

Final Notice!

We do not wish a lot of unpaid accounts to retard the winding up of our business, and we fully realize the great convenience and loss in collecting accounts after a business is closed up. We therefore ask those indebted to us who are friendly enough disposed to pay us amounts due, to please do so before January 10, after which date we shall be obliged to ask the assistance of the courts in collecting from those who are not so disposed.

Valentines Shortis the Valleyfield Murderer Viciously Attached in Kingston Penitentiary Assailed By Murderer Troy Two Men Quarrelled

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 3.—In the insane ward of the penitentiary Saturday afternoon a murderous attack was made on Valentine Shortis the young Irishman who committed a brutal murder in Valleyfield, fifteen years ago. His assailant was John Troy, who in cold blooded murder had Angus McLeod in Nanapanee, over ten years ago when committing bur-

A WAY TO BETTER BREAD.

God housekeepers, it is said, are known by the bread and pastry they provide for their homes. When we come to think of it, is there any one thing in which a housekeeper should excel in which she should take more pride—than in her snowy, delicious, wholesome homemade bread?

Any woman can make white, light, nourishing bread. One of the commonest causes of failures in the baking is the use of poor flour. Flour made of Ontario fall wheat alone, though nutritious and faultless as to flavor, is not strong enough. Manitoba wheat, on the other hand, is deficient in fine flavor and delicacy, although full of strength.

A blend of the two has been found to give wonderful results. This does not say that you can mix them at home, it is difficult to do that except with the finest and most delicate machinery. Many of the best millers are blending the rich Ontario fall wheat with the dainty Manitoba wheat thus bringing out all the good qualities of both.

With this Ontario Blended Flour, you will have no trouble in making light white bread—bread with that peculiarly sweet, wholesome taste which one naturally associates with home-made bread.

Both Shortis and Troy are of un-sound mind and have been in the insane ward for some time. Shortis was transferred here from St. Vincent de Paul several years ago, because of apparent insanity. The murderers who came together quite often in the amusement room have had several disputes and have more than once come to blows. On Saturday they quarrelled again. Suddenly Troy drew a thick piece of steel wire and made an attack on Shortis. He stabbed Shortis in the face close to the mouth, in the shoulder and also in the back, when he tried to get away.

Shortis is a much bigger man than Troy but the latter is vicious when his temper is aroused. Guards quickly appeared and took Troy away. Had he been given a chance he might have ended the career of Shortis. The wounds were found not serious, and Shortis will be around in a day or two.

The wire which Troy used had been sharpened at one end. He had got hold of it in the same mysterious way that other prisoners secure weapons and concealed it on his person with the evident intent of doing mischief.

THE HINDOO CONGRESS ENDS IN FREE FIGHT

Delegates Smash the Furn- and Batter Each Other With the Pieces

SURAT, Bombay, Jan. 1.—After two days of futile efforts to elect a president the Indian National Congress broke up early this morning in a free fight during which the police had to be called in.

The Congress which meets annually was of special interest this year owing to the agitation for the home rule in India. When the delegates assembled yesterday the Moderates and Extremists at once locked horns on the issue and the meeting was adjourned amid disorder. When the delegates reassembled today, their second time and the platform from rushed by the Extremists in a body who loudly demanded the speedy establishment of home rule.

Chairs and tables were broken in the scrimmage and other pieces of shattered furniture were used by the other. The fighting became fierce and many delegates sustained serious injuries before the police finally came in and cleared the hall.
