H. M. S. "Capetown" at Charlottetown, 30th July, 1923.

My dear Mr. Heartz,

Before sailing I wish to thank you and all your friends in Charlottetown for their great kindness and hospitality to the officers and ship's company of H. M. S. "Capetown."

We are leaving you and the ladies and gentlemen who assisted you, with a real sense of friendship and affection. I therefore hope that you will accept this letter as something more than a formal farewell and will tell them how deeply we have appreciated their kindness.

In addition to its personal aspect we realize that the reception accorded to the "Capetown" expresses the sentiment that binds the Great Dominion to the Empire and we give you back all the pleasant thoughts and memories that are particularly reserved for Canada in the "Old Country."

Yours very sincerely,
K. DEWAR
