Korman Wins Main Evens Of Wrestling Card; Hughes And Lortie Battle To A Draw

In what was probably the best and most largely attended wrestling match ever staged in the City of "Dynamite" Korman of London, England, last night defeated "Tuffy" Cleet in the main event of the Sporting Club's card.

rough and ready all the way. Korman was in a nasty humor this time and right from the start had Cleet on the defensive. He punished him with a variety of arm locks and leg spreads...

Main Event In the main event between Korman and Cleet two of the biggest men ever to take part in a "bout" were, look the other way, from referee Jackie Nichols, who incidentally handled both matches and made a fine job of it.

The second fall saw the two hit a high tempo of action. No quarter was asked and none given all through the fall as both tore into each other. Both were hurt at times and the end came suddenly...
