The Island Cold Storage Company, Charlottetown, are increasing their cold storage space by the addition of a separate building 40 x 50 feet, three stories in length from the basement. Messrs. Lowe Bros have the contract for the work which is getting on well towards completion. A duplicate storage plant has been purchased and is to be installed for use in case of emergency. It will be ready for next spring.

A very happy event took place in St. Dunstons Church, at Peake's Station on Tuesday the 29th of October, when Miss Elsie McDonald of that place was united in marriage to John Doyle of Miramichi, Lot 48, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McDonald. The bride who was becomingly attired in a suit of old rose broadcloth with hat to match, was attended by her sister Miss Elizabeth McDonald while Francis Doyle of Charlottetown supported the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride where dinner was served, after which they drove to the home of the groom, where a large number of friends gathered to receive them and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The numerous and costly presents received testify to the esteem in which they are held in the community. A host of friends extend their heartiest wishes for a happy and successful journey through life.

A Granville correspondent writes that Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly with them. Several shooting parties left at day light to chase the duck and geese, which are very plentiful about the shores at present. The usual large number were reported bagged but it is thought there is still an odd one or two left for an expert marksman. Thanksgiving service will be preached here on Thursday evening by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Gough. F. W. Taylor of Sydney, who has been visiting in Granville for the past two months, the guest of his uncle A. K. Henry, was in Summerside on Tuesday on his way to Cape Breton. Mr. Taylor made many friends during his stay here and reports Granville an ideal spot for a vacation. B. W. Taylor of Kensington spent Thanksgiving at his home here. The winter school term opened this week under the management of Miss Sadie McKenzie. Hedley McKay, and Mervin Taylor, representing Granville Sunday School at the Sunday School Convention in session in Summerside this week. Perleystream Division is very active now and great interest is being taken by the members. A new library has been purchased containing over a hundred books. This library adds much to the interest of the Division here.

RESTORE SHATTERED NERVES BY THE USE

Of Nulife (Red Blood Tablets.)

Those occasional fits of despondency, those nervous headaches and all other disorders of their kind that are wearing down your system and making your life miserable can be promptly and permanently cured.

You didn't think that, did you, but it's true nevertheless! There's a preparation now being sold by our leading druggists that is just the thing you need. It is a high grade nerve tonic that has been only offered to the public after many years of thorough testing and experimenting by the leading physicians, scientists and chemists in the world of medicine.

This preparation is called Nulife (Red Blood Tablets) and its name amply describes it. It gives you new lease of life, fortifies the nervous system and builds up the body by purifying and strengthening the blood, feeding every cell and developing it to its full power. Nulife is a splendid tonic and works so naturally and easily that the most feeble invalid can take it without trouble and the most chronic cases can be promptly benefited.

Nulife (Red Blood Tablets) cost but 50c a box, 3 for $1.25 and 6 for $2.50, and can be had at the following dealers.

JACK JOHNSON IS DEAD ONE IN AUSTRALIA.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 31—Following Hugh McIntosh's decision to call off all arrangements with Jack Johnson, in Australia, on account of the trouble brewing in Chicago in the abduction case, F. Flowers, the vice-president of the State executive council, has made a statement to the effect that Johnson will not be tolerated in Australia.

Mr. Flowers, when interviewed said we do not want a man like Johnson in Australia. The attorney-general, Mr. Holman, is now considering preventing legally from entering the country even without contract with the fight promoter, Mr. McIntosh. I personally trust that Australia has seen the last of this negro.

IN MEMORIAM.

—Mrs. Sarah McIlvrey, widow of the late James McIlvrey, whose home was with her son John, in Malpeque, passed away Oct. 20th at the ripe age of 81. Mrs. McIlvrey was on a visit at the home of her nephew, George McNeil, Spring Valley, where she contracted pneumonia, which, after a short illness of a week, resulted in her death. She was born, brought up and married in Malpeque and had five children, four of which survive her, viz—Mrs. Harry Crossman, of Found's Mills; P. E. I.; Archie, of Oregon; U. S.; John, of Malpeque, and Mrs. Bradford McArthur, of Kensington, P. E. I. William died about twenty years ago. She was connected all her life with the Princetown Presbyterian church, Malpeque, and was greatly respected and highly esteemed by her neighbors and many friends, for hers was an unselfish life and many sick rooms were brightened by her comforting service. As she advanced in years she retained the kind and amiable disposition of her youth and those around her were better because she lived. She was interred in Malpeque cemetery, funeral services being from her own home. Large attendance of friends and relatives. Many sleep, but not forever. In the lone and silent grave Blessed promise they shall waken Jesus died His loved to save.
