

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

George D. Pope of Ottawa, is in the City.

Walter Simpson, Bay View, was in the City yesterday.

The temperature registered fifty five degrees yesterday.

The Northumberland arrived in Charlottetown at eight forty last evening.

Rev. Ms. McKenzie was a passenger on the Murray Harbor train from this City yesterday.

A. Bolsoner of Souris, has removed to Charlottetown and intends taking up his business as an auctioneer.

Robert Tomlins of New York is visiting in this City.

W. F. Boggis, engineer of the Souris wharf is in the City.

Rev. P. D. McGuigan was a passenger east from this City yesterday.

The schooner H. H. Chamberlain, arrived yesterday from New York with hard coal for A. Pickard & Co.

The tide will be high this morning at eleven fifteen and at noon tomorrow.

Schr. "Myrtle May" is discharging for A. Duchemin & Co., City.

Rev. George E. Ross, who has been absent for the past weeks will occupy the Zion Church pulpit at both services Sunday.

The peace officers raided the premises of Albert McKinnon at St. Stewart on Wednesday last. Some samples of beer were taken for analysis.

John Anderson of Queens Arms, paid his fine of one hundred dollars and costs for a first offence of the Prohibition Act, and has been released from jail.

Rev. Mr. McNeill was a passenger on the Murray Harbor train from this City to his home in Mt. Stewart. Mr. McNeill has been attending the Synod at Truro and reports a very profitable and enjoyable session.

Miss Haslam, City, left yesterday on a short visit to her home in Springfield.

Black oats are selling in this city at thirty-eight cents and white at thirty-six cents per bushel.

Very little pork is moving at present and for what is, buyers are paying from eight to eight and a half cents.

James A. Mason and bride who were married in New Glasgow, N. S., last week are in this province on their wedding trip.

Hay was selling yesterday on the market square at forty-eight to fifty four cents per cwt and straw at twenty five to thirty cents.

At the opening football game in Halifax last week between the Wanderers and Crescents resulted in a victory for the former, the score being three to nothing, in the Wanderers' line up was Dorsey of Charlottetown, who played on the Abegweit team last season.

John E. Kelly, and his daughter, Miss Josephine who have been visiting in the former's parents, Edward and Mrs. Kelly, Charlottetown have returned to Boston. Mr. Kelly is a prominent contractor, and one of the many Islanders who have done well in the neighboring republic.

A lecture and magic lantern entertainment was given in Hartney Hall on Wednesday evening last. The lecture was much appreciated by those present. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment was the torch swinging by L. W. Archibald, Y. M. C. A. secretary of this city.

Among the passengers by the Northumberland last night were Rev. George E. Ross and little son, City, Rev. Mr. Murray, T. C. James and several other ministers all of whom were attending the Synod at Truro, and Mr. McDonald of McDonald and Moffatt, contractor, of the Summerside breakwater.

Yesterday was a record breaker for Paton & Co's election coupons. They are pouring in from all quarters and the interest is increasing steadily day by day. One thing should be remembered in connection with this competition viz. In case of two estimates being alike, first prize will be awarded to the first correct estimate received. Do not forget to address all estimates as follows: "Election estimate" Guardian Office, Charlottetown.

The students attending College in this city were given a social time in the First Methodist Church last night. Rev. H. E. Thomas occupied the chair. A very enjoyable program was rendered. Among the specialties was the music given by the orchestra under the direction of Prof. Watts and the refreshments served by the ladies consisting of lemonade and cake. The college boys were not slow in showing their colors and giving their college yell.

There was a lively chase at Scotchfort recently when the peace officers attempted to arrest Joseph Whear for a prohibition offence. Mr. Whear was called on about the hour of retirement and on sight of the officers speedily started on a ghostly looking flight being only partly clothed. It is reported the victim intentionally or unintentionally led the officers into trouble by lightly scaling a wire fence into which the officers ran, but fortunately escaped serious injury. The last seen of Mr. Whear was two shining spots as his legs swiftly carried him to safety.

The following is taken from the St. John Globe: R. J. MacDonald, of Butte, formerly of Charlottetown, P. E. I., has been in Los Angeles with his bride, who was a Miss Largey, one of the heirs of the Largey estate, valued at $18,000,000. Mr. MacDonald was educated at Antigonish, was well acquainted in St. John; his parents are still living at Charlottetown. He will be remembered the papers some time since gave detailed accounts of a hack driver running away with a helress. This is the couple, but Mr. MacDonald is no hack driver, but a man of education and good appearance.

The P. W. C. students played a game of football yesterday at the U. A. A. grounds. The teams were first and third years against second year. A short time after 4 o'clock the teams were called out by referee Prof. A. W. Seaman. The only score made was in the first half in which H. Stanley made a clean run and secured a touchdown for first and third year. In the last half it was a steady struggle, the ball remaining always near the centre of the field except when the game was called off the ball was again near the second year touch line. It was a good clean game and the only mar was a slight drizzle which made footing difficult. The score was 3 to 0 in favor of first and third year. It is the intention of the students to play several like games this season.

Paris for Millinery Styles Prowse's for Stylish Millin

our fall and winter millinery for this season. It was the greatest and grandest display that we have ever had. The display of beautiful American Model Hats not an indiscriminal lot of freakish affairs that no sensible woman would wear but a cheerfully selected collection of practical Hats charming in style and exclusive elegance to be sure but of a character that will appeal to women of refined taste. These are the sorts of Hats into which the American Milliners put their best efforts. No wonder the ladies of Charlottetown were delighted with them.

Side by side with these imported models are the creations of our own Milliners and no worthier companion for them could be found anywhere. Like all Hats these are marked by a charming individuality that makes them irresistibly attractive. Of course prices—as is always the case here—are exceptionally moderate
