THE only business done with the first session of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars at Montague on Thursday last was the conferring of the Grand Lodge degree upon forty three delegates and the opportunity of the committees. At the afternoon session the annual reports of the Grand Chief Templar, T. S. Robertson; Grand Secretary S. E. Hulph, and Grand Supt. of Juvenile Templars, Miss A. E. Horton, were read,—all showing the Order to be in a prosperous condition, the latest reported membership on April 30th last being 1307. All the reports made feeling reference to the death of Wallace Fraser whose work for the Order had brought him into prominence and his many qualities and sailing character had endeared him to every one. The Grand Chief referred to the prohibition victories in the several counties, and expressed the hope that no mistake would be made in the appointment of officers to enforce the law. Sidney Purdy, Grand Treas. of the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, was then introduced and made a most interesting address; he was warmly applauded. The report of the Finance Com. was read by the chairman, J. G. McLennan, which showed the receipts for the year including the balance on hand from last year to be $358.50 the expenditure was $503.03 leaving a balance on hand of $85.57. The salary of the Grand Secretary is $10.00 for the ensuing year and a donation of $10.00 was voted to the Past Grand Chief Templar. The public meeting in the evening was quite a success notwithstanding the many other attractions. Martin McKinnon P. G. C. occupied the chair. An address of welcome on behalf of the people of Montague to the Grand Lodge was given by the Rev. L. J. Wason, and replied to by the Rev. A. E. McPherson. Other addresses were delivered by Sidney Purdy and T. S. Robertson. Several splendid readings were given by delegates, while music under the direction of Prof. Theakston, was an important part of the program. A solo by Miss Hazel Dewar was brightly enjoyed by the audience.

NEW ENGLAND'S COAST RESORTS Biston & Maine R. R. Literature Which Describes and Details The North Shore Beaches.

The call from the seashore has already answered! Vacation dreams were planted months ago but the advent of hot weather and the attractiveness of city heat have set in bloom and matured the early seedlings and budding plans of previous days. Vacation resorts are fast preparing, and in a short while the coast of Northern New England, from Boston Harbor to the Bay of Fundy, will be welcoming the resorters. Massachusetts has certainly a gay procession of seashore resorts. The North Shore, whose unbounded fame gains year by year, boasts of everything that is best in the seashore line—Swampscott with its magnificent palatial summer hotels and delightful opportunities for bathing; Marblehead, famed for its spacious harbor where congregate the fleets of summer yachtsmen and the admirable location of the summer colony at the Neck; Beach Bluff, Orlon, Devereaux, Manchester, Magnolia, Gloucester, Rockport, Plum Island and Salisbury Beach; New Hampshire has not so much to offer in her shore resorts as to number, but the beauty and attractions of Hampton and Rye, the fame of New Castle with its never to be forgotten "Peace Conference Association" well balance any laxity in number. Maine is the premier shore land of the United States. Her entire coast from Kittery to Eastport is a sketch of broken coast land which forms beautiful harbors and coves, the most magnificent summer resorts to be found anywhere. York, Old Orchard, the Queen of the North Atlantic beaches, Scarborough, Wells, Kennebunk, Peaks Island and so on to Bar Harbor, Maine's shore possesses some numerous and attractive. In order to fully appreciate the glories of New England's coast, one should spend a vacation at some of these resorts. The Boston & Maine R. R. will give you all the necessary directions. In the Hotel Booklet for 1906 will be found a list of all the shore resorts, their hotels and accommodations, and a beautifully illustrated and descriptive booklet called "All Along Shore," describing in detail the glories of Effervescent Fruit Salt—Our own make—Nothing like it for disordered stomach and impure blood. Gives a clear complexion and insures good health. Only 25c per bottle—A. W. Reddin, Pharm-B-Sunnyside.

G. F. Hutcheson, Jeweller and Optician.

The North Atlantic Coast, will be sent upon receipt of a two-cent stamp. The Hotel Booklet will be sent free by the General Passenger Department, Boston & Maine R. R., Boston. A delightfully illustrated portfolio containing thirty-one beautiful half tone reproductions of the choicest views along the shore will be mailed upon receipt of six cents in stamps.
