LAST NIGHT'S EVANGELISTIC MEETING

"The best definition of true repentance that I ever heard of was from a returned soldier," said Evangelist Bell. In the course of his address, at the first evangelistic meeting in the First Methodist Church last evening. This soldier said: "I was on the march to Hell, when I heard a voice say to my inmost soul—'halt,' then I heard again—'right about face,' and after that immediately the command—'quick march!' This is true repentance."

Mr. Bell was in fine form last evening and he handled his theme "Repentance" in his characteristically able and effective manner. His text was, Acts 17:30—"And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men everywhere to repent."

We are told by many people that what is required now is simply to believe that Christ is the Son of God and we shall be saved. We are also told that the repentance which belongs to the old dispensation, and not to the new. These people declare that John the Baptist was the last preacher to undertake the old dispensation and that there, the doctrine of repentance ceases. When Christ who was the first preacher under the new dispensation, began his ministry, what did he say? "Repent for the Kingdom of God is at hand." Repentance and the remission of sins was the message Christ commanded the Apostles to preach, to every nation, beginning first at Jerusalem.

Mr. Bell pointed out that repentance also holds a prominent place in the message of the new dispensation, and that every New Testament preacher, worthy of the name, had preached that doctrine, and that the first thing necessary to repentance was a realization of sin. "I am going to clear my skirts right now and declare my firm belief in that doctrine," said Mr. Bell.

The Evangelist then gave the various definitions of sin, which John declared is a transgression of the law, the breaking of the commandments of God.

The worst sin of all is the neglect of put faith in Christ, as the Son of God. This is the sin that closes the door of the pearly gates and opens the door to the gate of Hell.

A man is not damned because he is a murderer or an adulterer, but because he will not believe in Jesus Christ as the Son of God.

Whilst God is kind, full of mercy and pity, he is also full of wrath against sin. His mercy was exhausted when He gave His Son, Outside of that, he is a consuming fire.

Sorrow grief or remorse for our sins do not constitute repentance. Judas, after betraying Christ, was filled with remorse, but he did not repent. Peter denied his Lord, was terrible crying but he repented of his wrong-doing and confessed his sin.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS JANET HAYTER

There passed away from this life to the great beyond on the morning of March 25th Janet beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hayter, Cardigan, where she had been residing, at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. R. McSwain.

Her death came as a great shock to her many friends and relatives. She will be greatly missed, not only by her family circle, in which she was a kind and loving daughter and sister, but by her friends and neighbors as well by whom she was always held in affection and respect. She leaves to mourn besides a heart broken father and mother five brothers, Henry in Halifax; Nelson, Thomas, Malcolm and James at home, and two sisters Grace and Katie at home to whom the sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended. There was a large attendance of friends, being nearly one hundred in number. The funeral took place from Mrs. McSwain's to the Cemetery at Cardigan on Wednesday. (Island papers please copy.)

MRS. JAMES McCORMACK

Death of Mrs. James A. McCormack Nautrage. There passed away to her eternal reward, on April 11th, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Allan Gillis, St. Margaret's Lot 14 an estimable old lady—an octogenarian—in the person of Mrs. Nellie McCormack (nee Nellie McDonald) in the 92nd year of her age. She was 91 years past, and with the exception of Mrs. John McPhee, Big Pond, Lot 45, was probably the oldest lady in these Eastern parts. She came from a family noted for their longevity, her father, John McDonald, Bay River, had an unbroken record so did her brothers, Donald MacDonald "the member", Norman McDonald, Naufus hand, James A. McCormack, Nautrage preceded her in death over thirty years ago. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Allan Gillis, St. Margaret's, there is also Mary Ellen (Mrs. McDonald) in Boston; John Archibald, a successful teacher in Montreal; and John, somewhere in the West. Her son, Timothy with whom she formerly lived on the old homestead until his marriage, died two years ago. The old lady was smart and active up to a month before her death. Never was sick in her life—never laid up in bed until her last sickness, a robust, healthy woman. She was noted for her hospital-ity. Living as she did near the Church her home was a centre for distant parishioners coming to their religious duties at the Church, and where there always was a hearty welcome, and everybody made at home under her hospitable roof. Always a dutiful member of her beloved Church, she died fortified by its rites and privileges. Her pastor, Rev. Father McPherson, cheer-fully attending her at her last illness and consoling her with the saving sac-raments and words of faith hope and charity. She was buried in the ceme-tery where she visited so frequently alongside the church, her reposed body resting in peace. (Pat and Exam.)

Blinded by Indigestion

And Tortured by Headache—Spells Became More and More Frequent Until Cure Was Found

Inghos Beach, N. S., April 20.—Chronic indigestion is hard to get rid of because the treatments used aim at relief rather than at removing the cause. This letter shows how the trouble develops from constipation until the digestive system is upset, the food ferments, and headaches and blinding dizzy spells result.

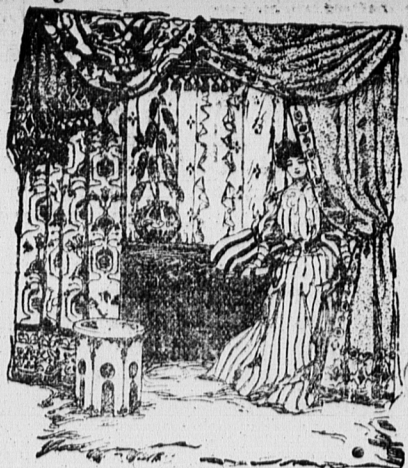

In this case cure was effected by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Mrs. Donovan writes that she has never had a headache since. This seems to be conclusive evidence of the thoroughness of the cure.

Mrs. John J. Donovan, Inghos Beach, N. S., writes: "I wish to speak a word or two in praise of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I was troubled for years with sick headache and was so bad that when the pain would strike me, I would get blind, would have to drop everything and go to bed. These pills used to come very frequently—sometimes as often as twice a week. I read in Dr. Chase's Almanac of his Kidney-Liver Pills, and decided to try them. I hadn't used this medicine long until I was completely cured. I have never had a headache since, and feel that I cannot speak too highly in praise of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills."

You cannot expect such results from substitutes and imitations, so be sure to get the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on the box you buy.
