IN GOD'S GOOD TIME
 In God's good time we'll see the reason why
 To some He gives, to others must deny.
 We will not think it strange, or wonder then
 Why different gifts he gives to different men.
 In God's good time the feet we thought so strong We'll find could not have run the journey long;
 The willing hand had palsied e're it wrought
 In mercy God denied them that what they sought.
 In God's good time the will that was most weak
 We'll learn was stayed by Cross it did not seek;
 The careless heart had trifled all its days;
 In mercy God with shadows spread their ways.
 In God's good time we'll thank Him for our share
 Of burdens, that to others were no

CORNWALL CHRISTMAS CONCERT
 The annual concert and Christmas tree promoted by the Sunday School and Mission Band of the Cornwall Methodist Church was held on Monday evening, Dec. 23rd. The evening was an ideal one in regard to the weather and roads and the light of the Christmas moon. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and a number could not find admittance.
 The program consisting of twenty-five items, singing, dialogues, recitations, various choruses, motion exercises, marching pieces, duets and quartettes was all rendered in such a way as to captivate and interest everyone. Great and deserved credit is due Mrs. Frank Howard, the church organist, Mrs. W. W. Crosby so well known as an elocutionist, Miss Fanny Boyle president of the Mission Band and Mrs. Pope Crosby president of the Woman's Missionary Society, for their labors in training the children and young people and most assuredly these they trained acquitted themselves in a way to bring honor to themselves as well as their teachers. It seems hardly right to single out any items but a duet in which Mrs. Frank Howard and Alfred Thorpe a student of Mount Allison University joined in rendering Matheson's touching hymn, "O Lord that will not let me go" was very impressive. A quartette entitled "From all that dwell beyond the skies" in which Mrs. Hammond Crosby, Mrs. Frank Howard and Mrs.
 Howard Hyde participated, was also rendered in a very striking way.
 The evening passed all too swiftly and everyone realized that they had listened to a refined and interesting and instructive entertainment. The pastor Rev. George Orman presided and the proceedings terminated in the hearty singing of God Save the King followed by the Benediction.
 Mention must be made of the Christmas tree with its lights and decorations and bags of candy for the children, the candy being homemade and excellent and donated by some of the young lady members. The Christmas tree was transplanted from its native quarters by the general and hard-working friend of the children Frank Howard.
