

No Cascaret User Ever Has Headache

A 10 cent box will keep your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure, and fresh for months.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foal breath—always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Salts, cathartic pills, oil and purgative waters force a passage way for a day or two—but they don't take away the poisons out and have no effect upon the liver or stomach.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means inside cleanliness and a clear head for months. Ask any of the millions of Cascarets users if they ever have headache.

A FEAST OF REASON

There are few Canadian publications so well worth while as "World Wide," which is a weekly reprint of articles and cartoons from the leading journals and reviews reflecting the current thought of both hemispheres.

Without wisdom of its own, "World Wide" reflects the wisdom of the age—the day—the hour—the moment. Without opinions of its own, "World Wide" beats to the tick of modern British and American thought. "World Wide" finds a welcome place on the study table. Business men, preachers, teachers, writers, and thinking people in all walks of life hail it as a most delightful visitor.

An effort is made to select the articles each week so that the proportion is given to the various fields of humane interest to the shifting scenes of the world's drama. Letters and science, and beautiful things.

There is no paper more acceptable than "World Wide" to the busy man or woman who wants to keep in touch with the world's thinking, and many of "World Wide's" readers would heartily endorse the words of one of them who says "almost every article in almost every issue you feel you would like to show to a friend or put away among our treasures. Of another, "World Wide" is a mine of information, 'good to have, hard to do without'.

If you do not know "World Wide" personally, the publishers will gladly send samples free of charge on application. "World Wide" sells at five cents (5c) per copy, but the yearly subscription is only $1.50 a year. On one year's trial to new subscribers, only $1.00, by mentioning this paper. THE NEW YEAR.

Roll on thou ceaseless ocean of the Years.
And while Thy ebb has borne the Old away.
Upon Thy flood, the bright New Year appears.
Farewell the Old!—like you, we also must decay.

Roll on Thou sea of Time and bear.
Upon thy breast a year of joy and peace;
May all our fields abundant harvests rear
And in the land all was-like actions cease.

May charity and love supply the power
To soothe and stay contention at its birth.
Like Heav'n's 'bright bow, succeeding to the shower
A bow of Peace encompass all the earth.

Roll on thou long procession of the years.
We know thy source—'Tis him who ever guides
Thy endless course through time and tears
And to thy volume, living force supplies.

May we all learn this truth, that Time is Life.
And frame a ladder of the flying hours
To reach that Land where all is pure and bright
Where Virtue blooms in everlasting flowers.

Edmond Rice.

More Money for the Small Dealers

The big man isn't big in spite of the telephone—it's because of it, to a certain extent.

If you're satisfied with the profits your great-grandfather made, if you just want to eke out a bare existence from your business, if more business don't look good to you—well, a phone will be just in the way—a bothersome ornament.

But, mark it down plain, if you want more business, a larger and better class of customers, straight tips on all the markets, the most profitable of inside information and the respect of your customers and envy of your competitors—in short if you want success—you'll see what we can do for you, and you won't waste time over it either.

The phone will bring you business—it will prove its worth in better returns, in actual additional cash in your till.

Let Contract Dept. prove these facts to you.
