AGONIZING ITCHING BURNING ECZEMA

Affected Whole System—Could Not Sleep Nights—Lost Flesh and All Run Down—Advised by a Friend to Try Cuticura and Now Gladly Recommends

CUTICURA REMEDIES TO ALL SUFFERERS

"I write you to say I am cured of eczema, and can say that I owe it to the Cuticura Remedies, and I gladly recommend them to all suffering with any form of eczema. For four long months I suffered agony and an itching and burning feeling which affected my whole system, so as I could not sleep nights, and I did not care to go into public, as I would have no ease. I lost flesh and was all run down. I tried everything I could think of and also everything that was advertised, but got no relief, until I was advised by a friend to try Cuticura, which I did, and can truthfully say I got immediate relief. I would gladly recommend Cuticura to any one suffering as I did with eczema, and can verify my statement by members and also intimate friends of my family. I trust that this testimonial may be of some benefit to persons suffering with any skin disease." Chester A. Bailey, 180A Highland Avenue, Somerville, Mass., Oct. 17, 1905.

CURED AT SMALL EXPENSE

"When an infant I had a bad humor on my head, for which I was treated with Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and now I have a good head of hair and the humor is entirely gone. It only required one box of Ointment and one cake of Soap to effect a cure. I send this with my permission to publish." Miss Iz. McNaughton, June 13, 1905. Complete External and Internal Treatment for every form of Cutaneous Disease, including Eczema, Psoriasis, and Ringworm, is given by Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, which are sold by all druggists. A single set often cures the most obstinate cases, when all other remedies fail. See the testimonials in the "Pill Book" and "Ointment Book," sent free on request. Write for them to "Cuticura," P. O. Box 103, Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

WHERE THE KING KEEPS HIS CLOTHES

The Extent of His Majesty's Wardrobe—Hundreds of Different Uniforms—How the Different Uniforms and Suits are Kept His Majesty has Never Tried on.

LONDON, April 18.—Wherever he goes and whatever he does, His Majesty King Edward is followed by the eyes of all his people, who like to know everything he does, everything he says, everything he eats, and who would like, no doubt, to be able to include everything he thinks. But although they carefully read the accounts of his various public appearances in England or in other countries, and admire his photographs in various costumes, from the Highland kilt to that of an honorary officer in the regiment of some Continental country, it hardly ever occurs to anyone to wonder where and how the enormous quantity of clothes is kept which must necessarily be ready to hand for whatever purpose may be demanded by unforeseen circumstances. If His Majesty pays a visit, for instance, to France, he may not know of all the functions that he will be called upon to grace with his presence, yet when the occasion arises he is there in the particular dress which is required, whether it is that of a colonel of some regiment he is called upon to inspect, or of a naval officer when he visits the fleet. Literally there are some hundreds of different uniforms, in addition to ordinary costumes, which the King may have occasion to don at some time or another, and in order to make certain that the particular dress required may be found at a moment's notice, the most careful organization and arrangement is necessary. The headquarters of the royal wardrobe are at Buckingham Palace, where a large room is devoted entirely to the storage of articles of wearing apparel, which are carefully tended and cared for by a special staff of valets. Each suit of the wardrobe is devoted to a different country, the sections being in turn subdivided into shelves and drawers, each devoted to some special regiment, etc., in which His Majesty holds honorary rank. Almost every country in the world has its own special section, which is so arranged that if the King is about to visit that country the head valet can instantly lay

ADVERTISING IS BROAD

Advertising in itself means publicity and publicity is a very broad and comprehensive term. It does not mean simply a word whispered to a favored few. It is, rather, synonymous with a general, broadcast declaration, and the broader the scope of the announcement, the better the advertising. No occupation space that directs attention along given and desired lines can be reasonably regarded as wasted; or can any funds expended to this end be adjudged extravagance.—American Medical Journal

Tumors Conquered Without Operations

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Cases of Mrs. Fox and Miss Adams.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor. Socalled "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive monthly periods accompanied by unusual pain extending from the abdomen through the groin and thighs. If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once and begin its use and write Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for advice. Read these strong letters from grateful women who have been cured: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—(First Letter.) "In looking over your book I see that your medicine cures tumors. I have been to a doctor and he tells me I have a tumor. I will be more than grateful if you can help me, as I do so dread an operation."—Fannie D. Fox, Bradford, Pa. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—(Second Letter.) "I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my periods stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor and would have to undergo an operation. I soon after read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking five bottles as directed, the tumor is entirely gone. I have again been examined by the physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my periods around once more; and I am entirely well. I shall never be without a bottle of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house."—Fannie D. Fox, Bradford, Pa. Another Case of Tumor Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "About three years ago I had intense pain in my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches. The doctor prescribed for me, but finding that I did not get any better he examined me and, to my surprise, declared I had a tumor. "I felt sure that it meant my death warrant, and was very disheartened. I spent hundreds of dollars in doctoring, but the tumor kept growing, till the doctor said that nothing but an operation would save me. Fortunately I corresponded with my aunt in the New England States, who advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before submitting to an operation, and I at once started taking a regular treatment, finding to my great relief that my general health began to improve, and after three months I noticed that the tumor had reduced in size. I kept on taking the Compound, and in ten months it had entirely disappeared without an operation, and using no medicine but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and words fail to express how grateful I am for the good it has done me."—Miss Luella Adams, Colman Hotel, Seattle, Wash. Such unquestionable testimony proves the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman. Mrs. Pinkham invites all ailing women to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; a Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.
