Active pallbearers were: Cyrus Morris, Rankine Williams, Elmer Whitton, Harry MacKinnon, John F. Taylor, and Arthur Brennan.

INVESTIGATING BREAKS — Royal Canadian Mounted Police are investigating a series of breaks into cottages on beaches surrounding the City. Articles removed are, in many cases, of sentimental value only, but the destructive nature of the thieves visits borders on vandalism. Owners of cottages which have been broken into during the past few weeks include Lieut.-Col. Reid, Messrs H. A. Messervey, A.E. Leigh, George VanBuskirk and W. E. Owen.

In place of the minister, who was absent in New Glasgow conducting anniversary services at St. Andrew's Church, the pulpit of St James was occupied, and the service conducted by Rev. Dr. George S Mitchell, Pictou, formerly of Summerside. Nothwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, there were good attendances, and after the services, many old friends took advantage of the opportunity to interview him.

Two able, timely sermons were delivered, and the music included in the morning, a special solo by Mrs. G W. Hammonds, Boston, "Come Unto He" (Handel).

HONOR ACKNOWLEDGED — Mr. Frank Jay, Mount Stewart, has received the following declaration from the Minister of National Defence and for Naval Services, Ottawa:—"I am pleased to inform you that His Majesty the King has graciously approved the award of a mention in despatches to your son Petty Officer Clarence Franklin Wallace Jay, R.C.N.R. for services in H. M. C. S. "Hespeler" in anti-submarine operations 9th to 11th September 1944. The official publication date of this award is 9th October, 1945. The chief of the naval staff, the members of the Naval Board and I highly appreciate the contribution which your son has made toward the war effort of the Royal Canadian Navy, the high tradition of which he has helped to maintain."

MacFADYEN - DINGWELL — A wedding of much interest took place at the United Church, Charlottetown, on August 15th at 8 o'clock when Pearle Idelle Dingwell of Charlottetown became the bride of Neil Charles MacFadyen of Charlottetown, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Murdock MacKinnon, uncle of the groom. The bride chose for her wedding, a street length dress of powder blue with accessories to match, her only ornament being a corsage of sweetheart roses. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Harrison Frizzell, cousin of the bride, wore a street length dress of beige and brown crepe, with accessories to match, her corsage being of yellow roses. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Harrison Frizzell. After the signing of the register and kissing the bride, the bridal party left the church midst a shower of rice and confetti. They then motored to the country where a sociable evening was spent. Their many friends join in wishing them a happy married life.—(Patriot please copy).

—RECEIVES WORD — Mrs. Charles Ramsay, Summerside has received word of the death of her uncle, Mr. Henry Wallace of Shediac, N.B., at the age of 91 years. The late Mr. Wallace was a native of Cascumpec, P.E.I., and moved to Shediac fifty years ago with his wife and three children. His wife was the former Phoebe Bernard of Hunter River and she died a few years ago at the age of 99 years. He is survived by one brother, George Wallace of Elmsdale, P.E.I., who is 93 years of age, also his three children. Funeral service was conducted by his nephew, Rev. Mr. Lockhart of Little Shemogue, N.B., with the largest attendance seen in that district for many years. There also were very many floral tributes.—S

AT ROTARY — Sir Frederick Puckle, adviser to the British Embassy at Washington on questions relating to India, addressed the Rotary Club at The Charlottetown yesterday. His subject was the problems whch confront the British Government in its efforts to give India the status of a self-governing Dominion. Lt.-Col. K.S. Rogers, president of the local club presided. Guests were Messrs Douglas Lusty, Halifax, N.S.; Charles Spiers, Saint John, N.B.; Stuart Dickson, W.E. Cotton, W.R. Cruikshank, W.J. Duchemin and M.C. Marshall, all of Charlottetown.

The members of Cornwall Mission Band met at the home of Mrs. Colin Murray on Saturday afternoon, October 13. The meeting opened with the business period conducted by Mrs. Elmer Frizzell in the absence of the president. "When He Cometh" was sung. Scripture reading by Audrey Frizzell. Minutes of last meeting and roll call by Howard Murray. Prayer was offered in unison. Readings were given by Janet Skinner and Laura Hyde. "Jesus Loves Me" was then sung. The Thanksgiving offering was received. A pleasant event of the afternoon was that Miss Evelyn Godfrey gave $5 to become a life member of the Band. Music and games were enjoyed by all, and supper was served by the hostess.

CIVIC DELEGATION—Mayor J. E. Blanchard and City Clerk J. A. Fullerton have left for Ottawa to interview the Dominion authorities on several matters including post-war reconstruction work for Charlottetown and the present serious scarcity of coal. They will be met in Montreal by Coun. W.R. LePage who is the third member of the delegation. Arrangements for the delegation to meet Dominion officials on Oct. 17 were made by Messrs. W. Chester S. McLure and J. L. Douglas, Queen's County Federal representatives. Coun. J. T. McKee is acting-Mayor during the Mayor's absence. Miss Mary McQuaid is acting-City Clerk.

WEDDING BELLS — A military wedding of interest to many friends on Prince Edward Island recently took place at Taplow, Herts, England, when Major William Boyle Sawdon, son of Rev. F. W. and Mrs. Sawdon, of Port Greville, N. S., was married to Lieut. N/S. Audrey Irene Cook, of Gravenhurst, Ont. The ceremony took place in the Parish Church, the service being in charge of the Rt. Rev. R.M. May, D.D., Bishop of Buckingham, with the United Church chaplain of the Canadian Hospital performing the marriage ceremony. The bride is a graduate of Ottawa Civic Hospital and the groom, who is a grandson of the late William Boyle of Cornwall, P.E.I., is at present Adjutant of the Canadian Leave Centre at Amsterdam.

Miss Phyllis MacEachern of Long Creek left by plane on Thursday to visit friends in Stellarton and New Glas.

NEWFOUNDLAND SHIPMENTS—The SS. "Cabot", Dominion Government subsidized steamer which carries cargo between P.E.I. and Newfoundland, is expected to arrive in Charlottetown tomorrow. In the meantime, several telegrams continue to reach W.R. Agnew, trade agent to Newfoundland, daily, asking that various farm products be shipped to the old colony "on the next boat". One order reaching Mr. Agnew is for 14 car loads of potatoes; another is for 1000 cases of canned meat. Though 6000 cases of canned meats have been shipped to Newfoundland during the present season. Mr. Agnew states there is a pronounced scarcity of this product at present. Later, he hopes there will be more available for shipment.

—SUPREME COURT — In the Supreme Court at Summerside yesterday, Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell delivered judgment in the appeal case of the King (appellant) vs. Mrs. Mary Savidant (respondent). The appeal was dismissed with costs. The case which had taken up considerable time hearing arguments from counsel on points of law was an appeal from a dismissal of the Stipendiary Magistrate of a charge under the Excise Act. Mr. J.S. DesRoches, K C. represented the appellant and Mr. W. Henry Noonan represented the

On Thursday evening, September 20th the members and adherents of Hartsville Presbyterian Church assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Watts. Hampshire, to do honor to Mrs. Watts who had been organist in Hartsville Church for a number of years.

Mr. Neil Nicholson capably acted as chairman, and after a few remarks called upon the Student Minister Mr. Donald Nicholson to read the address. Mr. John A. MacInnis made the presentation of a chest of Silver.

Mrs. Watts in her usual jovial manner thanked all for their kind remembrance. For they are jolly good fellows was sung.

The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse and Mr. Donald Nicholson favoured the gathering with Hymn selections.

Lunch was served by the ladies A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Watts for the use of their home for this occasion. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing: "God be with you till we meet again."

TRINITY MISSION CIRCLE—Trinity Mission Circle held its October meeting in the East Parlor last evening. The meeting opened with a Thanksgiving Worship Service led by Rhoda Brown. Irma Mallett gave the address "Tares Among the Wheat." This was followed by a study period led by Edith Anderson who read a letter written by Mrs. J. R. Harris and addressed to all Mission Circle members outlining the Mission Circle Study Book for 1945-46, "Daughter of Africa". Ruth Cudmore gave a brief review of the contents of the book. The business period was conducted by the vice-president Anna Bennett and plans were made for a pantry sale to be held on Saturday, Oct. 20th. Doris Sellar gave a very interesting report on the W.M.S. Rally held at Cornwall in June. The remainder of the evening was spent in working on the afghan which is the Circle's project for the year.

ENMAN-McKENZIE — A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, on Friday, Sept. 28th, when Katherine Florence McKenzie of Lyndale was united in marriage to Clifford H. Enman of Vernon River. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. E. McLennan. The bride was attended by her cousin, Ruth McKenna, of Victoria Cross, the groom by his cousin, Harold Enman of Vernon River. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to Millview to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Milton Smith, where a sumptuous wedding supper was prepared by the hostess, Mrs. Smith. About 50 invited guests sat down to supper, after which an enjoyable hour or two was spent in music and dancing, the usual serenaders being also in evidence. After a very pleasant evening the guests departed wishing the young couple the best of wishes. They were the recipients of many and varied presents, including substantial sums of money. The bride, previous to her marriage was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home in Lyndale by her friends in that vicinity. On Saturday they left by plane on an extended tour of the Maritimes, after which they will reside at Vernon River where the groom is a progressive young farmer.

Lieutenant-Governor J. A. Bernard and Mrs. Bernard have as their guests at Government House Mr. and Mrs. Eric C. Loth, parents of Capt. Eric C. Loth, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard. They arrived by Maritime Central Airways last week to spend a holiday here.

Mr. Loth worked for nine months on research in connection with the atomic bomb. At the completion of their part of the work they were told that some day they would "see in the papers something of which they would be proud." Like nearly all other workers on the bomb they had no idea that the result of their labor would rock Japan right out of the war.

Born in New York, Mr. Loth now resides in Elizabeth, N.J., though connected with Foster Wheeler Corporation, New York, as engineer in the manufacture of oil refining equipment. He has supervised installation of several Canadian oil plants, including the big Shell Oil Company alkylation plant for the manufacture of aviation gasoline in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Loth have one child, Capt. Eric Loth of the U. S. Army Medical Corps, who is presently serving in Germany in charge of the 51st U. S. Field Hospital in Cobourg. Capt. Loth had been with his unit through five important battles prior to V-E Day. In peacetime he practises in Boston where he met his wife at Forest Hills General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Loth will remain in the Province a few days longer before returning by air to their home. Mrs. Loth was born in London, England, but moved to the United States as a child, and met Mr. Loth in Newark, N.J.

—VISITOR RETURNING — Mrs. Annie Bath, who has been visiting with her only brother, Reuben Dickieson of Kensington for a few weeks, left for Vancouver, B. C., where she will visit her nieces (daughters of the late James and Jemima Orr). From there she will return to her home in Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Bath, who is in her eighty-third year, is hale and hearty, able to travel with the alertness of any person years younger and can tell tales of ye olden days.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — Funeral of the late Mrs. Percy G. Acorn was held from her residence Orlebar Street yesterday afternoon. Services at the home and grave were conducted by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. Interment in People's Cemetery. The pallbearers were Morley Smith, Robert Compton, Joseph Curley, Arthur Walsh, Athol Burns, Austin Graham.

PICKS SPUDS AT NINETY—It was with much pleasure and interest that the friends of Mr. Marcus Ferguson, Hampton, learned that he had celebrated his ninetieth birthday last week. This young-old man is as active as many men who are his juniors, and takes a keen interest in all that takes place in the community. He is a daily visitor among the near neighbours for a chat. Mr. Ferguson helps his two sons, with whom he resides, with the farm chores. This past week he was daily in the potato field helping his litite grandson keep his row up with the rest of the pickers.

INSTALLING OIL TANK —The large gasoline operated shovel which has been excavating on the south side of the Court House for the reception of a 10,000 gallon oil tank has completed its work. The Court House was formerly supplied from the tank at the Provincial Building, but this had been found to be unsatisfactory. While operating yesterday, the shovel came in contact with the lead service line of the waterworks system to the building, causing a "geyser" to spurt heavenward until shut off by employees of the Water Department.

—BIRTHS—The following births are from the Western Hospital, Alberton: Sept. 23, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur, Alberton, a daughter; Sept. 27, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Leard, Brooklyn, a son (stillborn); October 1, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barbour, Alma, a son, Thomas Wayne; October 3, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Leard, Alberton, a daughter; October 9, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Ellsworth, Ebbsfleet, a daughter; October 13, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Clement O'Connor, O'Leary, a son; October 13, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ready, Tignish, a son.

CONTACT CLUB FORMED. — A most pleasant and successful meeting of overseas navy, army and air force wives, took place in the Sun Porch at the Canadian Legion on Grafton Street, Monday night. After some discussion the name of "Contact Club" was decided upon as it is hoped numbers will join from England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and Newfoundland. The aim being to keep contact with all wives who come to the Dominion to make their home and to give each other a helping hand. It is hoped that all overseas wives who live out of town will get in touch with the President, Joan Graham, c/o the Legion, either by letter or personal contact. Future meetings will be held at the Legion on every other Thursday evening, commencing Thursday, 25th October. Joan Graham and Bunny Rogers were re-elected President, and Vice-President respectively and Nan Kirby was elected Secretary and Treasurer.

WAR TIME OFFICIAL HERE.—Mr. A. T. Wynne Plumtre, Secretary of the Wartime Prices Board, Ottawa, was in the city yesterday visiting business men, accompanied by Mr. Nicholson, in connection with the work of the Board. It was the intention of his chief, Mr. Donald Gordon, to make the tour, but pressure of business following his holiday in the West, prevented him. Mr. Plumtre said it was the Board's policy to reduce staffs as speedily as possible, and this was being accomplished by letting out officials, or transferring them to other essential jobs. So far as Charlottetown was concerned the staff had been reduced from four to one. Prior to assuming his present position, Mr. Plumptre was Financial Attache to the Canadian Embassy at Washington.

HOSPITAL LADIES AID — The Ladies Aid Society of the Prince Edward Island Hospital held their monthly meeting at the Cundall Home on Monday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Mrs. DeBlois, Mrs. R. R. Hurst, a past president presided. There were seventeen members present. A letter from Mr. Spencer stated that in all probability the Society would be able to secure a sponsored picture after the first of the year. Mrs. Stuart Jones reported that 500 calendar cards had been ordered and arrangements were made whereby these would be given to the vice-presidents of the different churches for distribution. Mrs. W. P. Bruce, housekeeper at the Hospital sent in a complete list of the linens in the store room. After the meeting adjourned, tea was served by Mrs. H. L. Sear and Mrs. G. M. Avard.

NEW U. S. REGULATION—The President of the United States has signed an Act which will interest many United States citizens living in Canada. Under the Nationality Act of 1940, as amended, naturalized United States citizens, with certain exceptions, would lose their nationality by residing continuously for three years in the territory of a foreign state of which they were formerly nationals or in which the place of their birth is situated, or five years in any other foreign state. However, the law also provided that loss of citizenship by such residence could not occur until October 14, 1945, regardless of the length of residence abroad. Under the Act just signed, the date has been extended and such citizens may remain outside the United States until October 14, 1946. This applies to all citizens of the United States who acquired American citizenship after birth whether by marriage, naturalization of a parent, or naturalization in their own right. It has no application to those persons who are American citizens from birth.

BIG TRANSPORT PLANE PURCHASED — When alterations and installations have been completed, a 28-passenger Dakota transport plane, purchased at Washington last week from the Surplus Property Board by T.G. Smith, chief engineer for Maritimes Airways, Ltd., is expected to be the finest ship of its kind in the Maritimes. Similar in type to several planes used by the Northeast Air Lines between Moncton, Montreal, and Boston, the big freight and passenger carrier is expected to be ready for operations this coming winter. With a wing span of 95 feet and a cruising speed of 170 miles per hour, obtained from two Pratt and Whitney twin row Wasp engines of 1050 h.p each, the aircraft will carry a crew of three including the stewardess. Maritime Airway officials said last night that while the big ship had been used by the American Air Force, she had been in their words, "used but not abused". Mr. Smith, they said, was allowed to make his selection from scores of planes and they consider he made no mistake in selecting the big Dakota which is now resting on the apron of the Maritime Airways' landing field a short distance outside of Charlottetown.

Services at the home were conducted by Rev. T. E. McLennan and Rev. T. W. Goodwill. Interment was in Mount Buchanan Cemetery, Mr. Goodwill officiating at the grave. The pall-bearers were, Cyrus Pickard, Fred Beers, James Long, Frank Simmons, Hector Darrach and Fulford Darrach.

SOURIS HOSPITAL LADIES' AID — The October meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Souris Hospital, was held in the United Church Hall recently with a good attendance. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and the treasurer's report given. All outstanding bills were ordered paid. The Auxiliary wishes to acknowledge the receipt of a gift of thirteen pillows from Mrs. Jos. B. McMillan of St. Peters and one from the Women's Institute of Kingsboro. The minutes of the annual meeting of the Maritime Hospital Aids, held in Charlottetown in June were read. It was reported that a large number of dishes used at the supper at the opening of the Hospital in August were still at Matthew & McLean's store and owners are requested to call for them. The meeting then adjourned.

Harry Rayner, 24 an employee in Duvar's garage, Prince Street was badly burned about both legs yesterday evening while testing a gasoline tank. Gasoline, spilled on the floor, was ignited by Mr. Rayner's blow torch and it was while fighting the flames he received his injuries. The City Fire Department, which arrived at the garage within a few minutes, quickly extinguished the flames. Mr. Rayner was taken to the P.E. Island Hospital where he was resting comfortably last night.

SHOWER ENJOYED—On Monday, October 1st, the people of Glen William and surrounding districts gathered in the Glen William hall to tender a miscellaneous shower to Miss Annie MacLeod, a popular school teacher. The bride-to-be was escorted to her seat of honor. The gifts were opened by Mrs. Jack Murchison and Mrs. Colin MacInnis. The humorous verses which caused much merriment were read by Mrs. Angus Matheson. All the various cards contained good wishes for a happy future. The presents were neatly arranged on the table by Helen Leeco and Effie MacInnis, and consisted of linen, silverware, blankets, and several envelopes of money. Miss MacLeod thanked the donors for their lovely gifts and invited them all to visit her. She was then bounced in good old-fashioned style. Lunch was served by the ladies and the evening pleasantly spent in dancing and social intercourse.

Two resolutions, one rescinding a motion passed Oct. 6 against issuing the new six-months' liquor "scripts", and the other calling for abolition of the Prohibition Act and the substitution of a Government Control law, were unanimously passed yesterday afternoon at a special meeting of the Prince Edward Island Medical Association.

The meeting was held at The Charlottetown and presided over by Dr. T. L. Farmer, Mount Stewart, president of the Association. Medical men from all sections of the Province were present.

The first resolution, introduced by Dr J. C. Simpson, Summerside, and seconded by Dr. I. J. Yeo, Charlottetown, expressed faith in the sincerity of the Provincial Government's efforts to "better" the Prohibition Act, and left it to the "conscience and practise" of each individual doctor to comply with the new amendment or refuse as he saw fit.

The second resolution, moved by Dr. J. C. Houston and seconded by Dr. J. D. McGuigan, was to the effect that the Medical Association petition the Provincial Government to bring in a form of liquor control so as to relieve the doctors of Prince Edward Island of the necessity of issuing "scripts."

GYROS ENTERTAIN — On Monday evening the Summerside Y's Men and their wives were guests of the Charlottetown Gyros and Gyrettes at a dinner meeting held at the Charlottetown Hotel. Mr. H. W. Pietch, president of the Gyro Club occupied the chair and in welcoming the members of the Summerside Club expressed the appreciation of the Gyro Club for the excellent work done by the western Y's Men in promoting the sale of TB seals in Summerside, which work has been carried on by the Gyros in Charlottetown for many years. Dr. P. A. Creelman gave a very interesting talk on a subject of mutual interest, the finding and care of tuberculosis cases. Mr. Horace McFarlane, president of the Summerside club, ably expressed the thanks of his organization for the opportunity of meeting the Charlottetown boys and indicated the intention of the Summerside Y's Men to continue their efforts to promote the sale of TB seals. Rev. Charles Carnegy of the Summerside club also endorsed the remarks of his president and expressed his personal interest in the work being done by the two clubs Very enjoyable entertainment was furnished by Duke Neilsen, Charlie Chamberlain, Don Messer and his orchestra.

WALLIS - WOODSIDE WEDDING — A charming wedding of widespread interest was solemnized in St. John's Church, Isleworth, Middlesex, England on Saturday July 1, 1945., when Doris Irene, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hedley E Woodside of Bradalbane, P.E.I. was united in marriage to FO. Thomas Wallis, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wallis of Isleworth. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father-in-law, deputising for her father. She was dressed in a floor-length gown of ivory satin, with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, and long pointed sleeves. Her finger tip veil was daintily caught and held in place with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of red roses and white heather. Mrs. Neale (sister of the bridegroom) acted as matron of honour, wearing a gown of dusty pink moss crepe with Juliet cap and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The duties of best man were ably discharged by Mr. E Wallis (brother of the bridegroom). Thirty guests attended the reception, held at Hounslow Town school hall, where the toasts were drunk and the two-tier cake the bride had brought from Canada was cut. The happy couple were the recipients of numerous telegrams and presents. Among the gifts was a substantial cheque from the bride's parents and from the groom's parents a silver service set. Before leaving Canada, the bride was also tendered two miscellaneous showers, one at her home in Bradalbane and one at Summerside where she received gifts of money, silver, cutlery and linen. Following the reception the bride and groom left on a short honeymoon. For travelling the bride wore an aqua blue suit and coat with matching black accessories, and a silver fox cape, a gift of the bride's parents. FO. and Mrs Wallis have taken up residence at 36 Westfield Gardens, Kenton, Harrow, Middlesex, England, where the groom is now stationed.

Mrs. M.E Warren and little daughter Lynne Ann left this morning for Halifax after spending the past 10 days visiting friends in North River and Charlottetown. She was accompanied back by her father, Mr. D. MacAusland, Esher St.
