

Splitting Pains In The Muscles Driven Out Quickly by "Nerviline"

RHEUMATIC PAINS GO—SUFFERING CEASES—CURE COMES IN EVEN CHRONIC CASES.

For aching bones and sore muscles nothing will sooth away the pain like Nerviline.

For nerve-racking twinges in the muscles, for torturing backache or lumbago, you'll find Nerviline is full of amazing power.

You see, Nerviline has the power—its about five times stronger than ordinary remedies, and can penetrate very deeply. It contains juices and extracts of certain herbs that give it a strange power to drive out congestion, inflammation or pain.

You are safe—in using Nerviline. Just rub it on—it won't blister or burn.

and can do nothing but good. Whenever there is pain or suffering Nerviline will go and will drive it out. It penetrates to every cell of a sore muscle; it sinks to the heart of every stiff sore joint; it searches out the pain of rheumatism quickly.

Give Nerviline a trial. See how fast it will limber your lame back, how quickly it will cure neuralgic headache, how fast it will break up a bad cold or ease a sore throat.

The best family pain-remedy ever made is Nerviline. Forty years of great success proves this.

For emergency ills, when the doctor isn't handy, there is nothing better than the 50c. family size bottle; trial size 25c., all dealers or the Catarthozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

TIGNISH

—WINTER PICNICING.—That the young folks here can extract as much pleasure and recreation out of winter sports as they can in the summer, by the large numbers who go snowshoeing, skating and organize parties to go gun picking from the spruce timbers, especially around Leoville. From all accounts this later sport has proven quite exciting.—Z.

—LONG FUNERAL PROCESSION.—Over one hundred sleighs respectfully followed the remains of the late Pascol Perry from his residence to his last resting-place Thursday. The funeral services over the remains were conducted by Rev. Monsignor D. M. MacDonald, assisted by the full choir. The following acted as pall-bearers:—Messrs Peter Brennan, Amable Gaudet, Jermaln Gaudet, Joseph Perry, Frank Perry and James Handrahan. The deceased leaves a widow, who is in very delicate health, besides a large family of children and friends, who will miss him, for he was kind-hearted, generous and a friend to all.—Z.

—RED CROSS LECTURE.—The good ladies of the Tignish branch of the Red Cross Society will on the 9th of March next have the honour of hearing Rev. P. C. Gauthier, of Palmer Road, deliver a lecture in Tignish Hall for the benefit of this organization. They are to be complimented on having been able to secure a speaker of the type, for to mention that this reverend gentleman will lecture is sufficient to draw a crowd. All those who feel interested in the good work done by these noble women should show their appreciation by attending this lecture and so help the boys fighting in France, who look to —RESPECTED OLD AGE.—Perhaps in this province it would be hard to find a couple who are approaching their seventy years of married life—and his devoted wife, Mary, aged eighty-nine, of Petterville, such is the case. Both are yet possessed of all their faculties and entertain their many friends nightly with their early experiences in this part of the island, when everything was in a wooded state and the only means of travelling was the team of oxen attached to the famous truck cart. This honoured couple live with their son, Narcisse, and are one of the few couples who have seen their fifth generation. The old gentleman has of late been bed-ridden, but his wife is still able to do household duties and attend to the wants of her loving husband.—Z.

Charlottetown Child Quickly Heated

Though it Was Pronounced Incurable.

While some parents are allowing their children to go down to the grave rather than give the Farador a chance to help, others are finding that it actually does the work for which it is designed. A Charlottetown mother writes:—

Dear Sir:—I feel most grateful for the help that the Farador has been in our family. We secured the instrument on the 6th of July for our 14 months old child, who was very ill at that time. She could not sit up nor sleep and was crying almost continually. She had swollen glands and was pronounced incurable by five doctors. Almost as soon as we began the use of the Farador the child began to improve. The swollen glands, which had to be lanced several times, have entirely healed, and she is apparently in perfect health and is out playing with the neighbors' children every day. It has also been of great help to our other children, their various ailments disappearing very quickly. My husband has used the Farador for colds and tired feeling and has found the results to be most beneficial. We would not part with our Farador for a thousand dollars if we could not get another.

(Signed) MRS. ALBERT CORNEY, 17 Bishop Street. It will pay those who need health to investigate the Farador. There are very few ailments that the Farador cannot cure. W. E. Annon, Agent, 12 Alley Street, Charlottetown. 8808-3-1m11 ford, Lot 1, in which the theft of fowl is attributed to weasels. This a great many, including myself, believe is bluff to hide the real culprits. This kind of business has been going on for a number of years, farmers losing their hens, chickens and other fowl and no trace ever being found of them. Last summer exceeded the limit. Why was Waterford selected, when most of Lot 1 was devastated? Just for the above-mentioned reason—bluff. Last season eight large farmers lost, some of them as many as 25 fowl at once, until there whole flocks disappeared. It is generally believed that these fowl are taken in the night from their coops and either sold or canned by parties that are well up in the business. If something is not done in catching more than four-legged weasels, farmers will have to go out of the business altogether. It is the two-legged weasels that are wanted at present.—Z.

—A SAD ENDING.—By looking at the auction sale notices posted in all conspicuous places around here advertising the sale of household effects, etc., of Peter Robertson, of St. Louis, on the 3rd of March next, one stops and realises what the old adage, "The way of the transgressor is hard" means. In this man, who settled in St. Louis last summer and soon was doing a splendid business as a house-painter, besides keeping a boarding-house, the lure to make money fast by illegal selling of beer and other stimulants was too great. At first his venture in this line was on a small scale, and hardened by the increase of his daily receipts he became bolder until it became noised around that liquor was openly sold on his premises. These rumours so reached the keen-eyed constables, Joe Smith and Wm. Barber, and right away they visited Robertson's premises, only to find 3 per cent. beer, which was perfectly right to sell. But not satisfied with this they kept watch and about three weeks ago found enough evidence of straight beer being sold to cause him trouble. After being successfully raided he quietly left St. Louis and went to healthier quarters, leaving his wife to bear the shame of his crime. And now that living away from her husband has no appeal to this good woman she has decided to sell all and follow her husband to his present domicile.—Z.
