

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

WEDDING BELLS.—Ont of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized in St. Malachi's Church Kirkora on Tuesday, Jan. 18th, 1916, when Miss Elizabeth Gorgena Dowson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Edwin Dawson of Augustine Cove was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. George S. McKenna one of Newton's most popular and prosperous young farmers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. McIntyre, the bride who wore a beautiful gown of white satin and overlace with pearl trimmings and bridal veil with wreath of orange blossoms, looking charming as she entered the church looking on the arm of her father who gave her away. The bride was attended by Miss Vina Mullally of Kensington, while the groom was ably supported by his brother Mr. Wallace McKenna. The bridesmaid was handsomely gowned in cream voile over pink satin and large black hat. The wedding march was very skillfully rendered by Mrs. P. McMahon of Emerald. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous dinner was prepared in honour of the occasion. In the evening quite a large number of invited guests assembled and a very enjoyable time was spent in music, dancing, speeches and songs till the wee sma hours of the morning when the guests departed for their homes after heartily thanking Mr. and Mrs. Dawson for their generous hospitality. The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of beautiful and costly presents testifying to the esteem in which they are held by their numerous friends. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold locket and chain to the bridesmaid a gold brooch and to the groomsmen a silk scarf. Their many friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McKenna a long and happy wedded life.

TIRD WORKING MEN
A LOCAL DRUGGIST SUGGESTS A REMEDY FOR OVERWORKED, RUN-DOWN MEN.

The following letter from Manager Hodess recounts the experience and condition of many Charlottetown men. Read this letter and our offer which follows:
Brooklyn, N. Y. "I am a general office manager, and became so nervous and run-down in health that I lost my appetite and finally my health broke down completely, largely because of overwork. I tried Beef Iron and Wine, and other remedies without help. I saw Vinol advertised, and soon after taking it I noticed an improvement. I now have a hearty appetite, sleep better, feel better and have gained considerable in weight." Samuel Hodess, 501 Stone Ave.
The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the three oldest and most famous tonics viz.—the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers without oil, peptonate of iron and beef peptone.
We ask every run-down, overworked man in Charlottetown to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it fails to help them as it did Mr. Hodess.

The groomsmen were Mr. Ed. Knaebone, who performed his duties in a capable manner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. P. McLellan, P. P. of St. Andrews. After the nuptial knot was tied the happy couple left for the home of the bride's mother, where an elaborate wedding dinner awaited them.
