ISLANDERS IN OTTAWA GET TOGETHER FOR CHRISTMAS—To those away from home Christmas is apt to be rather a lonesome time; and so a group of the Islanders got together to fittingly celebrate the occasion. In the evening they were the guests of the Alexandra Hotel for Christmas dinner and afterwards the group made up a jolly theatre party.

INSTITUTE MEETING—The December meeting of Pleasant Circle Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Even Cameron, on December 12, with nine members and four visitors present. Meeting opened with Institute Ode. Roll call followed, answered with Christmas suggestions. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. The Secretary then gave a report of the chicken and bazaar, proceeds, $44.80. Bills presented and paid at the meeting amounted to $19.38. After some discussion the buying committee was authorized to buy some material to put a quilt together. A very pleasant hour was then spent in games and general intercourse during which the hostess served lunch. Meeting closed with National Anthem. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Uryill Large, roll call to be answered with silver collection.

BOWNESS-CLARK —Frederick Preston Bowness and Jessie Marlon Clark of North Bedouque were quietly married in the North Bedouque Manse on Saturday evening, Dec. 21st, no one being present save the officiating clergyman, J. W. A. Nicholson, and the two witnesses, Susan Lefurey and M. Evelyn Nicholson. Though the wedding had been expected for some time it was quite a surprise to their many friends when they appeared out in church on Sunday morning husband and wife. They will be followed into their new home with hosts of good wishes, for there are few young folk more popular or so highly regarded in the entire neighborhood. This new home, almost midway between their former homes, was built during the past summer while the bride was on an extended visit to friends and relatives in California and Vancouver. It is very attractive in its outward appearance and is comfortable and artistic within, being fitted up with modern conveniences. The wedding took place on the shortest day in the year, so that the young couple are assured of increasing brightness from the very start of their domestic life, a symbol it is hoped of all that nature and providence have in store for them. Congratulations will be showered upon them by scores of friends and well-wishers in the neighborhood and in a much wider circle.

Happy New Year
TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS WE WISH A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

CHARTER UNVEILED—The charter of the King's Own Troop of Boy Scouts was unveiled on Friday evening at St. Peter's Cathedral hall. The ceremony was simple but impressive. In the absence of the gentlemen of the committee, the following address was given to the Scouts by Mrs. Coah: Boy Scouts of the King's Own Troop, Cubs of the King's Own Pack and Fellow Committeemen: In the unavoidable absence of Lt. Colonel Peake and Mr. Paton, Mrs. Filler and I tossed for the honor of addressing you and I won. On this, the occasion of the unveiling of your registration charter, your committee wishes to say a few words to you. We all four feel it an honor to be associated with such a splendid body of Boy Scouts. You must feel proud to think that you carried on and hung together under the able leadership of King's Scout Filler during the lean years of scouting in Prince Edward Island. Now that you are coming into your own, your Committee wishes you to feel that we are behind you to aid and encourage. Come to us for advice, for help, or anything you wish to undertake. If it is within our power we shall be certainly glad to assist you. Carry on as you have in the past. Be prepared for future contingencies. Good luck and success in 1930.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Stephen Simpson, Dromore, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

Mr. Theodore Newson, Brackley, spent the past few weeks in Summerside, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woodside.

Mr. Clifford McEwen, Brackley, spent Christmas at his home in Bristol, Lot 40.

Miller's worm Powders do not need the after-help of castor oil or any purgative to complete their thoroughness, because they are thorough in themselves. One dose of them, and they will be found palatable by all children, will end the worm trouble by making the stomach and bowels untenable to the parasites. And not only this, but the powders will be certain to exert most beneficial influence in the digestive organs.

THE CLOUD AND PILLAR OF FIRE IN THE WILDERNESS

(Reprinted from the Examiner of Jan. 7, 1897)
Beneath the cool refreshing shade
Cast by the moving cloud,
The wand'ring sons of Jacob strayed,
One vast commingled crowd.

Mothers and children, joined with men,
Their voices high to praise,
From mountain, plain, or verdant glen,
In tuneful songs of praise.

Thousands of cattle pastured near,
And numerous fleecy flocks,
Whist savage beasts in abject fear
Fled to the distant rocks.

For God's own Angel, always by,
Had man and beast in charge,
And safe, beneath his watchful eyes
The cattle roamed at large.

And when the sun his beams withdrew,
The cloud ascended higher,
And then, to the admiring view,
Burst forth in flaming fire.

Before the camp the column bright
Moved onward, or stood still,
And poured around its brilliant light
O'er tented plain or hill.

And all along their journey through
The cloud each day returned,
And thus fresh herbage freely grew
Where all was parched and burned.

Thus power and love did both combine
To cheer the wand'ring band,
And nightly shone the guardian fire
O'er all that desert land.

And thus, poor weary soul, may you
Who dread some coming ill,
Your onward journey still pursue,
For God is with you still.

When faint and sinking by the way
With Jonah you complain,
The cloud shall intercept the ray
And shroud the arid plain.

And when the evening shades prevail,
And earth is hushed in night,
Least faith and courage too should fail
The Pillar lend its light.
