CENTRAL DRUGSTORE

Old Standby, For Aches And Pains

Any man or woman who keeps Sloan's handy will tell you that same thing.

Especially those frequently attacked by rheumatic twinges. A counter-irritant, Sloan's Liniment scatters the congestion and penetrates without rubbing to the afflicted part, soon relieving the ache and pain.

Kept handy and used everywhere for reducing and finally eliminating the pains and aches of lumbago, neuralgia, muscle strain, joint stiffness, sprains, bruises, and the results of exposure.

You just know from its stimulating, healthy odor that it will do you good! Sloan's Liniment is sold by all druggists—35c, 70c, $1.40. Made in Canada.

WEDDING BELLS.—A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday in St. Dunstan's Cathedral when Miss Bertha Cavanagh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Cavanagh became the bride of Mr. John W. Pollard of this city. The bride was becomingly attired in brown with lace hat and pretty fox furs, the gift of her sister, Miss Ethel, who wore a blue suit and black picture hat and fox furs. Mr. Austin Gallant acted as groomsmen. The bride was formerly employed as saleslady at S. A. McDonald where she was popular with all. The groom is one of our returned boys and a host of friends wish him and his bride many years of happiness. After a wedding trip to Halifax they will be welcomed back to Charlottetown where they will make their future home.
