LOADING LAMBS at Mt. Stewart on Friday, Oct. 23. W. L. McLeod, for Harry Jenkins. 9861-10-22-24

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.—Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brown, Margate, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jennie Laura, to Mr. Clarence Ketchum, New York, son of the late Mr. Isaac W. Ketchum and Mrs. Ketchum, St. John, N. B. Marriage to take place in Montreal, November 22nd. 9921

POLICE COURT.—Yesterday morning Matthews charged with assaulting Mrs. A. E. Toombs had case adjourned to 31st. One drunk was fined $10.00 or 30 days. Four Prohibition cases were adjourned to the 31st. Two men charged with a breach of the Motor Vehicle Act were fined each $200 or ten days. The proprietress and an inmate of a disorderly house were given each six months.

ISLANDER DEAD.—Mrs. John A. Doyle, Water Street, has received the sad news that her brother-in-law, Mr. W. A. Hines, died suddenly in Rochester, N. H. The late Mr. Hines was married to Mrs. Doyle's sister, the late Christina M. Arbing who predeceased him seven years ago. There are left to mourn an aged father in St. John, N. B., two brothers, Ernest and Charles of Boston, Mass., and one adopted son, James R. of this city.

UNNECESSARY DELAY.—The bridge undergoing repairs at Milton has now been open for over three weeks. Teams, cars and loads of potatoes are obliged to pass through the stream with the frequent result that a car or load is bogged. There appears to be no hurry on the part of the men employed and the public is becoming impatient at what they consider unnecessary waste of time.

WOOD AND MACNEILL.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Zion Church, Charlottetown, on Sept. 28th at half-past-five by the Rev. M. Scott Fulton, when Annie Laura Alma, daughter of Mr. W. W. MacNeill of Regina and the late Mrs. MacNeill (nee Annie Allen of Brighton Island) became the bride of Clarence Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood of Vernon River. The bride looked very winsome in a gown of goblin blue flat crepe with large picture hat and silver shoes and stockings to match and coat of leopard fabric with corn collar and cuffs, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern and was attended by Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser of Charlottetown. After the ceremony the wedded couple motored to the home of the attendants where a sumptuous supper was served by the hostess, after which the happy couple drove to the home of the bride where a dainty lunch was served. They then set off for their future home in Vernon River, where they were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts, consisting of two substantial cheques, linen, parlor lamps, cut glass and aluminum ware and many other useful gifts. A wide circle of friends and relatives wish Mr. and Mrs. Wood many years of wedded bliss. "Happy the bride the sun shines on" a good old saying is this—May fortune's sun shine long on you and bring great wedded bliss.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 24.—Two world's records, one of them of 71 years' standing, were broken yesterday at the special matinee of the Road Horse Association of New Jersey at the Weequahic Park trotting track.

Chinaman In London Pulpit

LONDON, Oct. 24.—For the first time in the history of the church, a Chinaman, Dr. Timothy Tingfang Lew, Dean of the Faculty of Theology at Yenching University, and one of the leading thinkers of young China, preached at the City Temple recently. He was a notable figure in his black gown and scarlet academic hood, partially covering his long Chinese coat of earth brown silk, above a black silk blouse and figured skirt of peacock blue. He speaks with precision and soft voice, and his English is perfect.

PERSONALS

Mr. Roy Johnstone, Peters Road, was in the city on Saturday.

Misses Alena and Irene Horne returned last night from a visit to New York.

Dr. and Mrs. I. J. Yeo returned last evening from New York where the doctor has been doing post graduate study.

THEY CAN STILL GET IT.—Three men from outside, points and the other from Summerside district, were before Stipendiary magistrate Wyatt in the Summer side Police Court yesterday morning charged with having liquor in their possession unlawfully. They were fined $10 and costs, each. According to members of the local police force there was more evidence of drunkenness in Summerside on Saturday last than there has been for a long time but the inspectors have to play jokes on others to keep in practice.

ESCAPED PRISONER RECAPTURED.—The man Arsenault, serving a term in the Prince County Jail for molesting women in the vicinity of St. Eleanor's, escaped from the jail on Saturday night at about 9.30 by filling the bars of a lavatory window. Sheriff Wright and a posse after a long search found the man hiding in a hedge near St. Eleanor's, the scene of his former depredations. The belief is that the escaping prisoner had the help of others. The present jailer is Mr. Antoine Arsenault, recently appointed by the Saunders Government, with no experience or other qualifications.

LAST SITTING IN P. E. I.

SOURIS, P. E. I., Oct. 24.—A lobster fishing season from May 5th to June 25th and extensions was advocated by J. W. MacPhee, of Georgetown who appeared before the Royal Commission on Fisheries here today. Mr. MacPhee was one of the delegates representing lobster packers and fisheries of Georgetown.

At a meeting of these packers and fishermen he said the following recommendations were made: A six inch size limit for lobsters, "that is no lobster under six inches in length should be taken." Lobster season from May 5th to June 25th. Appointment of a county inspector for salt and pickled fish. Government survey to locate scallop beds.

FLINT & CO. INC., OF NEW YORK

Internationally Known Bankers, Managers Of Coalinoil Syndicate One Of The Oldest And Most Successful Banking Houses

CHARLES RANLETT FLINT Head of Flint & Company, Inc., Managers Coalinoil Syndicate.

No better proof of the far reaching importance and stability of the Coalinoil Syndicate is needed than the fact that Flint & Company, Inc. of New York, has accepted its management. During the ninety years of its existence, it has made a remarkable record of achievement in every field of activity in which it has engaged and its operations have covered the entire world. Banking, shipping, commerce and industrial enterprise have always been its specialties but it has successfully carried through extremely large and important matters for various Governments. It was paid some $10,000,000 in a single day by the great Rothschild Bank of Paris for service rendered the Russian Government during its war with Japan. After the Brazilian Revolution, it supplied the New Republic with a formidable navy in sixty days. It rendered the United States invaluable service during the Spanish War and its counsel and advice have been repeatedly sought by the United States Government. Flint & Company, Inc., has made over twenty Industrial Consolidations, among which may be mentioned the United States Rubber Company, American Woolen Company, National Starch Company, Clarksburg Fuel Company, American Hawaiian Steamship Company, Fairmount Coal Company, International Business Machines Company, and the Sloss-Sheffield Steel & Iron Company. All of its consolidations have been successful. It has never created a bad security. This alone justifies its record for ability and integrity and is a monument to the character and judgment necessary to carry it through so many transactions of magnitude without making a mistake. Flint & Company, Inc., have been pioneers in many fields of endeavor in which it has devoted its energies and has displayed a courage and judgment seldom equaled. In accepting the responsibility of Syndicate Management, Flint & Company, Inc., have stamped the enterprise with its approval and investors are automatically assured of careful superintendence of the Syndicate funds, and a certainty of honest and intelligent supervision of expenditures and income.
