THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

THE GUARDIAN has adopted the monthly system for its accounts, and respectfully requests all persons and firms having claims against this paper to at once furnish their accounts in full to January 31, 1913...

TALENTED READING. — Mrs. Gough's talent as a reader of much ability is well known in Charlottetown. She takes part in the Birthday social in the K. of P. hall Friday. Some invitations have been sent out but anyone wishing to attend is cordially invited.

For a smooth, velvety skin you will need to use Rexall Face Cream. This is a splendid skin food that is guaranteed to promote the growth of superfluous hair. The cream is recommended by all users. Price 25c a jar. The McKinnon Drug Co., Corner Great George and Kent Sts. Mt.

SAD DEATH. — A. F. and Mrs. McNeill of Long Creek are receiving the deep sympathy of their friends, in the death last Friday of their daughter Ella May, who was only in her seventeenth year. The deceased had been ill for about a month and had only spent a week in bed before she passed away.

INTERESTING MEETING. — Charlottetown Lodge I. O. G. T. held a most interesting and profitable meeting Friday night. There was a large number of visitors present and among them Rev. Thomas Marshall who gave an instructive address on the temperance situation in the province. This lodge has been in existence for several months and is growing steadily and doing much good in an educational way especially among the young.

SCHOOL BOARD. — The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held Monday night. Judge Blanchard presided, and those present were T. C. James, J. J. Johnston, Henry Smith, Edwin Aitken and F. J. Nash. The reports were read and the members themselves gave a number of suggestions with respect to the schools. The committee on estimates will call a special meeting this week. It is proposed to restore the old assembly hall to Queen Square School if that can be satisfactorily arranged. After the passing of the minutes and the discussing of various matters in connection with the schools the meeting adjourned.

THE FANCY DRESS CARNIVAL. — The fancy dress carnival in the Arena rink last night was another of the pleasant events which have made the Arena famous. As on the previous occasion there was a very large attendance. The costumes were on the whole superior to those worn at the first carnival, many of them being particularly attractive. Taken all together the whirling panorama on the ice made a very pleasing picture and was thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators. That the masqueraders enjoyed it was abundantly evident as even the masks wore the smile that won't come off. The band as usual gave a splendid program of music. A pleasing feature of this carnival, as of the previous one, was the good order both on the promenade and on the ice. The management is again to be congratulated on the excellent entertainment furnished.

PROSPEROUS COMPANY. — The Guardian directs attention to the digest of the Annual report of the Great West Life Assurance Company which appears in another column. It is pleasing indeed to note the progress of any company in business, especially a Canadian Company. The applications received by the Great West Life during 1912 exceeded those of the previous year by over Seven Millions of Dollars. One notable point is that the average gross rate of interest earned on investments is nearly 8 p. c. The claim is made that this Company has during the past six years, written a larger new business in Canada than has any other Company, British, Canadian or American. This is a record to be proud of and taking into consideration that the Company is only in its twenty-first year it is a marvellous development. The Company is represented in this Province by the firm of Hyndman & Co., Ltd., and local Agents are to be found at different points throughout the Island, by whom rates and other information will be gladly furnished.

DESIRABLE POSITION. — A bright trustworthy Charlottetown boy from fifteen to seventeen years of age, with at least a good common school education, can learn of a desirable position with excellent chances for promotion by writing "Business Man, P. O. Box 332, Charlottetown" at once. This is a great opportunity for the right boy.

BANQUET. — Prof. C. M. and Mrs. Wright were the hosts at a banquet given on Friday evening last, to the members of Christ Church choir, says an Anherst exchange. After the excellent spread had received full justice, speeches were made, and the balance of the evening was spent in music and games. Altogether it was a very enjoyable evening. — Prof. and Mrs. Wright were formerly of Charlottetown.

ANNUAL MEETING. — The annual meeting of the West River Rural Telephone Company was held at Alton Hall on Saturday evening Jan. 25th. Vice President Hector McLean presided. It was decided to erect a branch line to Canoe Cove. After the usual routine business, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. President—Hector McLean, New Dominion. Vice President—Malcolm McNeill, Long Creek. Secretary—Neil McCannell, Long Creek. Treasurer—A. K. McPhee, Long Creek. Trustees—Duncan T. McEwen, New Dominion, Arch. McDonald, Nine Mile Creek, P. J. Berrigan, Dunedin.
