ON Thursday, Dominion Fruit Inspector Burke held a meeting at the Model Orchard on the farm of D. N. MacKay Springfield. He gave practical demonstration in the pruning, spraying, and grafting of trees. He was listened to with a great deal of attention and much valuable instruction was received. Mr. Ross, of the Macdonald Rural Schools who accompanied him gave a short talk on insects and insecticides. Similar meetings will be held in Kensington today, at Port Hill on Monday and Alberton on Tuesday.

THE funeral of the late Alexander J. R MacMillan took place Tuesday afternoon to the new cemetery, at Wood Islands, and was attended by a large concourse of people. The pallbearers were: Duncan M. McMillan, N. C. McMillan, D. Gillis, Alex. McLennan, Allen J. McMillan, and Robt. Emery. The services at the house and grave, were conducted by the Rev. Mr. McPhee of Murray River. The deceased was respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and was a zealous christian, who loved his God, and master.

NOTWITHSTANDING the recent removal by death and emigration to the North West and other places of a number of the best supporters of the Winsloe Circuit still, all the interests of the mission are quite equal with, if not ahead of earlier days. On the 20th May one adult was baptised, and nine promising young people were received by the right hand of fellowship into the church. At the Winsloe North appointment the church has been neatly repaired inside, and a first class new organ has been added to the furniture. A new heating apparatus has been put in each of the churches at Winsloe South and Highfield. One hundred and sixty dollars have been spent in painting and papering the inside of the parsonage, and in furnishings. There is not one dollar of debt, on any of the church property on the circuit.—Says The Wesleyan.

THE S. School Convention for North West Queen's will be held at two centres—Brookfield June 19th, and Cavendish June 20th.
