Miss Abbie Martin left last week for return to Carnduff, Sask., via Chicego and St Paul, after spending the past five months visiting her parents D. and Mrs Martin, Hunter River.

The C. G. S. Minto leaves this morning for the Straits of Belle Isle where she goes to supply lighthouse and to bring Marconi operators from the stations where they have been working all summer.

A. Horne & Co, City, have in stock and to arrive a large quantity of the leading brands of flour and feed which they are selling at lowest price wholesale and retail, as will be seen by their ad which appears elsewhere.

Citizens of Charlottetown will receive with pleasure of the presentation made by the Pictou Glee Club, which appears elsewhere, to Frank T. Watkin, now organist and choir instructor of St James Presbyterian Church in this City.

Captain Brown, City, lately of the C. G. S. Stanley, came over by the Northumberland from Sydney last night to join his ship the C. G. S. Earl Grey, to which he has received the appointment as Captain. He will take command at once.

Program Bijou Tonight:—1 Briton and Beer war, (New); (A Thrilling war scene); 2. The Gusion Goddess (Comedy); 3. What's your Hurry (Comedy); Song. By special request Dublin Daisies. Entire change of program tomorrow night.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I." and on the left hand corner of the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "News" according to the contents.

The Bijou was again crowded last night, and their patrons witnessed a very good program. The Briton and Beer War, a magnificent war scene, won large applause and was appreciated by every one. The Gusion Goddess and What's Your Hurry, two good comedies, took the house by storm. Mrs H. Streeter, and Master H. Phillips sang Dublin Daisies, which proved to be a favorite.

In the morning service Sunday, Rev T. W. Murphy was formally inducted as Rector of St. Paul's Church in this city. The simple ceremony was performed by the Rev Archbishop Reagh and the church wardens. The Archbishop preached from the text I Peter 5: Feed the flock of God, which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly—not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind, neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being examples to the flock," and, Thess 5:12 and 13. "And we beseech you brethren to know them that labor among you, and are over you in the Lord and admonish you; and to esteem them very highly in love for their works sake, and be at peace among yourselves."

Colin C. Campbell, who has been absent from this Province for about forty years is now visiting his sister, Mrs John T. Bonnell, Murray River. Mr Campbell is a mill wright and has resided in Gravenhurst, Ont, since leaving this Province. He is very much impressed with the progress attained in all lines since his departure from the Province and is greatly enjoying himself renewing old acquaintances.

In yesterday morning's Guardian it is stated that the Abegweit Athletic Club had given a dinner in honor of van Reddin in the Stratheona Hotel. This statement was not wholly correct as it should have read to show that the dinner was given by the members of the senior Football and senior hockey teams and was given in honor of S. F. Doyle as well as Ivan Reddin. The former leaves shortly for the Canadian west.

In the County Court yesterday before Stipendiary McDonald the case of Malcolm Bell vs John D. and William McFarlane, for assault was heard. The parties are all from South Melville and the action is the result of a weaponsless duel brought on by a challenge in which the smaller of the two men came out the victor. After hearing the evidence offered his Honor reserved judgment. A. A. McLean, K. C., for Plaintiff and J. J. Chuson, K. C., for defendants.

At the City Police Court yesterday one drunk, Bradford King was fined ten dollars or twenty days. Two small boys, Richard and Francis Ieron, brothers, aged eight and ten respectively, were given in charge of their teachers and were instructed to attend school every day. They pleaded guilty to the charge of breaking the tombstones in the old Roman Catholic Cemetery.
