You need only to see them in order to fully appreciate their beauty. If you are going to give a Xmas present we know of a thing so appropriate as one of our choice boxes of confectionery manufactured by Ganong Bros. We also have a full line of mixtures. Call and see our assortment before they are all sold.

His many friends marvel at the splendid health enjoyed by Mr. E. B. Eddy, the match king. The secret of it is probably found in the daily exercise he takes. This morning before 6 o'clock, Mr. Eddy was observed riding on horseback out Chelsea Road. At that hour, few young men were abroad, and fewer still bearing the 74 years Mr. Eddy boasts of. The thermometer was well down below freezing point, a fact, however, which did not dismay Mr. Eddy or deter him from taking his daily ride.

THE annual business meeting of the Charlottetown Teachers Institute held yesterday afternoon in Queen Square School. The plans for the winter's work were discussed. It was decided that the last half hour of each day's meeting be devoted to mutual consideration of work by teachers of corresponding grades. If it were not for a single important ingredient, Park's Perfect Emulsion might not be of any more value than the ordinary Emulsion. But it contains Guaiac, which has been used successfully in treating consumption, coughs, colds, bronchitis, and similar troubles. The efficiency of the drug is increased by its combination emulsion of cod liver oil. In this way Park's has come to be the king of emulsions.

The dwelling owned by Mr. Edward Parkman, of Montague, and occupied by Mr. William Curran, caught fire Thursday night at 9 o'clock. Fortunately the wind was blowing on the river, and as there was considerable snow on the building the fire was prevented from spreading. The house, however, was burned to the ground. Mr. Curran succeeded in saving his effects. In the absence of an efficient fire apparatus the house could not be saved.

DEATH yesterday afternoon called away Hester S. Barnes, wife of Rev. O. P. Emory of this city. Up to about ten weeks ago Mrs. Emory had always enjoyed fairly good health and her death at the age of 67 years will be deeply regretted by a very large circle of friends. Mrs. Emory was the possessor of an amiable and happy disposition; she was a kind hearted and true friend, and those who knew her universally loved and admired her as a christian lady. The remains will be taken to St. John this morning for burial. THE GUARDIAN sympathises with the bereaved husband who feels his loss keenly.

OWING to a snow storm the Princess was detained in Pictou yesterday afternoon for nearly an hour. The passengers consisted largely of students returning from the different colleges for the Christmas holidays. Captain Whittle also returned to the city from Sydney his vessel having been laid up for the winter.

HON. D. A. MCKINNON has received the following letter from the Hon. Israel Tarte, Minister of Public Works:

OFFICE OF THE MINISTER OF PUBLIC WORKS OF CANADA,
OTTAWA, Dec. 16th, 1911.
D. A. MCKINNON, Esq.,
Charlottetown, P. E. I.

MY DEAR MR. MCKINNON,—I am very glad indeed that you called my attention to the question of the establishment of the Marconi system between Cape Tormentine and Cape Traverse. But the establishment of the system would not lead to very satisfactory results, unless the Government would have a telegraphic system in connection with the Marconi. I do not think that we would have much trouble in establishing the Marconi system between Cape Tormentine and Cape Traverse, as we are successfully establishing the Marconi between Belle Isle and the North Shore, a distance of twenty-two miles.
I will discuss that matter with some of my officers, and I hope that you will come and see me at the opening of the Session.
Yours truly,
J. ISRAEL TARTE.
