The latest news first of all. The Cherry Valley butter factory closed for the season last week.

Miss Ellen Cummissey, City, left yesterday for New York. The tide will be high this afternoon at 2.36 and tomorrow afternoon at 3.35.

Charles Kelly, merchant at Lake Verde, was in the city yesterday. Lewis Trueman, Searletown, leaves this morning to attend the Amherst Winter Fair.

Miss Locke, Summerside, was a passenger to this City by the Northumberland last night. Mrs. George McKinnon, Montague, is visiting her sister Mrs. A. J. McLaine, Prince Street.

Rev. Father Gillis, St. Peter's, was a passenger by the Northumberland to this City last night. His Lordship Bishop McDonald, was a passenger to this city last night by the Northumberland.

The tern schooner John Hopkins, is discharging a cargo of crescent piles for Messrs Reid and Archibald. It should attract the thoughtful—The lecture by Dr. McLaughlin on "Tuberculosis" in the Baptist School Room Monday evening, Nov. 30.

John McQuaid, Station Agent at Bear River, was a passenger east from this City yesterday on return home. On Monday Mrs. Clay, New York, and Mrs. McBeath, Moncton, daughters of the late Angus Brien, Victoria, leave on return to their homes.

Rev. T. F. and Mrs. Fullerton, City were passengers by the Northumberland from Picton on return home last night. No doubt very many will take advantage of the opportunity to hear Dr. McLaughlin speak in the Baptist Schoolroom, Monday evening, Nov. 30. A very important subject. The White Man's Plague.

Miss Burlinget, who has been spending the summer with friends in this city left yesterday morning for her home in Three Rivers, Que. Mrs. Frederick Wright, Linkletter, returned Thursday morning from the F. E. Island Hospital, where she underwent treatment for throat trouble. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that she is greatly improved and in a fair way to complete recovery.

Any person having a small second hand safe, in good condition, to dispose of should write Q. P. O. Box 1230 at once giving particulars. Contractor Stover has resumed work at Earncliffe. Eighteen hundred feet of casing was down last Tuesday and on Thursday the drill was again started.

George McDonald, who has been visiting his parents in this City, leaves Monday on return to his duties in the Royal Bank of Canada in Ingersoll, Ont. Yesterday The Guardian was visited by one of the North Shore fishermen who had for sale at the fish market, fresh codfish caught Thursday. The visitor said, Oct. 29th, a year ago was the last day fresh fish were brought to the city and the oldest fishermen of the North Shore do not remember of such a long and favorable fishing season as this. It is the sign of a mild winter.

At the Y. M. L. A., recital on Dec. 7th, in St. James church, Miss Bremner with other noted singers will each contribute a solo during the evening. "The Death Knell of the Saloon," will be the theme of the sermon at Baptist Church tomorrow, Sunday evening. This is the world's temperance Sunday.

A very interesting letter just received by Carter & Co., Ltd., from Santa Clause stating that he has made their firm his headquarters will appear in Monday's issue. Advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in for the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily not later than ten a. m. on Friday of each week as part of the big Saturday issue is printed on Friday.

At the Unique theatre last evening crowds were present to see the "bright and catchy pictures shown. There was lots of comic interspersed with the specialties were exceptionally bright and greeted with rounds of applause. A telegram was received in this yesterday by Mayor Prowse from the Rhodes Currie Co., Amherst, stating that Joseph McIsaac, a son of Neil McIsaac, formerly of Rocky Point, but now of this City had been fatally injured in the lumber woods in that vicinity.

The pictures at New Wonderland last evening proved most entertaining and enjoyable and many went purposely to see them. The pictures were so clear and steady that it was a pleasure to watch them. Miss Von Branders is still the favorite singer and was very bright and winsome in her song last evening.

Miss Annie Jenkins, late with Carter & Co., Ltd., and daughter of W. W. Jenkins, Georgetown, left yesterday morning for Boston, Mass., where she will take up the study of nursing in Peabody Hospital. She was accompanied as far as Summerside by Miss Flo Campbell.

A great many people of Charlottetown will remember the original given by Prof. Hutchinson in St. James Church sometime ago. The Y. M. L. A., are going to give the public a bigger one on Dec. 7th. Prof. Strimpton will conduct the choir. Made up of the City's best talent and give a number of organ solos.
