

WHEN WINTER COMES

EVEN though winter's snow and ice are a quarter of a year away—the tires you buy today must meet the needs of winter driving.

So consider well the Goodyear All-Weather Tread Balloon—the world's greatest tire.

Deep into snow, mud, sand—firmly on brick, asphalt, concrete—the All-Weather Tread prints its signature which reads greater traction, greater safety. Whether bitter winds sweep bare the icy road or new fallen snow stands in the way, you'll find Goodyear-shod cars going straight ahead—safely, surely.

Before winter comes you'll enjoy this same road-safety plus the greater comfort and freedom from trouble which SUPERTWIST Cords give to Goodyear Tires.

And after winter is gone, you will still have thousands of miles of care-free service left in the tires you buy today.

In every town in Canada large enough to support a good tire dealer there is at least one Goodyear Selected Dealer.

In Memoriam

JAMES CHAMPION

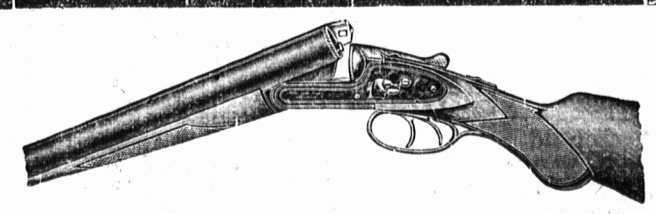

Passed peacefully into eternity on Thursday, at Kensington, James Champion, a highly esteemed gentleman of mature years. He had maintained a vigorous constitution in mature years, and retained practical use of his intellectual faculties even up to the closing years of life. He was born at Spring Valley in 1838, hence he had, at the time of death, attained his 90th year. He was the son of the late John Champion, and the late Mary Murphy, his wife. He spent his early years attending the common school and developing faculties into manhood. In 1864, on Aug. 4, he married Alicia Heaney, Graham's Road, and began housekeeping in Spring Valley. The family are, Mary Elisia wife of Benjamin Duggan, John T. Portland, Maine; Fannie—Mrs. Douglas Milligan, both these daughters, deceased; William, and Daniel, Moncton, Maine; Wesley Kensington Lila, Kate—Mrs. Walter Cole, Robert and Alexander, Darnley. The burial was under the direction of the L. O. L. of which the deceased was a member. Interment took place at Malpeque. The pallbearers were his grand-children, James Champion, Edgar Champion, Roy Champion, Colin Mountain, William Champion, and Horace Bryanton. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Saint, assisted by Rev. Fred Williamson and Rev. G. T. Spriggs. Dr. Saint, spoke with animation on the essential feature of the sad event showing how the deceased had attained the reward that his good deeds had merited. Besides his own family of thirteen, he had thirty grand-children, and forty nine great-grand children. The deceased was a man of the highest integrity, first discharging his duties to God and then fulfilling his obligation to his fellow man. Since all noble human actions are of so far reaching import that no human elevation is sufficiently high to give us a prospect to the end, hence our power of vision is too restricted to obtain an introspect, into the merit that must attend his good deeds. The sympathy of all sincere friends is thus extended to the bereaved ones and they are consoled by the assurance that God justly rewards every soul according to the testimony of good deeds that is stamped upon the soul before the Judgment Seat. Four Priests Shot In Mexico

(Canadian Press) ROME, Sept. 25.—The newspaper Censoratore Romano says that it was learned that four priests recently were shot in Mexico as part of the "persecution" of the church in that country.

The paper says: "We learn from a sure source that four priests in the diocese of Guadalajara recently were shot, the victims of persecution. The details are lacking in their offence and of their execution. It is not the place to talk of justice, that is completely abolished in Mexico." A man may run into debt but he seldom comes out of it faster than a walk. Minards Liniment. Invaluable everywhere.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH BUILDING IN MONCTON

MONCTON, Sept. 24.—Marked with the usual impressive ceremony attended upon such an occasion, the cornerstone of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, was well and truly laid Saturday afternoon by the minister, Rev. S. J. MacArthur.

There was a representative gathering of present to witness this memorable event, including members of other denominations, when beneath the bright rays of a summer's sun the new edifice was dedicated to the glory of God. The devotional exercises opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. MacArthur, following which he gave a scripture reading from 1st Chronicles, 29-30 to 18. The choir of the church which was augmented for the occasion then rendered the 23rd Psalm, following which the minister repeated the Apostles' Creed.

A historical sketch of the congregation from the time of its organization following June 10th, 1925, prepared by Mr. James M. Condon, Clerk of the session, was then read by Rev. Mr. MacArthur. This history together with several other papers were then placed in the box which reposed in the crypt of the cornerstone. The Rev. Mr. MacArthur then gave an address in which he reviewed the history of the Presbyterian congregation in Moncton which went back to 1838 when it was organized in the Free Meeting house here by the Rev. Wm. Henderson. The congregation was called St. John's and the first church built in 1857, but there were no records available to show how many members constituted the church up until 1875 when Rev. Joseph Hogg became Minister to a congregation of 49 communicants. He then recited the names of the members of St. John's Church from the Rev. Wm. Henderson's incumbency 1838-1849 down to the present time among which were included the following: Rev. Alex. Ross; 1852-1855: Rev. Wm. Murray, 1856-1858; Rev. J. D. McKie, 1859-1865; Rev. J. D. Murray, 1866-1873; Rev. Jos. Hogg, 1875-1888; Rev. J. M. Robinson, 1889-1901; Rev. D. MacOden, 1902-1913; Rev. T. P. Drummond, 1914-1919; Rev. J. R. Ramsay, 1919-1925; Rev. Dr. R. M. Stevenson, 1925-1927; Rev. S. J. MacArthur, 1927.

Rev. Mr. MacArthur pointed out that the Presbyterian Church in Moncton to-day is more than double in strength what it was fifty years ago and it raises more money each year for self support and missions than it did at that time he declared. He referred to the increase in membership of the church in general during the past year, stating that there were 28 more ministers than a year ago, 4,000 more families had joined the Presbyterian Church, 5,000 more children in the Sunday schools, 9,284 more communicants, bringing the total membership throughout the Dominion up to 172,518. The church had raised for all purposes nearly $4,500,000. Nine unionist ministers had been received back into the Presbyterian church out of 17 applications. The church now ranked third in size in comparison to other Protestant denominations in the Dominion. "We have a glorious tradition, we have succeeded to a great inheritance," he declared in conclusion, and expressed the hope, "that we may prove ourselves worthy of our past

Summer Foods of Frosty Coolness

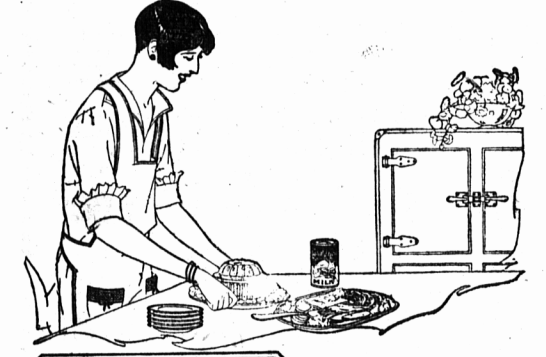

What husband, coming home tired and hot from work, won't revive when finds at his elbow a tinkling, frosty glass of lemonade or iced tea, particularly when it is followed by a supper of crisp salad, thin, tempting slices of cold meat, and a fruity, refreshing creaminess because it's evaporated and double richness. I know it is absolutely safe because it's sterilized. Being completely dependable. Carnation is economical, saving the usual waste of "turned" milk and spoiled foods. And, as any domestic science expert will tell you, it gives cooking results that even the best of bottled milk cannot equal—a smooth creaminess, fine texture that are unmistakable in ice creams, soups, sauces, puddings, cakes and custards.

This special quality of Carnation Milk is due to "homogenization," by which the cream globules are broken up into minute particles and distributed evenly throughout every drop of milk. I've some wonderful recipes for hot-weather salads and ice creams in "My Hundred Favorite Recipes"—the Carnation Cook Book. Won't you send for this free booklet? Carnation Frozen Salad
3/4 cup mayonnaise, 1 cup Carnation Milk, 1 cup whipping cream, 3/4 cup chopped black walnuts, 1 cup chopped pineapple, 1 cup chopped cherries, 1 cup apricots or peaches, 1 orange, 1 grape-fruit. Combine Carnation and cream, chill and whip. Chop fruit, add to whipped cream mixed with mayonnaise, omitting fruit juice. Pack in baking powder tins or round molds, place in a 1 to 3 salt-ice mixture 3 hours. Serve in one-inch slices on lettuce.

The Milk for Hot Days

CARNATION is ideal for summer use. Keeps sweet without ice—no waste. Adds food value to light summer dishes. Gives extra smoothness and flavor to salad dressings, desserts, ices. (See recipe above)
