Have you ever tried it?

It may seem hard to believe, but there actually are people who have never tried King Cole—people who have read about it for twenty years.

Most people who try King Cole like it better than any other tea.

Probably those who have never tried it would prefer it too.

But until they try it, how will they ever know?

MURRAY HARBOR NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. William MacKay were visitors with friends and relatives at Murray Harbor South recently.

Mr. William C. O. McLure who has spent some months at his boyhood home here left on Monday morning to take a position with the fertilizer company that is commencing operations in Charlottetown.

Mr. William Kennedy has been on the sick list for the past few days and confined to bed the most of the time but we hope he will soon be around again.

Mr. Herman Gill was a recent visitor to Johnston's River.

Mr. James Connolly, Iona, was a recent visitor to Elliotville.

Mrs. James Graham and Mrs. Harry Reid spent part of Sabbath last at the home of their father Mr. Edward Henderson where Mrs. Henderson is still in bed as a result of her fall a fortnight ago.

Nearly all our potato farmers here are busy drawing out the crop these days. Travel on the ice is good to Murray River though the travelled roads are full of pitch holes. It has been quite cold weather but not cold enough to freeze the potatoes that are well covered up during the time of transit.

Mr. and Mrs. White of Georgetown were in our neighborhood on Saturday last combining a trip of business and pleasure.

The Gulf is filled as far out as one can see with large masses of floating ice. Our oldest residents say they have never seen so much of it.
