapped laundry soap on the market today selling at five cents. Famous Soap is made in Prince Edward Island and its manufacture is growing into quite a big industry. It's an industry which is going to be made a real local success—something out of the ordinary for manufacturing in this Province.
