A SPLENDID CONTRIBUTION—The Red Cross Society of Valleyfield were very pleasantly surprised on Monday, Jan. 7th, when they were presented with the handsome donation of $66.35 to their funds, by the people of Bellevue. This gift has reached the Society at a time when funds are needed, and assure the Bellevue people that their splendid gift is highly appreciated. The Society is also grateful to Miss Maud MacPherson, Bellevue, and Miss Katie E. MacLean, East Valleyfield, for their united efforts towards making this contribution the success it is.

THE CHRISTMAS CLOSING AT BLOOMING POINT SCHOOL—The semi-annual examination of Blooming Point School was held Friday afternoon Dec. 21st. It was very largely attended by the ratepayers and ladies of the district. The school was nicely decorated for the occasion with red white and blue trimmings and spruce, while in one corner was a Christmas tree laden with gifts. The pupils were thoroughly examined in their various subjects by their teacher Miss Florence McDougall, assisted by Miss Josephine McDonald, teacher of Tracadie Criss School and Miss Annie McDougall, teacher of Point De Roche, and by their prompt and intelligent answers showed careful teaching. After the examination the following programme was very excellently rendered. Welcome speech by Daniel and Vincent McGillivray; Song, Santa Claus is Coming by Marie MacDonald. Recitation, Belgium, by George McDonald and Peter McDougall. Recitation, My Sister's feller by Jeremiah McDougall. Dialogue by George McDonald and Peter McDougall. Recitation, Where our heroes sleep by Edward McDougall. Song, Down in the Valley, by Marie McDonald. Recitation, We little boys by Vincent McGillivray. Recitation, A Miracle by Frank Kelly. Reading, The Bootblacks Ordeal by George McDonald. Recitation, The Stocking's Christmas by Daniel McGillivray. Valledictory by Peter McDougall, after which the jingle of bells was heard and Santa Claus appeared on the scene to the delight of the pupils, and proceeded to unload the brilliantly lighted and well laden tree giving each pupil a nice gift, then he said good-by promising to return next year. Remarks were then made by those present complimenting both teacher and pupils on their excellent examination and programme. The visitors and pupils were then treated to home made candy and chocolate by the teacher. After the singing of the National Anthem all quietly dispersed to their homes well satisfied with the afternoon's entertainment.

L.O.A.—District lodge, District of Crapaud met in annual session, in Derry lodge room, Long Creek, on Tuesday, January 8th inst., with District Master, Bro. Wm. S. McNeill, presiding. Despite the unfavourable weather and poor condition of the roads, a large number of delegates were present, every lodge in the District being well represented. The reports of the various officers, and committees, were presented, including a lengthy address by the District Master, showing the Order in this District to be in a flourishing condition. This Crapaud District has had a very satisfactory year, reports show an increase in membership in every lodge in the district, Derry L.O. L. No. 1169, Long Creek, heading the list with an increase of 23 members during the year. After a considerable amount of general business was disposed of, election of officers was proceeded with, which resulted as follows: D. M.—Frederick Campbell, Argyle Shore; D. D. M.—Alexander McKenzie, Long Creek; D. Chap.—Jas. Smith, Appin Road; D. Sec.—Neil McCannell, Canoe Cove; D. Treas.—Vernor Moore, Crapaud; D. D. O. C.—Mr. Fall, Crapaud; D. Lect.—George M. Campbell, Canoe Cove. The officers were duly installed by Past District Master, Bro. M. F. McKinnon, assisted by Bro. Al-
