A VALUABLE PRIZE CONTEST

The Guardian Has Secured the Right to Offer Subscribers a Bible Study Competition Without Cost to Competitors

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the International Newspaper Bible Study Club Lessons each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1908. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. They will be published each week in the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily. Only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There is no fee for entrance, and no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prizes without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS, BIBLES, BOOKS.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes. Sunday School teachers, Bible questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study Club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a Local Club, and take up the simple course herein outlined, barring no one. Although with their sympathetic co-operation, it is not considered fair to have them compete for the prizes. It is however desirable that the Class scholars, and church goers generally, may belong to this newspaper Club, also non-churchgoers, of all shades of opinion. All such who do so and compete for the prizes. The Guardian is authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantees to all who join and fulfill the conditions, that everything here promised shall be faithfully carried out.

1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be paid in advance subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and the Local Club.

2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, August 23rd and the answers must all be in possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must contain more than two hundred words and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches.

4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, together with the date label of a current issue of The Guardian so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name will be cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.

5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verse or verses, upon which the question is based.

6. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to The Guardian office, and they will be collected at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this local Club will be given out from this office.

PRIZES.
First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.
Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.
Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.

Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 to each of the next thirty-five contestants.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner and for what it is awarded, and in the like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed.

All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoning ideas.

Suggestive Questions.
September 13, 1908.

David made King Over Judah and Israel. II Sam. 2:1-7; 5:1-5.

Golden Text—David went on and grew great, and the Lord God of Hosts was with him. II Sam. vii. 10.

Verse 1.—Did David expect a definite and clear-cut answer from the Lord in response to his enquiry?

What method did God probably take to answer David's two matter-of-fact questions?

Is it reasonable, or is it fanatical, to expect God to definitely answer similar matter-of-fact questions today?

If our first answer from God is not clear and full, ought we to keep on asking until we are satisfied? (See I Sam. iii:24, xiv:37, xlii:2, iv:9-12.)

Verse 2.—Was God pleased or displeased with David for having so many wives?

What is the evidence, from the Bible, that God has planned for one man to be the husband only of one wife?

Is polygamy always wrong, and monogamy always right, under any and all circumstances, and why?

Verse 3.—How long before this did David know that he was going to be king? I. Sam. xvi:1-13.

Does God ever give a personal promise in these days, and will He ever fail in its fulfillment?

Verse 5.—What can you say in commendation of the spirit shown by David in this event?

What are the chief human qualities which are necessary in order to have success in life?

Chapter 5.
Verse 1.—Why did not God make David king of Israel, at the time he made him king of Judah, eight years previously?

Can God always bring things to pass, when he desires, regardless of what men do?

Why is it, and is it always right, that we should favor those who are "our bone and flesh" more than we do others?

Verse 2.—Is real ability and merit always, or generally, rewarded in this world?

To what extent does it depend upon ourselves as to our promotion or success in life? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the Club.)

Verse 3.—God had planned that David should be king over all Israel, has He in like manner a plan for the life of every man?

Need there be any doubt on the part of any of us, that we shall fulfill our high destiny in life?

Verse 4.—At what period in life is a healthy man at his best?

How would you sum up the results of David's reign?

What is your estimate of David's character as an individual man? Lesson for Sunday, September 20, 1908, is the Review for the past quarter.

SUFFERED TORTURES FOR 70 YEARS

Wife of a Prominent Physician Tells How She Was Cured.

"I, Mrs. J. R. Flock is the widow of one of the best known physicians in London, Ontario. She was treated by her husband and many other medical men yet never received any lasting benefit. Just by accident she tried a well-known remedy, and now, after 70 years of suffering, she is well. Read her letter to Fruit-a-tives Limited.

"Dear Sirs,—Since my early childhood (and I am now in my seventy-third year) I have suffered indescribable torment from stomach trouble and indigestion, complicated with liver disorders. Being the wife of a prominent physician (the late Dr. J. R. Flock), I, naturally enough, had a prejudice against proprietary remedies. I was, however, unable to benefit to any great extent through my lifetime, from taking the ordinary remedies of physicians, being constantly in delicate health from stomach disorder and vomiting. Accidentally I came into possession of a sample of "Fruit-a-tives"—tried them, and found myself wonderfully benefitted. I take them now as my only medicine and they are keeping me in the most satisfactory health.

After finding out the wonderful medicinal qualities of "Fruit-a-tives" I have recommended them to many of my friends and acquaintances, who have also had the best results from their use—and one lady friend that I have recently recommended them to, has suffered constantly and was unable to procure any remedy that would relieve her. She is now taking "Fruit-a-tives" and is cured.

I am glad to be able to recommend "Fruit-a-tives" and will be glad if you will use my name in any way that will be the means of bringing your remedy before the public."
