CANADIENS WIN GAME
"Flying Frenchmen" Nose Out Ottawa 3 To 2 In Unimpressive Fixture.
 (Canadian Press)
 MONTREAL, Dec. 11—It took overtime to accomplish it, but Montreal Canadiens were convinced today that they had broken their losing streak. Howie Morenz put the puck behind Bill Beveridge to give the "Flying Frenchmen" a 3-2 overtime victory over Ottawa Senators in a dull and unimpressive National Hockey League game here Saturday night.

Notre Dame Defeated 13-0
 MEMORIAL COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Dec. 11—(Associated Press)—Southern California were atop the United States football heap today after out-playing Notre Dame for three periods and outsmarting the visitors all the way in Saturday's classic to win the annual football battle between the Trojans and Ramblers 13 to 0.
 A record crowd of 100,000 saw the home team win its 19th straight game and move a step closer to a second national championship in two years.

 ans convened in a Paris hall, and adopted a resolution condemning the eventual payment of debts. Later about 1,000 of their number passed before the Chamber of Deputies and the Foreign Office shouting, "not one sou! down with debts!"
 There was no disorder, however, and no arrests.
 It was considered possible that France and Britain will issue a joint statement indicating their common solidarity on a policy looking toward final settlement on the entire debts problem.
 Lord Tyrell, British Ambassador to France, conferred with Premier Herriot before the Cabinet meeting. It was said in circles close to the Government this discussion resulted in the completion of an accord between the two nations on the stand to be taken on payments.
Great Britain Will Pay Up
 This evening Lord Tyrell saw Premier Herriot and gave the French official a copy of the new note which Britain addressed to the United States and which announced Great Britain's decision to pay on December 15. The London note was published here tonight.
 Well-informed sources said the French reservation will include the intimation that the Dec. 15 payment will be the last before a general debt conference and that the pending payment is to be taken into consideration in subsequent negotiations.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH
 Services at the Central Christian Church yesterday were well attended. In the morning following the observance of the Lord's Supper, Pastor W. L. Outhouse preached on the subject "Life's Substance," in which the values of realities and transient things were compared. A solo was rendered by Miss Elsie Craig.
 The subject of the evening sermon was "Law and Grace." The pastor pointed out that the Law made individuals slaves, while grace makes individuals sons of God. The liberty gained entails the additional and vast responsibilities of the Christian life.
 Two fine solos were rendered by Miss Doris Tall.

Line Is Still Drawn Between Amateurs & Pros.
For Another Year At Least There Will Be No Change In Rule, Is Finding Of Parent Body.
 (Canadian Press)
 OTTAWA, Dec. 11—For another year at least there will be no change in the rule forbidding professionals in one branch of sport to play as amateurs in another. The threatened battle to the finish over the question at the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada failed to materialize when a plan was advanced to refer the matter to a committee.
 For a few minutes at the close of the meeting yesterday debate was hot as James McQuaid of Ottawa declared sport in Canada was "no longer sport but a profession," involving millions of dollars each year, and W. A. Fry of Dunville came forward with a passionate plea for maintenance of the ideals of amateur sport.
 The committee scheme was advanced by Dr. A. S. Lamb of Montreal, who said the question was serious and merited study and could not properly be dealt with without information. The committee will look into the scheme from the point of view of the A. A. U.'s relations with the Olympic Games and other international sport organizations, prepare a brief setting out arguments for and against, circulate this among the branches and allied sport organizations and submit it with recommendations to the next annual meeting.
 Appointment of the committee will be the duty of the new president, J. Howard Crocker of London, and the new executive.

 "I therefore assume that in paragraphs five and six of your note you are not proposing to make this payment otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the funding agreement but that you are stating your views as to steps which your government may desire to propose subsequently after a reexamination of the entire problem.
 "I have emphasized these facts with a view to avoiding any possible future misunderstanding. I believe that our future course as pointed out by our correspondence is clear.
 In your first note of November 13 you asked for an exchange of views at the earliest possible moment with respect to the regime of intergovernmental financial obligations and, in your second note you welcomed the expression of our willingness to facilitate such discussions, and referred to the desirability of a close examination between our governments of the whole subject in preparation for the international economic conference. In my last note of December 8 I replied that the President of the United States was prepared through whatever agency may seem appropriate, in cooperation with your government to survey the entire situation (in which the debt of the British Government to the United States necessarily plays a part) and to consider what means may be taken to bring about the restoration of stable currencies and exchange, the revival of trade and the recovery of prices.
 "But in the meanwhile, as I informed you in my note of November 23 great importance is attached by our government and people to the maintenance of the original debt agreement in force and that a satisfactory approach to the whole question would be greatly increased by the pursuance of such a policy.
 "It would seem to me therefore to be undesirable that any steps be taken which, by causing misunderstanding, would increase the difficulties that must be overcome in finding an ultimate solution satisfactory to both nations.
 "Accept, excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration."

MORE GOALS AIM OF THE HAWK COACH
 MONTON, N. B., Dec. 11—It is more than probable that some changes will be made in the arrangement of the Moncton Hawks front line when the home team takes on Steve Vair's Wolverines in the next Maritime Hockey League fixture here Monday night.
 Coach Nicklin finds that the Hawks snipers are not clicking as they should in practice here and he is using McDonald, McManus and Muckie on one line, and Aubrey Webster at right wing on the other line with Dud James in the pivot position and Bert Connolly back at his old love, left wing.
 To date the Hawk rear guard of Bill Gill, Len Burrage, Bill Miller and the keen-eyed Jimmy Foster, between the uprights, have rather been holding the remainder of the crew up, as the front line combinations have been unable to ring up many goals. The switch Nicklin will likely make is meant to overcome the weakness in scoring and make the Hawks a more formidable sextet in future games.

 (3) In view of this decision His Majesty's Government have determined to make payment of the amount due on December 15 under the funding agreement of June 18, 1923; but they think it desirable to take the opportunity of stating clearly their position in regard to this payment and of explaining the circumstances in which they have arrived at that conclusion.
 (4) For reasons which have already been placed on record, His Majesty's Government are convinced that the system of inter-governmental payment in respect towards debts as it existed prior to President Hoover's initiative of June 20, 1931, cannot be revived without disaster. Since it is agreed that the whole subject should be reexamined between the United States of America and the United Kingdom this fundamental point need not be further stressed here.
 (5) In the view of His Majesty's Government therefore payment to be made on December 15 is not to be regarded as the resumption of annual payments contemplated by the existing agreement. It is made because there has not been time for discussion with regard to that agreement to take place and because the United States Government have stated that in their opinion such payment would greatly increase prospects of a satisfactory approach to the whole question.

Will Outline French Stand
 Tomorrow afternoon Premier Herriot will go to the Chamber of Deputies for the long postponed debate and is expected to outline the Government's stand. The Premier, it is believed, will stress the necessity for honoring France's signature and the maintenance of solidarity with Great Britain.
 Two factors, it was said in semi-official circles, played a part in today's cabinet decision. One was the desire to follow a course parallel to that of Britain and the other was what is regarded by the French Government as a more conciliatory character of the second United States note to France.

RED WINGS RELEASE NOBLE
 DETROIT, Dec. 11—(Associated Press)—Reg Noble, oldest player in years of service in the National Hockey League, was given his unconditional release today by the Detroit Red Wings management.
 He got off to a bad start in this, his 16th season of professional hockey, by holding out for nearly three weeks. Last season he had an even worse start, for waivers were asked on him. Then, however, the management relented and Noble responded by turning in one of the best seasons' performances of his career.
 But this year he hasn't made that kind of a come-back and has not been used regularly since he came to terms with the management.
 Since 1927, when he was purchased from the Montreal Maroons for $7,500, Noble has been the mainstay of the Detroit defence—until this year.

LOOKING 'EM OVER
 (By Tec.)
 General Percy Nicklin, of the Moncton Hawks, has been marshaling his forces since last Wednesday with the idea of taking the Wolverines into camp in their game at the Hub city tonight. Latest reports tell us that he has given his front line the "once over" and has decided to let 'em be, but will replace Nucker Irvine with Webster on the left wing firing line.
 Moncton fans, fannies, in fact everybody in the New Brunswick town are shouting for more Hawk goals. However, if Nicklin's team cannot score eight or nine goals a game, it isn't his fault. In fact one might be inclined to blame it on Wolverines and Abbies, not forgetting Bubar and Sergeant.
 The following are a few interesting extracts taken from a Halifax report of the recent Abbie-Wolverine game:
Speed Big Feature
 Speed was the major feature of the first period with both teams playing cautiously, although the Wolves opened up as the game got under way, only to pass up several beautiful chances to score by over-anxiousness after they had crossed the Abbies' blue-line. But the visitors were always in the picture, jumping at every break in the closely fought affair to give Leo Sargent many opportunities to demonstrate his ability. It was the former Turo net-minder's smart work between the uprights later in the game, that really saved the Wolves from possible defeat.
Abbies Off Color
 While the Gross-Ferguson-Oliver combination played a close-guarding game throughout, they were unable to meet the thrusts of the Wolverine forwards with the same degree of effectiveness as the case in their meeting two weeks previous. In fact, the entire Charlottetown team failed to display the smoothness that characterized their performance on that occasion. Perhaps it was the improved work of their opponents that took away some of the glitter, as outside of the ever tricky Beaton, who was a thorn in the side of the home-ers all night, and Butar who gave the same cool, calculated display of yesteryears the Abbies seemed off color.

 Greater Resistance
 The report further states that "the pronounced downward trend has been replaced by a period in which greater resistance is manifested against reactionary tendencies."
 Canadian exports to Australia in the first seven months of the current fiscal year amounted to $4,219,193 as compared with $2,762,267 in the corresponding period last year. Imports from Australia increased by nearly a quarter of a million dollars to $4,309,361. While total exports for the seven months are lower than last year, outstanding increases are shown, in most cases to countries which are large importers of Canadian wheat.
 Total Canadian exports to Great Britain have increased by approximately five and a half million dollars to $110,740,375; those to Holland increased by three million dollars to $11,695,306; and those to Belgium by one and a half million dollars to $10,035,272.
