John T. Clarkin, B. A., of this city, lectured before the New Perth Institute Wednesday night, taking as his subject "The Celtic Race." The lecture was a most scholarly one and was listened to with the closest attention by the large audience.

Any reader who receives a dirty or badly printed, or badly folded edition of The Guardian will confer a favor on the management by forwarding same promptly to the subscription department, when a well printed paper will be sent by return mail.

The Y. M. C. A. religious work committee have arranged for two special evangelistic services on Sunday to be conducted by Rev. A. J. McLeod, who has had considerable experience in evangelistic in the United States. Mr. McLeod lately conducted special services in Summerside which were very successful. He is a native of Picton Co., N. S.

In a clipping from the Providence Tribune it states that, in the recent examinations of the graduate nurses, the names of several Prince Edward Island young ladies figured among the leading ones to gain credit for the Garden of the Gulf. Those mentioned are Miss Gunn of New London; Miss Mary and Annie Curran of Summerside. The Guardian wishes them every success.

A group of men, representing friends of W. T. Robb, the General Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, who is resigning on account of ill health, awaited on him on Thursday afternoon and presented him with a brief address, accompanied with a substantial gift from a hundred or so of Mr. Robb's friends in New Glasgow. Mr. Robb's response to this unlooked for expression of practical sympathy in his usual frank and honest way.—New Glasgow Standard. Mr. Robb is well known in this City.

New Wonderland drew large houses last night and every one was more than pleased with the exceptional excellence of the entertainment. Miss Rosa in her black face act, was simply grand. She proved herself an adept in the dialect of the Southern "Cullud woman," as in that of the most educated lady and her songs were simply grand. The "Dollar Bill" fetched the house the audience giving loud appreciation of the whole act. Paris and Russell, did grandly and their dancing went with a swing that showed their remarkable cleverness and ability. The pictures were magnificent and the whole entertainment one of refinement and rare entertainment.

On Thursday evening Professor Ross addressed a meeting at Irish-town on the value of Good Seeds and held classes on Friday morning in Seed Judging. On Friday similar work was taken up at French River and on Saturday a meeting of the whole District was held at Long River for the purpose of organizing a Farmers Institute. Mr. John S. Cousins was appointed Chairman and the undersigned Secretary. Professor Ross spoke for a few minutes on the Value of Institutes after which the names of those that had already signified their willingness to join an Institute were read out. Several others signified their intention of joining and with these the total number was thirty-six. The Institute was at once organized by the appointment of the following directors: John S. Cousins, William Ramsay, George McLeod, William Profit, Eliphalet Howatt, Jas. Sims, Fraser Mann, Jasper Bell and James Gillespie. The Directors then chose John S. Cousins, President, Fraser Mann, Vice-President and William Ramsay, Secretary-Treasurer. The next order of business was the choice of a name for the newly organized Institute. After some little discussion "New London North" was unanimously agreed upon. Professor Ross then gave the Institute some pointers which would be helpful to them in the managing of their affairs. The Minutes of the meeting were then read and on motion, adopted. Charles S. McKay, Secretary.

W. N. Tanton has in his jewellery store on Sunnyside a lemon tree bearing a large fully developed specimen of fruit, and a bunch of blossoms. This tree was grown in a flower pot in Mr. Tanton's house. When planted it was about half its present size. It is certainly unique for this climate.

On Tuesday last thieves effected an entrance into the Charlottetown Club House on Great George St, through a window at the rear of the building. A number of bottles of champagne, and a considerable quantity of brandy and rum were stolen. The theft was made in the steward's room, and fortunately in their hurry the robbers overlooked a sum of money which lay in the Secretary's desk. As far as can be learned no clue whatever of the robbers can be obtained.

The death occurred at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Thos. H. Richards, Allery Plains, at noon yesterday of Mrs. Elizabeth Poole, widow of the late Edward Poole of Rosemeath. She leaves to mourn four daughters and three sons: Mrs. J. A. McDonald, Georgetown; Mrs. Wayne, Unstaffage, Mrs. Munn, Rosemeath, Mrs. Richards, Allery Plains. The sons are James at Rosemeath, J. G. Woodville Mills, Henry in Amherst. The funeral will leave on Saturday from her late residence at nine o'clock by train to Charlottetown, thence to Georgetown, where interment will take place.

On Easter Sunday the late Mrs. Thomas Curley of Forc Augustus passed to her reward in the ninetieth year of her age. Deceased had been in ill health for about three years. A short time before her death she had the consolation of receiving the last sacraments of her church of which she had always been a constant and devout member. Her funeral took place on Tuesday morning, the 13th inst. to St. Patrick's Church where a Requiem Mass was sung, and the last rites were performed at the grave by the pastor, the Rev. A. J. McDonald. The late Mrs. Curley leaves a husband and over 90 years of age, two sons and two daughters to mourn the loss of a kind wife and mother.

24th Regiment Rifle Association:—The annual meeting will be held in the Secretary's office on Monday, the 13th, instant, at 8 p.m. 4-15d3i.
